

The Daily Astorian.

ASTORIA, OREGON: SUNDAY, AUGUST 17, 1884. NO CAUSE FOR FRIGHT.

The business outlook in a presidential year is not infrequently unsettled, and this year as usual in the times of general elections, there are not wanting Cassandras who prophesy ruin to the entire business part of the community.

Upon a cool inspection of the entire situation, there seems small reason for any tremor in this case, since it is a matter of history that the country has been in worse financial condition scores of times ere now, and recovered before most of the population knew that anything was the matter.

The voices of such demagogues are being loudly uplifted, and it is well to give a word of warning, less incautious spectators, like a theater audience when the cry of fire is raised, be alarmed before any genuine signs of genuine panic appear.

Then, again, the insinuation that the banks are shaky is utterly refuted by the fact that, with a very few exceptions, the banks are in a remarkably good condition, the failures among them being confined to such as have had officials of a speculative turn of mind.

Add to the satisfactory condition of banks the fact that men who have pursued legitimate methods in their business, have refrained from gambling in any form and have been reasonably cautious, are doing fairly well and the case grows stronger, and when we remember that the crops of the year are likely to be fully up to the average, if not beyond it, the whole foreboding of disaster seems uncalculated for and absurd.

BACK TO FIRST PRINCIPLES.

It is no more than friendly to warn the party organs against violent language. If they exhaust the vituperative resources of the English tongue at this early stage of the campaign they will fall into gibbering idiocy long before November.

SENATOR HARRISON, of Indiana, has taken charge of the Blaine libel suit and proposes to make it exceedingly interesting for the gentleman who edits the Indianapolis Sentinel.

It has at last been discovered who it was the author of the famous "Money letter," which lost California to the Republicans in 1880.

It is hereby given that the annual meeting of Stockholders of the L. X. L. Packing Co., will be held at the Company's office, Upper Astoria, on Saturday, August 30, at 10 o'clock p. m.

WOMEN WHO VOTE.

THE fair females in this country who have for years yearned for their rights as regards the ballot will be gratified to learn that the women of the Isle of Man are allowed to vote upon proving the ownership of twenty dollars.

DOOMED DRESSES.

THE Mother Hubbard dress is doomed in Illinois. The civic authorities have risen in their might and resolved to crush this terrible costume. The chief of police in Mattoon has announced that any woman found clothed in a Mother Hubbard will be arrested.

A NOVEL scheme of assisted emigration has been started in Germany by a society composed wholly of noblemen. The society proposes to send indigent members of noble German families to Chili, where they have all the advantage of fertile soil and favorable climate and the prospect of changing their landless titles for the hands of the fair senoritas of that country.

A CURIOUS fact shown by the United States balance sheet at the close of the year's business is that there is nearly $20,000,000 of outstanding government securities on which the money is due and uncalled for.

EUROPE, politically, is a slumbering volcano. It is not certain when the crater will flow, but it comes at the top of the drum. The subterranean growings are ominous. The English lion is growling, the Prussian eagle is screaming, and France can "go to the duce."

CARL SCHURZ and his highly moral confederates are strangely silent since the little peccadilloes of their candidate were ventilated.
