One probable feature of this year's salmon business on the Columbia will be that vestly fewer cases will go to England "on consignment." A good many of the cannerymen have not enough of that.

Captain Babbidge is off for Gray's har-bor with the A. B. Field. The fact that he earries a large consignment of base balls and bats is learned with cheerful hopefulness by the surgeons and druggists in the vicinity.

No part of Astoria is growing as fast as appertown. While, strictly appeared appertown. While, strictly speaking, upper Astoria is a town by itself, not being in the municipality, yet to all intents and purposes it is a part of the city and presents a most thrifty and prosperous the concertains that ppearance.

The Columbia is reported to be rising steadtly in the interior. It looks a little muddy, but beyond that and the casual appearance of tree trunks, no one would ever know down here whether it had "riz" or not. But to our friends inland, at Portland and elsewhere, it is a matter

What came near being a tracedy occurred at Bay Viewday before yesterday. An employe getting into an afterestion with a Chinaman struck him in the head with a stick of wood, and it required the immediate services of a doctor brought in haste from Astoria to keep the Celestial from doing the golden stair set.

There is one thing that has always helped go Astoris and it is with regret a tendency to let it fall into disuse is observed. That is the cash system. Once let the slipshod 'pay-you-next-week' style of doing business get the foothold here that it has in other communities and it will be to our detriment in every way.

Henry Ward Beecher, John L. Suilivan, Ketie Putnam, Rice's Sarprise Party-these four had the largest audiences ever assembled in an Astoria thenter. There was a good deal of enjoyment at all these assembled in an Astoria theater. There was a good deal of enjoyment at all these several entertainments: that accorded chose who were present last evening is the freshest in their minds. If "a little nonsense now and then is relished by the wisest nen," how much more so by a good many of us who lay no claim to wisdom and who love to be amused? Kate Castleton is the leading feature, and her display anatomical and artistic is some thing that is often initiated, very seldons successfully. The piece throughout is most enjoyable, and a good many who couldn't get encores enough last night will doubtless avail themselves of the opportunity to see "Pop" to-night. SAHORS' SUPERSTITIONS CONCERNING FINLANDERS.

Marine superstitions should not be hard o kill, for they are not very numerous. A large number have been fathered on sailors by land writers, but they want the true ring, the salt flavor is lacking, and it is easy to peresive that their narrators never were aflost. The really nautical superstition is unmistakable. It is born of the sea-faring life and the spirit of it speaks as surely of blue water and the association together of months at a time of briny minds in dim and resonant interiors as the lurching, rolling guit, the toughtened hands swinging athwartships, tell of the ocean sailor, the wa jockey
