THE DEMOCRATS IN COUNCIL.

Opinions, Honors and Reports Regarding Its Action.
On the outside page of to-day's ASTORIAN is the latest obtainable news as to the nominations and the manner in which they were received.

THE TARIFF AND OTHER QUESTIONS.
CHICAGO, July 9.—The dread of the fore-ordained quadrennial blunder, and how to guard against it, or steer around it, are problems that perplex the Democratic mind.

Matters are still in much the same state as yesterday; Cleveland is still the leading candidate, but his opponents assert that he is losing strength, and express confidence in their ability to defeat him.

There is no doubt but that good salmon can be and are caught at the Dalles, but the Dalles is 200 miles from where the fish is at its best, and to assert that salmon caught at that point are just as good "in every respect as those caught at the mouth of the Columbia," etc., etc., is a grossly untrue statement.

THE FOURTH OF JULY AT KNAPPA.
ED. ASTORIAN:
The Fourth came to us as it does to all others who live in this great and glorious republic, and as it has been for over a century a national holiday, its coming is heralded with joyful anticipations.

STARTLING REMOVS.
The following current rumors are creating great excitement: It has been ascertained from a gentleman occupying confidential relations with many members of the New York delegation, that communications are now being exchanged between Cleveland's followers in the New York delegation and his friends at Albany and New York city.

There were two fires in Portland yesterday morning: one in M. T. Mulkey's frame, corner First and Columbia, which was burned, causing a loss of $5,700; and another on North Front street, in which the old and new Lott hotels were burned. Loss, $12,000.

A GLARING FRAUD.
Imitation is the sincerest form of flattery. In some things the person or thing imitated feels flattered. In other things the reverse is the case.

It is not an exact forgery, but is sufficiently like the genuine to deceive any one not conversant with the hands of our well-known Columbian canvassers.

THE LEADING PUBLICATIONS.
Arnold will send a large stock of Boots and Shoes at cost, at the Leading Boot and Shoe store.

Attention, A. W. P. U.
Members of the Astoria Working-men's Protective Union are notified to meet at their hall at one o'clock this afternoon to attend the funeral of their late brother, Ole Knutsen and Otto Schuring.

Popular Reading.
Nos. 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6 and now 7, of Adler's celebrated Popular Reading, just received at the Crystal Palace Book Store.

For a Neat Fitting Boot.
Or Shoe, go to P. J. Goodmans, on Chenamus street, next door to L. W. Case. All goods of the best make and guaranteed quality.

Stop That Cough.
By going to J. E. Thomas and getting a bottle of "Cough Cures." It will cure you.

Buy your Line of Gray at Portland prices.
Sleepless Nights made miserable by that terrible cough. Shiloh's Cure is the remedy for you.

Don't pay 50 cents elsewhere when you can get the best dinner in town at JEFF'S for 25 cents.

COLUMBIA RIVER SALMON.

About two weeks ago a dispatch appeared in the Oregonian from New York in reference to a shipment of salmon from The Dalles, in which some one, who evidently knew what he was talking about, is reported to have said that the salmon caught at Astoria and other lower river points is far superior to the salmon caught at The Dalles.

Salmon packers at that point naturally didn't like it and wrote to the Oregonian, asking the editor of that journal to sample a specimen of salmon sent, and claiming that the article did them injustice.

The Oregonian in its issue of June 30th comes out editorially and says that the salmon received from The Dalles "in every respect come up to the best caught at the mouth of the Columbia."

When caught on the lower Columbia, it is as near perfection as any fish can be, by the time it has got as far as The Dalles it has unquestionably deteriorated.

There is no doubt but that good salmon can be and are caught at the Dalles, but the Dalles is 200 miles from where the fish is at its best, and to assert that salmon caught at that point are just as good "in every respect as those caught at the mouth of the Columbia," etc., etc., is a grossly untrue statement.

POLITICAL POPCORS.

Ob, Independence, Independence, what rot is talked in thy name.—Buffalo Express.
Arthur, with eighty pairs of pants, no longer pants for nomination.—New Orleans Picayune.

We are more and more inclined to the notion that New York won't have any favorite son this year.—Philadelphia Press.
Big Chief John Kelly is not such a heavy villain, after all, when "bolting nominations" is discussed in political circles.

Perhaps this country will some day reach the conclusion that it is a little too big to let John Kelly make its president.—Philadelphia Times.
It is now reported from Albany that the election of Grover Cleveland to the presidency means the elevation of Daniel Manning to that position.

There's nothing small about General Butler. His letter of acceptance of the greenback nomination, for instance, is bigger than the whole greenback party.—Boston Transcript.
It looks as though the democrats would get Mr. Tilden to run against his will; but he'll find that a great deal less discouraging than running against the plumed knight.—Yonkers Statesman.

Cleveland writes to a friend that he now occupies a position high enough for all his ambition. It is well that Cleveland is satisfied. He will have no chance to get a higher position.—Philadelphia Call.
According to Life, Mr. Flower has just sent out sample copies of his campaign song. One verse reads:

The g. o. p. has got to go;
'Tis money makes the mar; go;
And I'm the boy what's got the bar!
To run things at Chicago.

There are some, at least among the fair sex, who are not posted in regard to politics. The writer overheard a lady say to her female partner recently: "Well, I hope, too, that Butler will be elected president. But I don't see why they talk so much about Cleveland. Cleveland is in Ohio; and I thought the convention was to meet in Chicago."—Boston Globe.
