This talented company has won the plaudits of press and public wherever it has appeared. Following are extracts: Mme. Godini, the new American prima donna, made her debut last night at the Grand Opera house, as Norina, in "Don Pasquale." The sang and acted the part charmingly. She possesses a fine appear-ance, is a natural second secon passengers from San Francisco that go that far and farther, and thus avoiding the detention and vexatious dego that avoiding the occasioned by the shoaling of the Columbia and Willamette channels. Competition and opposition stir up and spur on all legitimate business and the spar on all legitimate business and the starting of an opposition line to Oregon would have a vivifying effect upon the prosent company. Fares and freights have always been something in which Astorians consider they are treated a little unjusity. None of us quite relish flinging down $20 at 214 Montgomery St., San Francisco, and being handed a ticket to Portland, especially if the Asto-rian is venturesome enough to ask for a ticket to Astoria, and risks being with-ered by the superior being who vouch-safes the information that he can get off at Astoria if he wants to. Besides it looks a little unfair when one reflects that he can get a ticket to Seattle "cabin tooss a little unlair when one reflects that he can get a ticket to Seattle "cabin passage, meals and state-rooms free," for §16, when it costs §4 more to a point so much nearor the metropolis. So that on the whole Col. Hogg's project is one that is not viewed with entire disfavor her to the seattle seattle seattle seattle seattle seattle be to the seattle by Astorians. F. J. Taylor came near being defeated for judge of this district because un-scrupulous persons printed his initfals in-correctly on many Republican tickets. Such conduct deserves unqualified con-demnation.
