Truly a stop should be put to the brutal columns which are being circulated in reference to General Grant.

These columns, which are being circulated in reference to General Grant, are a disgrace to the community.

He lent his boys—as almost any father would have done—his money and the prestige of his name.

He trusted them, and trusted their partner, with the blind confidence which has often made him the victim of ill-chosen friends.

Now, a rogue like Fish and a parcel of four-mouthed scoundrels are endeavoring to make the public believe that the general was a party to the frauds of Grant & Ward.

These creatures are the legitimate spawn of the editor of the Gazette, who, just a hundred years ago, informed the American public that "Washington was a fool by nature and Franklin was a fool from age."

There was once a man who was re-puted for circulating stories reflecting upon the character of his mother. It was supposed he was dead.

A New Engine of War.

New York, June 9.—A Bridgeport, Conn., special says: A most formidable invention for harbor defense, the new electrical torpedo boat.

There was once a man who was re-puted for circulating stories reflecting upon the character of his mother.
