THE REPUBLICAN STATE CONVENTION

A Republican convention for the state of Oregon is called to meet at the city of Portland, Oregon, on Wednesday, the 30th day of April, 1884, at 11 o'clock a. M., for the purpose of nominating candidates for the following offices, to-wit Bepresentative in congress, judge of the supreme court, the presidential electors, and district officers for the several judici al districts, and to select six delegates to attend the national Republican convention, and to transact such other business as may properly come before the convention.

The convention will consist of 206 dele gates, apportioned among the several counties, as follows:

Baker 5 Lake Clackamas . .10 Linn 6 Polk 5 Tillamook . 2 Umstilla...... 12 Union Curry Douglas..... 3 Yambill Josephine Klamath.

The same being one delegate at large from each county, and one delegate for every 125 votes, and one for every fraction over one-half thereof, cast for Hon. M. C. George, congressman, at the last general election.

The committee recommend that the The committee recommend that the primaries be held on Saturday, the 12th of April, and the county conventions on Tuesday, the 22d day of April, unless otherwise ordered by the proper county central committees.

The committee earnestly recommend that the delegates elected to the state convention attend in person, and if not convenient for them to so attend personally, that they send their proxies by ally, that they send their proxies by electors of the county they represent. The Republican voters of the state, without regard to pest political differ-ences, who are in favor of elevating and dignifying American labor, giving free popular education to the masses of the people, effectually protecting all human rights in every section of our common country, and who desire to promote country, and who desire to promote friendly feeling and permanent harmony throughout the state by maintaining a government pledged to these objects and privileges, are cordially invited to unite in selecting delegates to the Re-publican state convention. SOL. HIRSCH, Chairman. Portland, Oregon, Feb. 21, 1884.

THE DEMOCRATIC STATE CONVENTION.

The state Democratic convention is hereby called to meet at Dalles City, on Thursday, the 17th of April next, at 10 Thursday, the 17th of April next, at 10 o'clock a. M., for the purpose of nominating candidates for the following offices: Judge of the supreme court, three presidential electors, representative in the lower house of congress and district officers for the several judicial districts, and to select six delegates to the national Democratic convention, and generally to to do such other busines as may of right come before such convention. come before such convention. most vital import to our commonwealth in all its interests, both public and private.

Deeming honesty the best policy, and in striking contrast with the course of the opposition party, we have named an early day for the assembling of the state convention. Our principles as a party will then be enunciated, and our candidates placed in the field subject to the approval or consideration of the body politic.

The variance in the vote of this state during the past few years, and especially the very close contest in the presidential election of 1880, gives us much hope that, notwithstanding our present minority, with harmony in our ranks, and a well-directed exertion of our strength, we shall carry off the palm of victory. But to insure this end it is imperative that all Democrats should contribute their undivided support and hearty co-operation, not only in the actual canvass but in its very initiation—the county primaries.

Those who have watched our market quotations says the Farmer, will have observed that "creamery" butter is constantly quoted from 3 to 6 cents per pound higher than "dairy," and this, in turn, from 6 to 10 cents higher than "common," and no doubt many have wondered what practical difference there can be between these various grades.

"Creamery" butter is simply pure, sweet, well made butter, no better than is made at times by many farmers' wives, but it is made by persons who, by devoting their whole time and attention to this work alone-not making it secondary to other household cares-and by being supplied with every necessary appliance for controlling temperature, cleanliness, etc., have acquired such skill in it that the quality of their butter is of perfect uniformity from one end of the year to the other; consequently, consumers know just what they will get in buying it.

"Dairy" butter is often just as good as "creamery," but is made by persons who are largely occupied by other duties, to which the dairy work is secondary; consequently, there is always a liability that some particular lot of butter shall be a little off flavor. owing to neglect of the cows, milk or butter at a critical period. The large scale upon which creamery butter is made is one of the necessary factors to its uniformity; it is next to impossible to make much butter from a single cow, or even from two or three cows, because of the changes constantly occurring in the milk owing to changes of food, remoteness from calving, etc. But when milk is drawn from two or three hundred cows, some of which are weekly coming in fresh, it will be seen that one potent cause of irregularity in the quality of butter is eliminated.

"Common butter" appears on far too many tables. It is either white, salvy, rancid, or tainted with the odors of unclean cellars, or all of these combined. Its cost of manufacture is as great, if not greater, than that of the best "creamery," through ignorance or neglect of some of the very simple essentials of regularity, or cleanliness in the care of the cows or of the milk or butter, its quality is ruined.

"Come in here, come in here," said Artemus Ward one day in Boston, to the companion walking with him. "Come in here; we will have some fun." It was a Boston pie bakery which they entered—a place where pies were a specialty—where pies and nothing but pies were sold, wholesale and retail, all the livelong Ward approached the counter, behind which the proprietor of the establishment was standing, and, asked, in his bland insinuating voice:

"Have you any pies?"
"Pies!" replied the astounded pro-

"Pies! ! !" gasped the shopm once more, gazing at Ward as if he thought him an escaped lunatic. well, if you haven't got any pies I'll inquire somewhere else; come on Jack," and he marched his friend out of the shop again before the salesman could recover his wits.

The Emperor Louis Napoleon smoked only the finest circars the world could produce. Prof. Horsford says the Emperor's cigars were made specially for him in Havana from leaf tobacco grown in the Golden Belt of North Carolina, this being the finest leaf grown. Blackwell's Bail Durham Smokine Tobacco is made from the same leaf used in the Emperor's cigars, is absolutely pure and is unquestionably the best tobacco ever offered.

Thackeray's gifted daughter, Anne, in her sketch of Alfred Tennyson, in Hosper's Moschib, tells of her visit to the great poet. She found him smokins Blackwell's Buil Durham Tobacco, each him by Hon Jances Russell Lowell, American Minister to the Court of St. James.

In these days of adultoration, it is a comfort to smokers to keep that the Buil Durham Fand is absolutely pure, and made from the best tobacco the world produces.
