ANTHONY, OREGON. THURSDAY, JUNE 12, 1884. ISSUED EVERY MORNING. (Monday excepted) J. F. HALLORAN & COMPANY, PUBLISHERS AND PROPRIETORS. ASTORIAN BUILDING, - - - - -

STATE AND TERRITORIAL NEWS.

The Pacific Mail steamship Rio de Janeiro brought to this port Capt. Samuel H. Morrison of Bath, Me., master of the American ship Rainer, which was wrecked last January on one of the islands of the Marshall group; also on the same steamer the Captain's daughter, the mate of the ship and a part of the ship's crew. Mr. Humphreys, the mate, and the Captain's daughter were married the day before the ship sailed, making their bridal tour on a new ship on their first voyage. While sailing along on January 23 last, in water laid down on the chart as clear, and ten miles from any island, the ship struck land and fast on a reef. When the ship was found to be hopelessly grounded and in danger of breaking up, the officers and crew, twenty-eight all told, accepted the advice of friendly natives and landed on the little island Ujai, where they were kindly treated by the islanders. The natives live upon a small island of arrowroot and coconut, and on bread-fruit and fish, and wear very little clothing. They had never come in contact with white people, and were consequently very curious. As soon as possible the sailors began to build a schooner which was forty feet long, eight feet beam and had two feet depth of hold. In this the natives treated by the islanders. THE BARNER'S CREW.

Ten of twenty-seven Mexican states hold elections this fall. All the little Morrison tadpoles are turning into Tilden frogs.—Philadelphia Times. Give him microscope enough, and Butler can see his boom.—New Orleans Picayune. Don't talk.—Philadelphia Press. Somebody ought to endorse the business men of New York right away.—Cincinnati Enquirer. The Republicans of Maine have nominated all their present representatives in congress for re-election. Now let Pasteur, who has discovered a remedy for hydrophobia, try his hand on Bourbonism.—Richmond Whig. A ticket for women: For president, Betsy Jones of New York. Platform—Don't talk.—Philadelphia Press. All that is needed to make Massachusetts a tariff reform state is thorough and persistent agitation.—Boston Herald (Ind). The Washington Post out-Washingtons Watson. Its platform is: "A tariff for revenue only, with unavoidable protection. The Democratic party is as narrow as the continent, but has no room for a protectionist." The McDonald boom is unfortunate in its proportions, being too small for a tent and too large for a napkin. Colonel Watson's squint-eyed goddess of reform will have to work it up into a crazy quilt.—Philadelphia Press. Should Mr. Tilden die before the convention it will only be necessary to run a stick through an old suit of his clothes, put his hat upon it and march up the aisle. The nomination would still be unanimous.—Louisville Post. Gen. Benjamin F. Butler has written a letter formally accepting another presidential nomination—that of the anti-monopoly party. He will drive a four-in-hand through the Democratic national convention.—Washington Republican. The complete failure of the season in politics, remarks the Chicago Tribune, is our own Colonel W. R. Morrison. He was courageous at the wrong time and he was panicky at the wrong time. He has never once blundered into the right direction at the right time. The country has never seen anything like the Tilden boom. It is sweeping every state without a break. The uninaugurated ex-president will have the honor of being the only man who ever received a presidential nomination without a ballot—by acclamation.—St. Louis Republican (Dem).

POLITICAL NOTES.

GOOD WORK FOR ALL. Large, little, small or tall, whether from city or country, are promised the most complete photographic gallery in the Northwest. Abel & Son, 29 Washington St., Portland. M., excepting Saturday evenings, and on special occasions, June 9, 1884. Notice. Dinner at "JEFFS" CROCK HOUSE every day from 4:30 to 8 o'clock. The best 25-cent meal in town; soup, fish, steaks, kidneys, vegetables, puddings, etc. Tea or coffee included. All who have tried us say Jeff is the "BOSS."

Notice to Advertisers.

THE ASTORIAN guarantees to its advertisers the largest circulation of any newspaper published on the Columbia river.

ANTHONY AND VICINITY.

The State sailed yesterday for San Francisco. The Sea King has arrived at Astoria, 123 days from Astoria. A Noltz, proprietor of the Standard, came down from Portland yesterday afternoon. Bills of lading, drawbacks, etc., in stock or printed to order at The Astorian Job Office. An insane woman was examined yesterday at the court house and goes to a lunatic asylum this morning. The sale of reserved seats for the New York opera company begins at the New York Novelty store this morning. The Jessie Hamilton, Escholtz, Catie, Ootoworth, Abernathy, Castle and Hata, are loading salmon for Liverpool and London. The Astoria and Coast Transportation Company will dispatch the A. B. Field to Gray's harbor next Saturday. She goes to Tillamook on the 21st inst. At five yesterday afternoon the mud-colored wound of the fire alarm sent the department whirling down to Uniontown. Fortunately no damage was occasioned. On Monday, the 7th inst., those who drew prizes in the lottery of the 23 inst. will have some very new certificates to that effect issued to them by the county court. Glenn Peterson, from the Chelalis, was in the city yesterday. He has done as much as any other man in bringing his part of the country into prominence and proposes to do more this season. A technical question now arises regarding the legality of action taken at the last adjourned meeting of the city council. The matter of the city attorneyship seems to be the principal point at issue. Leaves have their time to fall, and stars to set, and flowers to wither at the east wind's breath, but just when the Columbia Water Company proposes to supply a patient and thirsty community is not yet made clear. The petition to repeal ordinance No. 457 is receiving a good many signatures. People must drink something, and unless the Columbia Water Co. can get over the John Day difficulty the probability is that the list will grow. Of course you will take your sister or somebody else's sister to the social that the ladies of the Methodist church give at the church parlors this evening. Some of our best local talent appear in an attractive literary program. The schedule of prices charged for travel over the Pacific railroad is issued. From it is learned that clerks are charged $3 for a ticket from Portland to St. Paul; government officials, $50; drummers, $75; newspaper men, $70; "charity," $20; railway employees, $50; theatrical people, $75. S. B. Crow has fitted up a fine suite of rooms in Kinney's new building and will today begin to take pictures in style second to none. His establishment has been furnished and designed with special reference to fine work, and no expense has been spared in the execution. Mr. Crow is a permanent fixture of the city and deserves Astorian patronage. No matter how big the berry or the potato or other product that is brought into our office from the outside, Clatsop always calls the turn. When the matamoras berries noted in yesterday's Astorian were brought in from Mt. Coffin it didn't seem as though anything in the berry line could do it, but Clatsop beats them. E. M. Grimm brought in three yesterday afternoon that were picked on John Matter's place yesterday morning. One of them, the "boss" berry, measures 5 1/2 inches in circumference, and weighs an ounce and a half; the others are not far behind in size and weight, the three together being equal to a saucer full of ordinary berries. Matter has about a half acre of them and expects to clear $400 off of his patch of strawberries this season, which is not so bad. Runaway Accident—Suicides. About four o'clock yesterday afternoon a girl known as Aimee, while riding in a buggy with a companion was thrown violently to the ground striking on her head and sustaining injuries which it is thought may prove fatal. The accident occurred near Williamsport, and was occasioned by the buggy striking against a stump. The unfortunate girl was carried into town on a stretcher last evening and was found to be completely paralyzed from her head downward. It is the opinion of the doctor in attendance that she cannot recover. About the same time another inmate of the Club, known as Julia, took a dose of ether, giving as her reason that she was "tired of life." Prompt means were taken to administer antidotes and it is probable that her rash resolve will not be carried out. About half past five, a woman known as Josie Smith, living next to Miss Hall, shot herself in the left breast, the ball entering and lodging within. She had expressed her intention to kill herself and left two letters, one of which was not to be opened till after her death. It was thought last evening that the wound would prove fatal. Methodist Church Societies. The ladies of the Methodist Church will give a social in the church this (Thursday) evening. It will be entertained by a musical and literary entertainment of which the following is the programme: 1—QUARTETTE, Mrs. Middlebrook, Miss F. Dickinson, Messrs. H. Middlebrook and S. Bozorth. 2—READING, Miss Minnie Warren. 3—VOGAL SOLO, Mr. Godsey. 4—INSTRUMENTAL SOLO, Miss Nellie Flavel. 5—READING, Miss Helen Dickinson. 6—VOGAL SOLO, Mrs. Middlebrook. 7—READING, Miss Belle L. Lawrence. 8—VOGAL DUET, (In costume) Miss F. Dickinson and Mr. Godsey. Admission 25 cents. Strawberries and ice cream 25 cents each. To the Ladies. Mrs. Piger, of the Leading Suit and Cloth House of Portland, will come down on Saturday, June 14th on the Wide West. She will remain a few days only, and the ladies of Astoria will have a chance to consult with the Leader of Fashions in regard to Styles, etc. Mrs. Piger has the reputation of being the best fitter and most stylish dressmaker in this coast, and the ladies who are in need of Summer clothes, will do well to consult her. She can be found at her Branch Store, next Rescue Engine House. Gray sells Sackett Bros' Al sawed cedar shingles.

THE MORGAN PRAYER.

BY CAPT. E. N. NICHOLS, OF THE SHIP PARK PLEDGERS. Oh thou most merciful Judge, who makest the laws to govern the sea; look Thou over and have mercy upon us; grant that we may this day be blessed with fees to enable us and our friends to live in luxury. Grant that new offices may be made, and new fees imposed for the benefit of those of our friends who are too proud to beg, and have no chance to steal, and ship-owners who wholly they are in our hands, and at thy mercy. Give us strength Oh Judge! and an iron arm to deal with any one who may represent us to the public in our true light; Thou knowest there are many ship masters who rebel against our just claims and would stifle our just legal fees. May Justice and vengeance pursue and overtake them as they did the capt. of the bark in Boston who had the audacity to have a piece published in the paper detrimental to us, because he had to pay $5 for shipping his cook, he knowing that it was no fault of ours that two ran away, and that they were not offered one half the fee for so doing. Thou knowest how soon justice was on his track, and how it snubbed him off Boston Light. Thou knowest how vengeance followed him to Algon bay and cast his ship upon the shores, and that thy watchful eye was over that wreck, from the proceeds of which the proceeds were paid. May this be the fate of all who dare oppose thy will. Oh sacred Judge, in times of depression will, thou hasten into the hearts of seamen to leave town the day they sign to enable us to get a double fee for shipping. We thank thee, Our Father who art in heaven, that thou hast got this law; that thou hast permitted us to almost wholly do away with English phraseology; that we have had wise men and correct articles for the benefit of our officials both at home and abroad. When the ships leave our shore, which over and deliver them safely into the hands of our foreign representatives, giving the strength, power and firmness of mind, to collect all they can bring with in their grasp. We know that many consuls do not carry out thy law, thereby withholding money from the treasury. Disown, and recall them, and we will furnish men to fulfill thy law. Now look upon this day, and may we feel that we are one day nearer the time when foreign ships may gather under Our Flag, thereby increasing fees tenfold, and enabling us to build poorhouses and asylums for our present shipmasters and consuls, and good houses for ourselves. Thou knowest that freights must be good to maintain all of our officials, with our reduced number of ships, therefore we earnestly request that we may be enabled to increase the number of our officials, and also to preclude the possibility of having another president "removed" for want of a consulate. First Class Photograph Gallery. S. B. Crow who for the past two years has had a picture gallery opposite the court house has moved to his fine new establishment in Kinney's building almost directly across the street. No expense has been spared in fitting up this with all first-class requirements, and Astorians who used the best of work have no further reason for going elsewhere. The liberal patronage bestowed on Mr. Crow is gratefully appreciated, and he assures the Astorian public that no effort shall be spared to give their continued approbation. Mr. W. A. Bell, of San Francisco is associated with him; his long experience in the best galleries of the metropolis will do all that is desired, and he will ensure the shadow or the substance fades. The public are invited to call and inspect specimens of photographic work. Nasal Electric. At the annual session of the grand lodge of free and accepted Masons, held in Portland last Tuesday, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Grand master, D. P. Mason of Albany. Deputy grand master, J. C. Fullerton of Beaverton. Senior grand warden, A. Nesburt of Marshfield. Junior grand warden, B. Van Dusen of Astoria. Grand treasurer, Samuel Hughes of Forest Grove. Grand secretary, F. J. Babcock of Salem. George Price, brought up from Astoria by Constable Grant on a charge of attempting to poison his wife, was arraigned in Justice Green's court yesterday for examination. Owing to the refusal of the woman to prosecute and lack of evidence to sustain the charge, the case was dismissed. As to whether Price made an attempt to poison his better half or not, there is no information to be obtained.—Oregonian, 11th. A full line of Ladies' Lace Mitts of all descriptions, to be found at the Empire Store. The latest patterns and styles of Gingham and Calicoes, at the Empire Store. Dr. Henry's Dandelion Tonic tickles the palate and gladdens the heart.

PERMANENT FIXTURE.

We would inform the readers of this paper that the ladies of Astoria, most particularly, that the branch store of J. Piger's Leading Suit, Cloth and Dress Goods House of Portland, is an established and permanent business fixture in our city. This statement we have been requested to make through those columns to contradict the reports and statements made by other merchants to the effect that their location in Astoria was only for a short time. These malicious reports do not speak well for the parties circulating them, and certainly not in a manly spirit of competition. We cheerfully endorse their success and refer our readers to their new advertisement in today's issue, presenting a partial price list of some leading lines to the ladies of Astoria; also expressing the opinion that goods are not sold by the yard. You can purchase any quantity desired in any goods. Silks, satins, velvets, dress goods, etc., at the low prices quoted by this enterprising firm. A full line of Ladies' Silk, Lisle and Cotton Hosiery and Millin. Underwear at greatly reduced prices for a few days only, at the Leading Suit and Cloth House, next to Rescue Engine house.
