THE DEBOCRATIC STATE CONVENTION.

The state Democratic convention is hereby called to meet at Dalles City, on Thursday, the 17th of April next, at 10 o'clock a. M., for the purpose of nominat-ing candidates for the following offices: Judge of the supreme court, three presi-dential electors, representative in the lower house of congress and district lower house of congress and unstate officers for the several judicial districts, and to select six delegates to the national Democratic convention, and generally to to do such other busines as may of right come before such convention. The committee deem it fitting to prepolitic. The variance in the vote of this state The variance in the vote of this state during the past few years, and especially the very close contest in the presidential election of 1880, gives us much hope that, notwithstanding our present minority, with harmony in our ranks, and a well-directed exertion of our strength, we shall carry off the palm of victory. But to insure this end it is imperative that all Democrats should contribute their undi-9,942 1,664 Democrats should contribute their undivided support and hearty co-operation, not only in the actual curvass but in its very initiation-the county primaries.

SOCIETY MEETINGS.

An Un-American Movement

It begins to look quite probable that the republicans will nominate Secretary of War Lincoln to the vice presidency. In case it has not proved a misfortune to be the son of a fam-ous father. It is only because of his father that we know anything about him. If his name had not been Lin-coln, Mr. Garfield would never have dreamed of lifting him out of obscurity. If his name were not Lincoln nobody would think of mentioning him in connection with the vice pres idency. Mr. Lincoln appears to be nothing more than a respectable, commonplace man. If he has any talents he has never displayed them. The politicians who are pushing this mediocre person as a candidate for the second highest office in the republic do not hesitate to admit that his "availibility" consists of his son ship, and nothing else. They make no pretensions that he has any personal qualifications which mark him as a citizen worthy of distinction. It can be said in his favor that nobody can say anything against him; but this negative merit is possessed by every obscure and reputable man in the country. The "Lincoln movement" country. is essentially un-American. Birth ought to count for nothing in a re public; yet here is one of the great political parties putting a man for-ward whose only claim upon the suffrages of the people is his birth. The poverty of ideas in current politics is illustrated in a very marked way by this attempt to "boom" a very ordi-nary young man, who represents nothing, but who happens to be the offspring of a great man whose memory is revered by his grateful countrymen. It would be a poor way of showing appreciation of Abraham Lincoln's services to the cause of liberty to use his -name for the overthrow of the good republican principle that as a man's birth is a thing beyond his power to control, it should count neither for nor against him when his fitness for public service is estimated. If Mr. Lincoln runs for the vice-presidency on the platform of his birth, every good American citizen ought to vote against him. We want no hereditary aristocracy

A story entitled "A Bad Turn," and to the following effect, is going the rounds: A clergyman was devoutly reading the holy scriptures to his congregation, when he came to a certain word in the lower right hand corner to which he desired to give great emphasis. So he read with a loud voice, "I am"-turned over two leaves and continued --"an ass, the foal of an ass"--then, seecing his mistake, towage in and out over the Columbia Bar: For vessels not — Inward—Outward. Our principles as a party will then be enunciated, and our candi-dates placed in the field subject to the approval or consideration of the body politic. ness, the story is altogether too thin.
