PACIFIC COUNTY POLITICS.
Platform and Purposes of the Union Party.
 ED. ASTORIAN:
 Enclosed you will find a communication that is of interest to the many readers of THE ASTORIAN in this county: UNION PARTY PLATFORM.
 The objects of the Union party of Pacific county is to unite the efforts of all good citizens in electing honest, competent and moral officers, each of whom will consider it their duty to fill the office elected to, and to whom the people may look for a strict and upright administration.
 To further define our position, we herewith submit the following resolutions:
 Resolved, That the policy and management of above organizations, namely the county, claimed and held by the N. P. R. R. Co., greatly retard the settlement of the county. First, by their delays in asking claims when settlers apply for them. Second, by the exorbitant prices asked, especially when settlers have already made improvements on their lands. Thirdly, by the right of way and extension of claims in their deeds, which makes buyers only a portion owner after all. Fourthly, by the unsettled condition of their indemnity land, which precludes the possibility of any settlement whatsoever.
 Resolved, That the opening of roads and the building of bridges should receive more support and better attention than they have done heretofore.
 On the fourth day of July last a meeting was called in Oysterville, of citizens, men and women, who favored the temperance cause. At this meeting, which was largely attended, it was decided to organize a party to be known as the "Temperance Party," and to place before the public for their suffrages a ticket composed of temperance men. Directly afterward it was ascertained that there was in the county a large class of citizens who, although moral, upright, and strictly temperate men, were averse to taking an active part with the new party, simply on account of its name. The reasons are apparent: There are in Pacific county a large number of temperance organizations, and the name adopted by the new party created the impression among a great many that this party was an outgrowth of those organizations, none but members of some temperance order would be welcome in its councils, or on its ticket.
 In view of these facts a meeting was called in Oysterville August 25, at which it was decided to reorganize the party under the name of the Union Party of Pacific county; and all good citizens, irrespective of past party affiliations, who favored reform in the administration of county affairs, were invited to take part in effecting these reforms. A day was appointed for holding a county convention for the nomination of county officers, and on the 29th of September, 1884, the convention met and put in the field the following ticket:
PACIFIC COUNTY UNION TICKET.
 For Joint Representative,
 S. M. VAN CLEAVE.
 For County Auditor,
 E. B. WOOD.
 For Sheriff and Assessor,
 J. H. TURNER.
 For Treasurer,
 F. C. DAVIS.
 For Probate Judge,
 J. S. M. VAN CLEAVE.
 For Commissioners,
 L. M. PRESTON,
 GEO. WILSON,
 R. HUTTON.
 For School Superintendent,
 Miss JENNIE F. GRIEHWOLD.
 For County Surveyor,
 JOSEPH WHEALDON.
 For Coroner,
 WILHELM HANSELMAN.
 For Whipmaster,
 GEORGE E. ESTERBROOK.
 Loomis' Pacific Journal, in its issue of Sept. 27 affects to make light of this party and its candidates, and points the finger at the platform. There is the platform; let every man read it for himself, and say whether in his objectionable features. If there is a candidate on the so-called Republican ticket who cannot endorse every line and word of that platform, it will be useless for him to look to the people of this county, on the 4th of November next for their suffrages. The platform is not a mere list of words, and which appears to have been written in a great hurry, endeavors to throw all the blame of this death blow to the whips party of Pacific county, on the standards of John Wood of South Bend. This is an undesired compliment to Mr. Wood. It is true he has, with many others equally zealous, labored for the organization of this party and will, no doubt, labor with others to elect the ticket, but it is the work of no one man, but a popular demand of the people for a change in the administration of county affairs, not simply that the "ins" may go out, and the "outs" may go in, but that the offices may be honestly, economically and soberly filled by the men elected for that purpose.
 If any one doubts that the Union party is a popular movement, let them compare the two conventions which met in Oysterville last fall.
 The so-called Republican convention met in Oysterville August 27; there are twelve precincts in Pacific county; five of them were represented in that convention. The other seven precincts, representing one precinct, went into the convention instructed to, and for the express purpose of opposing the "machine," failing in this, they are now acting with the Union party. The novel feature of appointing men from one end of the county to represent a precinct at the other end, which did not choose to be represented, was introduced in this convention in order to make a showing of something like a full representation. On the other hand in the Union convention, ten precincts were represented, only two having between them three delegates, were unrepresented; in almost every instance the nominees had to be importuned to accept the nominations, showing conclusively that it was not a convention of office seekers.
 Loomis' Journal says John Wood is trying to run Pacific county politics; the foreman of that journal has considerable on his mind just now, and seems to be somewhat confused; he has got things mixed; it is the steamer Wildwood that John Wood is running, in opposition to Loomis' steamer Newell, and the Wildwood is scooping in the ducks that were wont to flow into the Newell's coffers; that's what hurts.
 The young man who runs Loomis' Journal, and who don't expect to go to the council, seems to be very about minded, so much so that he dates his editorial from Woodland's Landing, Nasel, Ilwaco, etc., and signs nearly all of them "Voter."
 Does he imagine there is a voter in Pacific county so obtuse that he does not know that all those scolding communications are written in the Journal office by the self-same man? Such unanimity of sentiment and phraseology can be accounted for on no other hypothesis. Allowing them to be genuine, each writer seems to think of the Wildwood at about the same time in their respective communications.
 They may well claim there are no office seekers in the so-called Republican party. Very few are foolish enough to seek for anything in a place where they know they will not find it. F. C. Davis, the present county treasurer, elected by the People's party two years ago over the Republican (so-called) nominee, was nominated by the so-called Republican convention which met August 27th, of the present year, for treasurer. Mr. Davis is a man of unblemished reputation; a life long Republican, and during a residence of twenty-five years in this county not a whisper has ever been breathed against either his public or private life. Mr. Davis felt that he could not consistently act with this rump of a respectable party and accordingly declined the nomination. Mr. Davis was nominated by the Union party and will be elected in November with the rest of the ticket. The rump, finding no one willing to sacrifice himself on the altar of the people's resentment, are parading their dismembered ticket week after week before the public gaze, a silent and pitiable admission that there is no timber among the debris to complete the ticket.

 Judge J. S. M. Van Cleave was the nominee of the rump convention for probate judge, and not Thomas Warman as falsely asserted by Loomis' Journal. Judge Van Cleave did not solicit the nomination from the rump, nor did he virtually accept it, but published a letter in which he explicitly stated that he would accept no nomination as the exponent of any party tenets; notwithstanding this declaration he was kept on the ticket until he accepted the nomination for representative on the Union ticket, when it was suddenly discovered that he was inconsistent, etc., and his name was promptly dropped from the ticket and Warman substituted. Now let us see if we can get at the true inwardness of this affair and find why Judge Van Cleave who was so good a man on the 27th of September, by the exorbitant prices asked, especially when settlers have already made improvements on their lands. Thirdly, by the right of way and extension of claims in their deeds, which makes buyers only a portion owner after all. Fourthly, by the unsettled condition of their indemnity land, which precludes the possibility of any settlement whatsoever.
 Resolved, That the opening of roads and the building of bridges should receive more support and better attention than they have done heretofore.

RULES OF THE PROPOSED HOSE CONTEST.
 Following is the schedule of rules governing the hose companies' running contest at the Portland Mechanics' fair, Thursday, Oct. 23:
 The committee of arrangements consists of B. S. Worsley, Thomas A. Jordan and Frank G. Abell.
 1. Distance, 300 feet in all; 600 feet to hydrant, lay 300 feet of hose; uncouple all hoses on pipe. The time to be taken when water leaves the pipe.
 2. Center of the reel of hose cart or carriage to be on the starting line.
 3. Carts to carry not less than three hundred and fifty feet of hose reeled in one continuous line, all couplings to be screwed up; hose to be regulation fire service hose, 2 1/2 inches rubber or fabric rubber lined or leather, and in length not over fifty feet to the section; to have full screw couplings and shaped threads not less than six threads to the inch; all couplings must be made by hand or spanner.
 4. Pipe to be carried on cart or carriage or by pipeman, from the start, and no pipe or nozzle shall be less than standard size, two feet six inches long, and be suitable for use in active fire service.
 5. Twelve men only (exclusive of foreman or trainer, allowed to run; no man to assist in unrolling hose, and no man to fall in and assist dragging apparatus after the start. Foreman or trainer not allowed to assist in handling apparatus in any manner unless he takes the place of one of the team and handling apparatus from the start.
 6. Plugman shall attach hose to hydrant, assisted by one man. Pipe to be carried from starting point either on cart or by pipeman.
 7. Not more than six feet of hose can be unreeled until cart has reached mark or a prominent stake to be placed thirty-five feet from hydrant when, and not before, the plugman and his assistant may commence to unroll for the plug connection.
 8. No professional runner shall be allowed to compete in any team. The term "professional runner" is applied to one who is following or has followed foot races as a profession or means of livelihood.
 9. In case of any violation of any of the preceding rules, a majority of the judges shall decide the penalty to be imposed.
 10. Companies are allowed the use of any two or four-wheeled hose cart or carriage.
 In addition to the gold and silver medals offered by the association, the committee have secured a private purse of $100, which will be awarded to the companies.
 The Astoria Department doesn't deem it fair to monopolize the honors on every occasion and will give some other city in the state a chance by remaining a spectator of the animal race.
BIRDS WHICH DROWNED GREAT FISHES.
 Capt. McLean of the iron bark Firth of Lorn of Glasgow, which sailed from Lytleton, N. Z., April 25th last, passed Cape Horn May 23rd, and arrived at London August 21st, reports the following singular occurrence: July 23d, when in latitude 29 deg. 1 min. north, longitude 79 deg. 48 min. west, a floating spar was seen and a boat was lowered and the spar towed alongside. On examination it was found to be valueless, being worn-out throughout, but a large shoal of fish which had accompanied the spar abandoned it and commenced eating the branches from the ship's bottom. This continued until the 27th of July; when in latitude 38 deg. 42 min. north, longitude 34 deg. 35 min. west, the fish left the ship after having cleared the ship's bottom, by which the speed of the vessel was increased two knots an hour. Soon afterwards a singular commotion was observed on the ocean, which was nearly as if a sea serpent were moving about the surface with great rapidity, occasionally disappearing beneath the water and coming up again, half straggled. As the breeze died it was seen that a shoal of fish several in extent were visible on the water. A gannet or liver would alight on the back of a great fish, spread its tail and wings to catch the breeze, dig its claws deep into the dumpy monster's hide, and go before the wind at such a tremendous speed as soon to draw the animal's raft. The bird would then devour the fish at its leisure. —Manchester, Eng., Courier.

THE CROAKER.
 "Laugh at those who grumble,
 And be merry as you can."
 "We must travel through life, but why
 make a dead march of it?"
 Oh, the melancholy croaker,
 With his creak, creak, creak,
 He can always tell a funeral,
 But never tell a joke;
 He in his only hobby,
 Can drive a nail, no doubt;
 But with a smiling visage
 He never draws one out.
 Oh, the poor, unhappy croaker,
 Like a revolving rime,
 He antedates the weather,
 Is sure his going to rain;
 He knows the crows are rained,
 His memory he jeers
 To prove that now the country
 Is going to the dogs.
 The dreary, weary croaker
 Will have to die some day;
 Perhaps he'll go to heaven,
 And walk the golden way;
 But when the shining pavements
 His gloomy eyes behold,
 He'll shake his head and mutter,
 "I—d—o—n't—be—lieve—they're gold."

VISITORS TO PORTLAND
 Should not forget to call at Towne's San Francisco Gallery, where may be seen photographs of all the leading men and women of Oregon and Washington Territory. Skillful operators in shape and size, and the most minute attention paid to pictures of children. Don't forget the location, S. W. corner First and Morrison streets, up stairs. No trouble to show specimens to visitors. Street railroads pass the door every ten minutes, and the nearest gallery to the five principal hotels.
