

Morning The Daily Astorian.

VOL. XXI, NO. 68. ASTORIA, OREGON, WEDNESDAY, JUNE 25, 1884. PRICE, FIVE CENTS.

NEWS FROM ALL POINTS.

THE ESTIMIAN QUESTION.

LONDON, June 23.—It is officially announced that on June 18th Granville, foreign secretary of state, addressed a note to Waddington, French minister, the substance of which was as follows: "England undertakes to withdraw her troops from Egypt at the beginning of 1888, in case the powers consider such withdrawal possible without endangering public order. The allied authority in Egypt after 1882 will have a consultative voice in regard to the budget, and have the right to veto any increase of expenses on the part of the government. It shall continue to exercise the right of financial inspection after the evacuation of the country by the English, in order to insure the regular collection of revenue. England also undertakes during her occupation to proportionately advance the ports and the powers for the neutralization of Egypt, like Belgium, and for neutralizing the Suez canal." In reply Waddington gave assurance of the satisfaction with which France notices the points suggested by Granville. "France," he said, "accepts Granville's proposal, and testifies to England's moderation, and friendly spirit, which it believes will strengthen the bonds that bind the two countries."

WILL ARRANGE A TRIUMPH.

OTTAWA, June 23.—It is reported the government will arrange a reciprocity treaty with the United States, shortly to be made public. The new treaty will follow the line of the former reciprocity treaty, admitting national products and some articles in the early stages of manufacture. The defeat of the Morrison tariff bill in the United States house of representatives is stated to be largely due to a renewal of negotiations.

MACKAY WANTS TO REPRESENT NEVADA.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 23.—It is reported that the recent visit of Mr. Mackay to this coast was to lay wires for the senatorial fight in Nevada. The possession of boundless wealth and the charms of world-wide notoriety have caused a certain amount of his soaring spirit, and he longs to stretch his career with official dignity. "The seat which Mackay desires is now occupied by Jones, who of course is a candidate for re-election, and the contest between these money kings promises to be the most lavish 'suck club' in the history of Nevada, and this is saying a good deal. Besides his own ample resources Jones will be backed by the great monopoly interests of the country, and if he must lose he will die hard. Mackay has always maintained a nominal residence in Nevada, although in fact he lives in New York and Paris. It is said that he will throw into the contest all the money that may be needed to win, and the fight, if it should come off, will certainly be an exciting and shameful one. Nevada grows leaner and leaner month by month. The population of Virginia City has dwindled to less than 5,000 and all the other towns are down grade as well. The statehood of Nevada is a miserable farce, and its failure affords a valuable lesson."

WILL NOMINATE TILDEN ANYHOW.

WASHINGTON, June 23.—A prominent Democratic senator who returned from a visit to Washington, says: "It looks very much as though Tammany hall intend making trouble for the Democratic party at Chicago. While I favor the nomination of Bayard, and believe him the strongest man by all odds that we could select, I am certain that a very large majority of the Democrats in New York desire Cleveland nominated. Tammany went to the Saratoga convention, and was given greater respect and attention than she originally demanded. The organization took part, and acquiesced in everything. I have good information that Tammany is now working to secure the repeal of the unit rule, adopted by the state convention."

"WHY DID NOT THE CLEVELAND MEN INSTRUCT FOR HIS SARATOGA?"

"If they were in a pronounced majority?" asked the correspondent.

"For the excellent reason that it was inexpedient to attempt to instruct the delegation. Had instructions been attempted undoubtedly there would have been some opposition, and straightway the report would have been circulated that the New York Democracy was divided. As it was Tammany was admitted with a large representation than it expected, and they adopted the unit rule. No language can too strongly condemn the persistent hostile attitude of Tammany to the known wishes of the Democratic voters of New York. Notwithstanding Tammany's conduct I believe Cleveland's friends will be able to hold out against the organization of this city that it is an insurmountable obstacle. Tilden must be nominated, either with his consent or without it. The consequence can be safely left with the Almighty. He is the only Democrat who can be elected."

TILDEN TO BE NOMINATED.

NEW YORK, June 23.—Truth, in a double leaded editorial, urges the democracy to insist on Tilden's nomination. It says Cleveland cannot command the support of the jarring factions. His veto of the five cent tax bill has been a sturdy used against him among the working men of this city that it is an insurmountable obstacle. Tilden must be nominated, either with his consent or without it. The consequence can be safely left with the Almighty. He is the only Democrat who can be elected.

NEW YORK, June 23.—There is a growing feeling here among Democrats that the presidential nomination must be forced upon Tilden. Many prominent Democrats say that the division among the Republicans in the east over Blaine's candidacy affords the democrats a supreme opportunity, and that it is the duty of Tilden, as the pre-eminent Democrat of the nation, and the only man whose nomination would please everybody, to reconsider his refusal to be a candidate. This feeling has been sensibly reinforced by the publication this afternoon of an editorial in the New York Truth, showing that the nomination will be forced upon Tilden.

WHAT JOHN KELLY WILL DO.

World's Washington special: It is reported among Democratic congressmen and others here that John Kelly and Tammany hall have called a meeting of prominent Democrats in New York this week for the purpose of consultation regarding the presidential nomination. The movement is supposed to be intended as the inauguration of opposition to Cleveland's nomination, and is alleged to be incited by a desire to justify a rebellion against the unit rule in the New York delegation, in case a majority of the delegates should be found to favor Cleveland. It is not known who are invited, but as Morrison, Carlisle, Bayard and Dorchester are said to be among the number, the conclusion is reached that the conference is to be mainly made up of free trade Democrats.

THE RECKLESS AND UNSCRUPULOUS WEST.

NEW YORK, June 23.—Herald editorial: "The west, the most reckless and unscrupulous elements of the west, have now seized control of the efforts and corrupt republican party. Blaine is the candidate of the sectional south and the rowdy elements. Let the democrats ally, by the men they nominate, to the whole country: to the east, to the middle states, and to the south, as well as to the conservative elements of the west, which were ridden down, rough shod, the other day by the nomination of Blaine and Logan. It is better for the country, the people of the whole Union, to decide this question now at the ballot box peacefully, than later with their rifles in their hands."

ASIANIC CHOLERA IN FRANCE.

PARIS, June 23.—Twenty deaths from cholera occurred at Toulon, yesterday. It is feared there will be a panic.

THE REPORTS OF CHOLERA AT TOULON.

The reports of cholera at Toulon are officially confirmed. Troops and dock laborers are chiefly attacked. It is pronounced Asiatic cholera. Quarantine has been established everywhere. The news caused a sensation in Paris.

The ministry of commerce has issued notice that the cholera at Toulon is sporadic, and not Asiatic; that it is due to local infection, and therefore confined to the place of its origin. Eight thousand persons left Toulon yesterday. A camp has been formed for the occupation of the navy crews, and the pupils of the public schools have been dismissed. At Marseilles there is a cholera scare. Orders have been issued to bury immediately corpses of cholera victims in deep trenches, which will be covered with chloride of lime. No bodies will be allowed to be taken to churches.

New York Doesn't Run The Country.

The position of the Republican press of New York City, while distressing the patriotic proprietors and able editors of the journals which cannot stomach Blaine, is pleasing to the rest of the country. It demonstrates the provincialism of the press of the largest city of the Union. Those journals tried to bully the Republican convention, and failed badly. The New York editors believed that the representatives of the party would not dare to nominate a man opposed to them, and in that belief they went so far that they left themselves no path for retreat. They cooked for themselves not a dish of crow, but a dish of carrion. It is to their credit as journalists that they refuse to sit down to the consumption of the mess; but the fact has been borne in upon them that New York City does not rule the country. It is only one of many cities—not the capital of America. The Chicago convention, in nominating Mr. Blaine, gave New York a particularly lucid notification that it is not the Union. It is a startling and disagreeable notification, but it is a true one. The country is too big, to be ruled by one town. No doubt the lesson is distasteful, but it is needed. The anger of the New York Republican press is understood. Its opposition to Mr. Blaine is born of pique. It is a pleasure to the Republican masses to show how little they care for the advocacy or opposition of a set of newspapers which have had the presumption to assume the power of dictating the nominee to the party. But it would be foolish to try to sneer away the effects of this newspaper hostility. It is formidable and New York may go against Blaine. Her electoral votes elected Mr. Garfield, but they will not decide the contest this year.
