THE CELEBRATED Foley Springs.

THESE CELEBRATED MEDICINAL Springs situated in Lane County, Oregon, are unequaled for the cure of Catarrhal affections, Rheumatism, and Dyspepsia, as thousands throughout the Northwest will attest.

Every care is 'given invalids and those who seek the benefits of the waters.

Carriages leave the St. Charles Hotel, Eugene City, every Wednesday and Saturday, direct for the Springs.

A Candidate for the Gallows. Last fall, just previous to the win-ter storms, the city of Weston was burned to the ground, and what was HUMORS the leading city of Eastern Oregon in the morning, at night was a pile of blackened ashes. But two busi-Burning Tortures, Humil ness houses escaped, and from disaster the place has not yet entirely recovered. The Walla Walla Statesman further says: "One Miller coniating Eruptions, such as fessed that Sylvester, the proprietor of the St. John's hotel, offered him a suit of clothes and $200 if he would set fire to the town. He had preset fire to the town. He had pre-viously sold horses and other property to raise money with which to place more insurance upon the buildplace more insurance upon the building. Miller says he refused to do the deed, but promised to keep dark about it. Sylvester then turned his attention to a more pliable tool, and one Dimick consented to do it at the first favorable opportunity. The night of October 17 was chosen, as the wind was blowing in a gale from the west, the skating rink was in full blast and the railroad men had been paid off and were drinking deeply, a suspicion could drinking deeply, a suspicion could easily be directed toward them—as it afterward was. On the evening of the 17th, Sylvester and Dimick hitched up their team and started for Walla Walla. Dimick left the team after it had got a short dis-tance from town and returned, obtained a lot of burning coals, which he wrapped in a woolen shirt and running to the hay loft back of the street, where the fire originated, depositing the burning mass in the midst of the hay. How it burned, and the whole town with it, is still fresh in the memories of our readers. Sylvester is living at Eugene City and has been arrested. Dimick is still at large, but Joe Truesdale of Weston, is on his track and will undoubtedly capture him. Hon. Edward McPherson, who has taken a prominent part in the re-organization of the National Republican party, holds that under the system of district representation now in force there can be no proxies in the National Republican convention. If the delegate or his alternate be not present, there is no method by which vacancy can be filled, unless the district convention which named the delegate, that is to say, the original power, appoints a successor. This was substantially the rule set up by the last Republican national convention. It follows logically from the district system of representation. The district is supposed to have elected two delegates to represent it in the national assemblage. If the delegate is to be regarded as the agent of those who sent him, he cannot transfer his functions to snother; nor can the convention itself fill the vacancy, for in that case the whole party would be choosing a represent ative for that particular district.

All the Rage.

To captivate the popular taste and surpass all previous efforts to please the palate, requires no small amount of knowledge and no little skill, and when we remember that the very agreeable liquid fruit remedy, Syrup of Figs, is as beneficial to the system, as it is acceptable to the stomach, we readily understand why it is the universal favorite as a cure for Habitual Consumption and other ills arising from a weakness, or inactive condition of the Bowels, Kidneys, Liver and Stomach. MESSTH. SEABURY & JOHNSON, 191 WEST TENTH STREET, NEW YORK, August 11, 1880.

Gentlemen:-Like most of my protession 1 am cautious about pinning my faith to any new medicine or curative agent. But your BENSON'S CAPCINE POROUS PLASTER has broken through the barriers and won it way to my good opinion. My attention was first called to it some eight months ago by a patient of mine Although I was well acquainted with the superior excellence of your other plaster and antiseptic dressing, made especially for the profession, the Benson's was comparatively new to me. I had heard. however, of its merits as a remedy, in cases of Lame Back, Local Rheumatism, Neuralgia. Congestion of the Bronchial Tubes and Lungs. Dyspepsis, Torpid Liver and the like affections, and have since begun to experiment with it personally. I find BENSON'S CAPCINE PLASTER an exceptionally clean ly plaster to use, and rapid in its action-

Many tests of its qualities, made in my own family and among my patients have convinc-ed me that there is no single article so valuable for popular use, nor so helpful in the diseases I have named. Should you desire to do so, you may use my name to that effect.

Very truly yours, H. H. KANE, A. M., M. D. The genuine have the word CAPCINE cut in the center. Price 25 cents.
