THE CLEVELAND SCANDAL.

A Defense of the Democratic Presidential Candidate.

BUFFALO, Aug. 12.—The Courier prints a review of the Cleveland scandal. It says that the main charge brought by the Buffalo is false in all essential particulars. "The slanderous story," says the Courier, "accuses Gov. Cleveland of seduction, abduction and cruelty. Evidence can be produced to disprove each one of these charges. There was no seduction, and this statement is not based on any quibble as to the fact that the woman in the case was not a young girl, but a widow. There was no abduction. The separation of the mother and her child by the removal of the former to an inebriate asylum, told with so much cheap pathos, was the act of the authorities of the Buffalo orphan asylum, taken mainly in the interest of the latter. The infant had been entrusted to the care of the orphan asylum and then withdrawn by the mother, and the authorities interfered and took possession of the child again only when informed that it was in danger. There was no cruelty. The mother was in a state of intoxication and she was removed lawfully and with no more force than was necessary. There was no such agreement in the settlement of the case as has been reported. Every other accusation made in the Telegraph lacks definiteness."

GREELY INTERVIEWED.

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., Aug. 13.—Early this morning Colonel Kent obtained an interview with Lieutenant Greely, who admits that he had Henry shot by military execution on the 6th of June. As early as March it was suspected that Henry was stealing the limited food apportioned out to the survivors, and this fact being finally and positively ascertained, Lieutenant Greely had thereafter hard work to protect the man's life. It became necessary, in order to keep up discipline, to inform Henry that he would be shot if the practice was continued, and that a similar fate would be meted out to any other member of the party detected in like crime. If Henry had been permitted to continue his stealing unmolested the remainder of the party would surely have starved to death and Henry alone survived. Afterwards, and in spite of these warnings, Henry was again detected stealing provisions, among the food taken being two pounds of bacon, eating so much that it made him sick. Search was then instituted. When found Henry had, among other articles stolen and secreted, a pair of seal skin boots which had belonged to the hunter of the party, Lieutenant Greely, was therefore forced, in order to maintain military discipline and protect the lives of his other comrades, to issue a written order that Henry be shot, which order was carried into effect June 6.
