GREATEST ON EARTH.

CUTICUTA REMEDIES are the greatest medicines on earth. Had the worst case Sult Rheam in the county. My mother had it twenty years, and in fact died from it. I believe CUTICUTA would have saved her life. My arms, breast and head were covered for three years, which nothing relieved or cured until I used the CUTICUTA RESOLVENT internally, and CUTICUTA AND CUTICUTA SOAP externally.

191 WEST TENTH STREET, NEW YORK, August 11, 1880. MESSIS, SEABURY & JOHNSON,

Gentlemen; - Like most of my profession, I am cautious about pinning my faith to any new medicine or curative agent. But your BENSON'S CAPCINE POROUS PLASTER has broken through the barriers and won its way to my good opinion. My attention was first called to it some eight months ago by a patient of mine Although I was well ac-quainted with the superior excellence of your other plaster and antiseptic dressing, made specially for the profession, the Benson's was comparatively new to me. I had heard, bowever, of its merits as a remedy, in cases of Lame Back, Local Rheumatism, Neural-gia. Congestion of the Bronchial Tubes and Lungs. Dyspepsia, Torpid Liver and the like affections, and have since begun to experi-ment with it personally. I find BENSON'S CAPCINE PLASTER an exceptionally cleanly plaster to use, and rapid in its action.

Many tests of its qualities, made in my own family and among my patients have convinced me that there is no single article so valuable for popular use, nor so helpful in the diseases I have named. Should you desire to do so, you may use n

Another and another shot cracked out, five in all, and then there came the cry, "an Indian on toast." I ran to the place and beheld a swarthy red man lying on his back, the blood dripping from both his sides. His right hand spasmodically clutched a large butcher-knife, and his murderer stood over him with the smoking er stood over him with the smoking revolver with which he had done the deed still in his hand, every chamber of which was empty. There he stood haranguing the crowd, justi-tying his action in strong, excited language, which seemed to meet their approbation, for every once in while could be heard such words as "Served him right," "Well done pard," "Another good Injun," and the like. A frontier jury was hastily impaneled, who immediately sat on the case, returning in five minutes a verdict of "self-defense," and Hiram Parry was a free man forever, having once been put in jeopardy of his life and acquitted.
