The committee resommend that the primaries be held on Saturday, the 12th of April, and the county conventions on Tuesday, the 22d day of April, unless otherwise ordered by the proper county central committees.

The committee earnestly recommend that the delegates elected to the state convention attend in person, and if not convenient for them to so attend personally, that they send their proxies by electors of the county they represent.

The Republican voters of the state, without regard to past political differences, who are in favor of elevating and dignifying American labor, giving free popular education to the masses of the people, effectually protecting all human rights in every section of our common country, and who desire to promote friendly feeling and permanent harmony throughout the state by maintaining a government pledgad to these objects and privileges, are cordially invited to unite in selecting delegates to the Republican state convention.

THE DEMOCRATIC STATE CONVENTION.

The state Democratic convention is hereby called to meet at Dalles City, on Thursday, the 17th of April next, at 10 o'clock A. M., for the purpose of nominating candidates for the following offices: Judge of the supreme court, three presidential electors, representative in the lower house of congress and district officers for the several judicial districts, and to select six delegates to the national Democratic convention, and generally to to do such other busines as may of right come before such convention. The state Democratic convention is come before such convention.

The committee deem it fitting to pre-ent to the Democratic voters of the state the following considerations:
We see approaching an election of most vital import to our commonwealth in all its interests, both public and pri-

Deeming honesty the best policy, and in striking contrast with the course of the opposition party, we have named an early day for the assembling of the state convention. Our principles as a party will then be enunciated, and our candidates placed in the field subject to the approval or consideration of the body politic.

physical or consideration of the body politic.

The variance in the vote of this state during the past few years, and especially the very close contest in the presidential election of 1880, gives us much hope that, notwithstanding our present minority, with harmony in our ranks, and a well-directed exertion of our strength, we shall carry off the palm of victory. But to insure this end it is imperative that all Democrats should contribute their undivided support and hearty co-operation, not only in the actual cunvass but in its very initiation—the county primaries. very initiation—the county primaries.
We do not presume to trespase upon the precincts of our popular convention, but do earnestly invoke all members of our party to put aside past differences and personal antagonisms, to unite in harmonions action in the verieus comparing action. personal antagonisms, to unite in harmonious action in the various primaries and to send fall delegations of representative men to attend the state convention. We have deemed it fitting to reduce the number of delegates, in the hope of securing the personal attendance of those to be chosen. We especially recommend the formation of local clubs, where practicable, throughout the state.

Believing that the success of the Democracy is the welfare of the people, we cordially invite all persons, regardless of past political affiliations, who favor simplicity, economy and fragality in the administration of public affairs to unite with us.

P. H. D'ABCY, Secretary.

One of our well-known physicians,

who acted as a surgeon in the late war, and in the same capacity through the Indian campaigns with the gallant Custer, was on the day of the horrible massacre shot in the back with a rifle bullet, and naturally he has been greatly troubled ever since. A gathering or bag of pus formed in the wound and adhered to the spinal column. According to the physician's account to a number of acquaintances a few days since, he said he had for ears endeavored to procure relief, but the most eminent surgeons of the state informed him that an operation would cause the gravest danger-a mild way of telling him be would die. At last growing desperate over his situation, the doctor determined to undertake the operation himself. Be-fore beginning he wrote the following upon his office slate: "To the person who finds my body: In an attempt to remove the cause of much trouble to CUTICURA REMEDI'S are the greatest medicines on earth. J. W. ADAMS, Newers, O. large mirror behind him and one in front, and then proceeded to make an incision across the back about four inches in length, and another at right angles from it. He then separated the skin from the flesh, with a pair of forceps tore the obstinate bag from the bone. The operation was a long and painful one, the pus-bag clinging as though fastened with rivets of steel. He was often compelled to rest on account of utter exhaustion, but he would renew his efforts, with a strong desire of success each time, and believed he would soon again enjoy perfect health. He worked only as a man could work to save his life. After the operation was completed the doctor sank senseless upon the floor of his office, and remained so for about eight hours Upon returning consciousness the plucky physician set to work replacing the loosened skin upon his and dressed the wound in a business like manner. He now appears daily upon the streets, a picture of perfect health, and claims to weigh twenty eight pounds more than he ever did. In performing the operation the doctor was also successful in finding the bullet which caused him so much trouble. Truly he is a man of nerve. -Chico Record

When you come to think of it, it is not odd that literary people prefer a pipe to a cigar. It is handler to smoke when they are writing, and ever so much cleaner. And then it gives them the true essence and flavor of the tobacco.

The most fastidious smokers amous all natious and all classes of men agree that the tobacco grown on the Golden Tobacco Belt of North Carolina is the most delictious and refined in the world. Lighter than Turkish, more fragrant than Havans, free from nitrates and nicotine than any other, it is just what the councissem praises and the hallitual smoker demands. The very choicest tobacco grown on this Belt is bought by Black well's Durham Tobacco. It is how the world over.
