THE REPUBLICAN STATE CONVENTION

A Republican convention for the state of Oregon is called to meet at the city of Portland, Oregon, on Wednesday, the 30th day of April, 1884, at 11 o'clock A. M., for the purpose of nominating candidates for the following offices, to-wit: Representative in congress, judge of the supreme court, the presidential electors, and district officers for the several judicial districts, and to select six delegates to attend the national Republican convention, and to transact such other business as may properly come before the convention.

The convention will consist of 206 delegates, apportioned among the several counties, as follows:

Baker	5	Lake	2
Benton	9	Lane	10
Clackamas	10	Linn	12
Clatsop	6	Marion	18
Columbia	4	Multnomah	35
Coos	6	Polk	8
Crook	5	Tillamook	2
Curry	2	Umatilla	12
Douglas	12	Union	7
Grant	5	Wasco	8
Jackson	6	Washington	8
Josephine	3	Yamhill	9
Klamath	2
Total	206

The same being one delegate at large from each county, and one delegate for every 125 votes, and one for every fraction over one-half thereof, cast for Hon. M. C. George, congressman, at the last general election.

The committee recommend that the primaries be held on Saturday, the 12th of April, and the county conventions on Tuesday, the 22d day of April, unless otherwise ordered by the proper county central committees.

The committee earnestly recommend that the delegates elected to the state convention attend in person, and if not convenient for them to so attend personally, that they send their proxies by electors of the county they represent.

The Republican voters of the state, without regard to past political differences, who are in favor of elevating and dignifying American labor, giving free popular education to the masses of the people, effectually protecting all human rights in every section of our common country, and who desire to promote friendly feeling and permanent harmony throughout the state by maintaining a government pledged to these objects and privileges, are cordially invited to unite in selecting delegates to the Republican state convention.

SOL. HIRSCH, Chairman.
Portland, Oregon, Feb. 21, 1884.

THE DEMOCRATIC STATE CONVENTION.

The state Democratic convention is hereby called to meet at Dalles City, on Thursday, the 17th of April next, at 10 o'clock A. M., for the purpose of nominating candidates for the following offices: Judge of the supreme court, three presidential electors, representative in the lower house of congress and district officers for the several judicial districts, and to select six delegates to the national Democratic convention, and generally to to do such other busines as may of right come before such convention.

The committee deem it fitting to present to the Democratic voters of the state the following considerations:

We see approaching an election of most vital import to our commonwealth in all its interests, both public and private.

Deeming honesty the best policy, and in striking contrast with the course of the opposition party, we have named an early day for the assembling of the state convention. Our principles as a party will then be enunciated, and our candidates placed in the field subject to the approval or consideration of the body politic.

The variance in the vote of this state during the past few years, and especially the very close contest in the presidential election of 1880, gives us much hope that, notwithstanding our present minority, with harmony in our ranks, and a well-directed exertion of our strength, we shall carry off the palm of victory. But to insure this end it is imperative that all Democrats should contribute their undivided support and hearty co-operation, not only in the actual canvass but in its very initiation—the county primaries. We do not presume to trespass upon the precincts of our popular convention, but do earnestly invoke all members of our party to put aside past differences and personal antagonisms, to unite in harmonious action in the various primaries and to send full delegations of representative men to attend the state convention. We have deemed it fitting to reduce the number of delegates, in the hope of securing the personal attendance of those to be chosen. We especially recommend the formation of local clubs, where practicable, throughout the state.

Believing that the success of the Democracy is the welfare of the people, we cordially invite all persons, regardless of past political affiliations, who favor simplicity, economy and frugality in the administration of public affairs to unite with us.

AL ZIEBER, Chairman.
P. H. D'ARCY, Secretary.

DEMOCRATIC CALL.

The Democratic convention of Clatsop county is called to meet at the county court-house in the city of Astoria at one o'clock P. M. on the 12th day of April, 1884, for the purpose of electing delegates to the Democratic state convention.

At some future date (to be named by the committee) the same delegates will be convened for the purpose of nominating candidates for county officers and transacting any other business that may properly come before the meeting.

The county convention will be composed of forty-one members apportioned among the voting precincts as follows:

Astoria	21
Clifton	1
Clatsop	2
Fish Hawk	1
John Day	1
Knappa	3
Lewis and Clark	1
Mishawaka	2
Sea Side	1
Upper Astoria	5
Vesper	1
Westport	1
Young's River	1

Democratic primaries for the election of delegates to the county convention will be held in the respective precincts on Saturday, April 5, 1884.

A Narrow Pivot.

The assertion is constantly being made that neither party can win the presidency without the vote of New York. The Times of that city says: "If the man named for president by the Republican convention is not thoroughly acceptable to the people of this state, the Republicans in other states cannot avert his defeat." On the Democratic side we find the conditions are quite as hard. If the man named for president by the Democratic convention is not acceptable to Tammany, the Democrats in other states cannot avert his defeat. Tammany prevented the nomination of Tilden in 1880. The 60,000 voters who act independently, but are generally classed as Democrats, stood in Mr. Tilden's way to the presidency at a time when he might have been elected. A man named John Kelly controls these 60,000 votes. They have made him their chief, and at election time put their votes where Mr. Kelly thinks they will do the most good. Thus the pivotal state of New York narrows down to Tammany, and Tammany to John Kelly. If this cast of the situation is correct, John Kelly can dictate to the next Democratic national convention. If it makes a nomination he does not like, he can defeat it by the casting of his 60,000 votes in New York. This is a rather pitiful state of affairs. The political arena should be made broader by the introduction of new issues. It is not consistent with true democracy that one man, at the head of 60,000 voters, should direct a policy in which more than 10,000,000 voters are vitally interested. Tammany was organized to control local politics. Its aim is to secure a larger share of patronage than would belong to it as a general part of the Democratic party. When its claims have not been recognized within the party, it has not hesitated to set up for itself. It defeated the Democratic candidate for governor in 1879, and its threat kept Tilden out of the national convention in 1880. A lofty ideal cannot be reached by a party whose policy is dictated by a small faction whose motive is the spoils of office. The Democrats may not be able to do without Tammany, but their dependence is an element of weakness. When the 5,000,000 or 6,000,000 voters who are expected to support the Democratic ticket throughout the country are informed that 60,000 of their number, who happen to live in New York, can, by virtue of their power as a compact body of voters in a pivotal state, demand the nomination of this or that man, and demonstrate their ability to defeat the ticket if their demand is not complied with, a portion of the 5,000,000 or 6,000,000 may come to the conclusion that a party so led may as well be beaten anyhow.

A subscription to a Bridgeport, Conn., journal has been stopped by a lady who writes that "my husband has passed to that land where there is no need of the news of the earth, and as my residence for the present is uncertain, you will please discontinue the paper."

At the New York Welsh eisteddfod the other day the refrain of one of the songs was "Gwlad, gwlad, pleidol wyf i'm gwlad." That sounds like a dude with a hot potato in his mouth

The Emperor Louis Napoleon smoked only the finest cigars the world could produce. Prof. Horsford says the Emperor's cigars were made specially for him in Havana from leaf tobacco grown in the Golden Belt of North Carolina, this being the finest leaf grown. Blackwell's Bull Durham Smoking Tobacco is made from the same leaf used in the Emperor's cigars, is absolutely pure and is unquestionably the best tobacco ever offered.

Thackeray's gifted daughter, Anne, in her sketch of Alfred Tennyson, in Harper's Monthly, tells of her visit to the great poet. She found him smoking Blackwell's Bull Durham Tobacco, sent him by Hon. James Russell Lowell, American Minister to the Court of St. James.

In these days of adulteration, it is a comfort to smokers to know that the Bull Durham brand is absolutely pure, and made from the best tobacco the world produces.

Blackwell's Bull Durham Smoking Tobacco is the best and purest made. All dealers have it. None genuine without the trade-mark of the Bull.

Stop That Horse!

From Slipping.

USE THE PATENT SHOE.

George McLane

HAS JUST RECEIVED A PATENT Horse-shoe from the Patent Office, for the purpose of preventing all classes of horses from slipping on plank, or steep roads.

Horses shod with this shoe WILL NOT SLIP. A trial will convince anyone.

I keep Two First-class Shoers in my shop. Try the NEW SHOE.
