THE NATIONAL REPUBLICAN PLATFORM

The Republicans of the United State in national convention assembled, renew their allegiance to the principles upon which they have triumphed in six successive presidential elections, and congratulate the American people upon the attainment of so many results in legislation and administration by which the Republican party has, after saving the Union, done so much to render its institutions just, equal, and beneficent, the safeguards of liberty and the embodiment of the best thought and highest purposes of our citizens. The Republican party has gained its strength by a quick and faithful response to the demands of the people for freedom and the equality of all .men: for a united nation, assuring the rights of all citizens; A. B.57.—Houck of Tennessee, Thurston of Nebraska, Lee of Pennsylvania Currency; for purity, in legislation, for the elevation of labor; for an honest currency; for purity, in legislation, for integrity and accountability in all departments of the government; and it accepts ments of the government; and it accepts anew the duty of leading in the work of progress and reform.

We lament the death of President Garfield, whose sound statesmanship, long conspicuous in congress, gave promise of a strong and successful administrationa promise fully realized during the short period of his office as president of the United States. His distinguished suc-cesses in war and peace have endeared him to the hearts of the American

In the administration of President Ar thur we recognize the wise, conservative and patriotic policy under which the country has been blessed with remark-able prosperity. We believe his eminent services are entitled to and will receive the hearty approval of every citize

THE TARIFF QUESTION. It is the first duty of a good government to protect the rights and promote the interests of its own people. The largest diversity of industry is productive of general prosperity and of the comfort and independence of the people. We recognize the importance of sheep husbandry in the United States, the serious decreasion which it is now experiencing depression which it is now experiencing and the danger threatening its future prosperity, and we therefore respect the demands of the representatives of this important agricultural interest for a re-adjustment of duty upon foreign wool, in order that such industry shall have full and adequate protection. We there-fore demand that the imposition of du-ties on foreign imports shall be made on which it is now experiencing ties on foreign imports shall be made not for revenue only, but that in raising the requisite revenue for the government such duties shall be so levied as to afford security to our diversified industries, and protection to the rights and wages of the laborer, so that active, intelligent labor, as well as capital, may have its just award, and the laboring man his full share in the national prosperity. Against the so-called economical system of the Democratic party, which would degrade our labor to the foreign standard, we enter our earnest protest. The Democratic party has failed completely to relieve the records of the burden of nuncessary taxaparty has failed completely to refleve the people of the burden of unnecessary taxa-tion, by a wise reduction of the surplus. The Republican party pledges itself to correct the irregularities of the tariff, and to reduce the surplus, not by the vicious and indiscriminate process of horizontal reduction, but by such methods as will relieve the tax payer, without injuring the laborer, or the best produc-tive interests of the country.

POREIGN POLICY.

The Republican party favors a policy which shell keep us from entangling alliances with foreign nations, and which gives us the right to expect that foreign nations shall refrain from meddling in American affairs. The policy which seeks peace can trade with all powers, but especially with those of the western hemisphere.

Resolved, That the appointments by the president to offices in the territories should be made from the bona fide citi-zens and residents of the territories wherein they are to serve.

The Republican party, having its birth in a hatred of slave labor and a desire that all men may be truly free and equal, is unalterably opposed to placing our working men in competition with any form of servile labor, whether at home or abroad. In this spirit we denounce the competition of contract labor, whether from Europe or Asia, as an offense against the spirit of American institutions; and we pledge ourselves to sustain the present law restricting Chinese immigration, and to provide such further legislation as is necessary to carry out its purposes.

Reform of the civil service, auspiciously begun under a Republican administration, should be completed by a further extension of the reform system already extension of the reform system already established by law, to all grades of the service to which it is applicable. The spirit and purpose of reform should be observed in all executive appointments, and all laws at variance with the object of existing reform legislation should be abolished, to the end that the dangers to free institutions which lurk in the power free institutions which lurk in the power

The public lands are a heritage of the people of the United States, and should be reserved as far as possible for small holdings by actual settlers. We are opposed to the acquisition of large tracts of these lands by corporations or individuals, especially where such holdings are in the hands of non-resident aliens, and we will endeavor to obtain such legislation as will tend to correct this evil.

We demand of congress the speedy for feiture of all land grants which have lapsed by reason of non-compliance with acts of incorporation in all cases where there has been no attempt, in good faith, to perform the conditions of such grant.

The grateful thanks of the American people are due to the Union soldiers and sailors of the late war, and the Republican party stands pledged to suitable pensions for all who were disabled, and for the widows and orphans of those who died in the war. The Republican party also pledges itself to the repeal of the limitation contained in the arrears act of 1879, so that all invalid soldiers shall share alike, and their pensions begin within the da e of disability or discharge, and not with the date of the application.

Resolved, That it is the duty of congress to enact such laws as shall promptiy and effectually suppress the system of polygamy within our territories, and divorce the political from the ecclesiastical power of the so-called Mormon church; and that the law so enacted should be rigidly enforced by the civil authorities, if possible, and by the military. if need be.

THE BIGHTS OF STATES. The people of the United States, in their organized capacity, constitute a nation, and not a mere confederacy of states. The national government is supreme within the sphere of its national duty, but the states have reserved rights which should be faithfully maintained. Each should be guarded with jenious care, so that the harmony of our system of government may be preserved and the union kept inviolate.

or government may be preserved and the union kept inviolate.

The perpetuity of our institutions rests upon the maintaining of a free ballot and honest and correct returns. We denounce the fraud and violence practiced by the Democratic party in southern states, by which the will of the voters is defeated, as dangerous to the preservation of free institutions, and we solemnly arraign the Democratic party as being the recipient of the fruits of such fraud and violence. We extend to the Republicans of the south, regardless of their former party affiliations, our cordial sympathy, and pledge to them our most earnest efforts to promote the passage of such legislation as will secure to every citizen, of whatever race and color, the full and complete recognition, possession and exercise of all civil and political rights.
