

The Daily Astorian.

ASTORIA, OREGON: FRIDAY, JUNE 20, 1884

CHILA-BLAINE is what affects Harper's Weekly.

THE American ship T. F. Oakes is loading coal at Seattle for San Francisco.

BLAINE thinks that he will have no difficulty in carrying Massachusetts.

SAN FRANCISCO assessment roll foots up $230,000,000. The rate is $1.12 1/2 on the $100.

A STATUE of Simon Bolivar, the great South American liberator, was unveiled in New York on the 18th.

LIEUT. STONEY has arrived at Oon- alaska, and will explore the great unknown river he discovered in Alaska last July.

SYDNEY DILLON has resigned the presidency of the Union Pacific rail- road. Charles Francis Adams suc- ceeds him.

LAST Wednesday Adrian Hill start- ed from New York City to San Fran- cisco. He bets $2,000 that he can make it in three months.

SAYS the Philadelphia Press: "Scratch an anti-Blaine 'Republican' paper and you will find a free trade organ. Try it and see."

THE next president's name will sure- ly begin with a "B" of either Butler or Bayard be nominated. This will give Blaine a chance, too.

ACCORDING to the Fall River Her- ald, the Republican party says to Chester A. Arthur: "Well done, good and faithful servant—now git!"

FLOWER and Cleveland of New York, Hoodly of Ohio, McDonald of Indiana, and Bayard of Delaware, are assuming prominence as probable Democratic presidential candidates.

A CONVENTION of the "Prohibition home protection party" was held at Corvallis yesterday, at which dele- gates were chosen to the National Prohibition convention, to be held in Pittsburg July 23.

QUEEN VICTORIA'S reign has been exceeded in length by but two Eng- lish sovereigns, and in importance by none. Forty-seven years ago to-day she succeeded to the throne of Eng- land, being then eighteen years old.

MR. Cox, known in familiar story as "Sunset," is too cautious to permit the bee to buzz about his ear. "Have you any presidential aspira- tions?" asked the Washington Cap- ital gossip of the little joker from New York. "Oh, no," replied Cox, quickly. "There are so many Jumbos in the presidential race from New York that there's no room for the baby elephant."
