"No, thank you; I very rarely ear it," she sweetly replied.
"Well, do try a dish of strawberries, won't you, pet?" he continued.
"No, Alfred, they are so high priced, and I really care very little for them," she answered.

"I am so sorry," he said, with an inane desire to plunge his head under a butter tub. "Now you must indeed, you shall take a glass of soda."
"You'll have to excuse me, but I only ear to sample along with you. only care to saunter along with you, dear," she replied.

He could resist no longer. "Will you will you be my darling, ducky wifey, my sweetest?" he exclaimed.

They were married that month.

Late in August, when she had bankrupted him on ice cream and ten-cent California pears, he sadly remarked;

"I thought you didn't care for these things, Mand? You didn't appear to before we were married."
"Oh, yes. I remember that time you refer to, Mr. Smith. I was a trifle careful what I ate, just then," she answered, and Mr. Smith buried himself in reflection. nimself in reflection.

THE contributions to the conscience fund of the treasury in the last fiscal year amounted to over $6,000. This fund has, since its es-$6,000. This fund has, since its establishment twenty years ago, amounted to about $250,000. For some years past it has averaged from $5,000 to $7,000 a year. The term "conscience fund" was originated by Treasurer Spinner. One day during the war he received a letter from the treasury department from a man who treasury department from a man who enclosed a check for $1,500, saying it represented a misappropriation of government funds of which he had been guilty while a quartermaster in the army. "Suppose we call this a contribution to the conscience fund and get it announced in the newspapers, and perhaps we will get some more," he suggested. The announce-ment was made, and the treasury became the recipient of such funds. The largest contribution ever made was $4.000, forwarded by an ex-revenue gauger from Chicago, as the amount of a bribe received by him from distillers who desired to defraud the government. The smallest was 9 cents forwarded by a Massachu-setts man who remembered that he had at one time, years before, used a marked 3-cent stamp on a letter. In order to relieve his conscience he sent three times the original steal, which he thought was a fair compen-sation. Many of these contributions come from persons who have smug-gled goods. The majority of these are from women.

The desperation with which China-men are attempting to cross the bor-der into the United States from the English side, is told by the following dispatch received at Port Townsend, dated Seattle, August 19, 1884: "To A. W. Bash, Collector of Customs: Six Chipamen killed hiding in the wheel of the North Pacific. Look out Olympian, too. Signed: A Chipamen and Chipamen

MESSTS. SEABURY & JOHNSON,

Gentlemen: - Like most of my profession, I am cautious about pinning my faith to any new medicine or curative agent. But your BENSON'S CAPCINE POROUS PLASTER has broken through the barriers and won its way to my good opinion. My attention was first called to it some eight months ago by a patient of mine Although I was well acquainted with the superior excellence of your other plaster and antiseptic dressing, made especially for the profession, the Benson's was comparatively new to me. I had heard, however, of its merits as a remedy, in cases of Lame Back, Local Rheumatism, Neural-gia. Congestion of the Bronchial Tubes and Lungs, Dyspepsia, Torpid Liver and the like affections, and have since begun to experi-ment with it personally. I find BENSON'S CAPCINE PLASTER an exceptionally cleanly plaster to use, and rapid in its action-

Many tests of its qualities, made in my own family and among my patients have convinc-ed me that there is no single article so valuable for popular use, nor so helpful in the diseases I have named. Should you desire to do so, you may use my name to that effect. Very truly yours, H. H. KANE, A. M., M, D. The genuine have the word CAPCINE cut in the center. Price 25 cents.
