FIVE HUNDRED CORDS DRY HEM-lock Wood, which I will deliver at the R. R. MARION.

The New York correspondent of the Troy Times writes One of the most remarkable personal movements of the present day is Henry Villard's resumption of a residence in his na tive land. It is now said he will make Berlin his future home, and it is probable that he will, to a partial degree at least, enter the government service. His knowledge of American affairs would render him of the highest use I SPANTILE and Birth Humors, Milk Crust Scalled Head, Eczemas, and ever total flead, Scally, P mply, S-r-folous and Inherited Diseases of the Blood, Skin and Scally, With loss of H-ir. COURTITIES DOY: to Bismarck, while he could add to assured of success that he gave that splendid excursion which must long stand unrivaled.

He was then estimated at five millions, and was building a house whose cost was figured at a half million. His name was daily paragraphed and went the rounds of the press with all the applause due to one who had conquered the greatest obstacles and giv en success to an enterprises which, in the hands of Jay Cooke, had proved so great a failure. How rapidly this brilliant display was followed by mis-fortune! Then came the sad news of a general collapse, and Henry Villard Charles Enyre Hinkle, Jersey City Heights, N. J., writes: "My son, a lad of tweive years was completely cured of a terrible case of Ecrema by the CUTHCURA REMEDIES. From the top of his lead to the soles of his foet was one mass of scabs." Every other remedy and physicians had been tried in vain.

Catching the Devil Fish.

Emaciated children, with piniply sallow skin, the CUTICUEA REMEDIES will prove a perfect blessing, cleansing the blood and skin of inherited impurities and expelling the germs of scrofula, rheumatism, consumption and severe skin diseases.

Yesterday an Indian hooked up from one of the wharf posts an octopus five feet from tip to tip, and to the query "What are you going to do with him?" answered "Me eat him," the query "What are you going to do with him?" answered "Me eat him," and in fact, with them the flesh is esteemed a great delicacy, although when alive the animal is an object of terror. The flesh when boiled is perfeetly white, and tastes something like cods' tongues; but while eating it the recollection of what the dainty was when alive takes away all enjoy ment. It is not such a harmless amusement, this fishing for devil fish and one which everybody would choose for an afternoon's sport. There is only one really skillful fisher in town; a mission boy, who fearlessly wades into the water near their haunts, and, seizing the animal, tears him from the rock. Of course his Satanie majesty resents the intrusion upon his rights and retaliates by winding one or more arms around the boy, but with a quick and peculiar For motion the Indian tears them off with a noise resembling the ripping of slitting open the sack of the animal. It is a dangerous proceeding and one which makes the beholder cringe to hight, and could have bitten a man's head off as easily as a woodpecker can hip a cherry. We cannot be too thankful that this bird is gone out of the fashion and existence. Ladies would have wanted to wear it on their hats, and men who sat behind such bonnet ornaments in the theaters would be unable to see whether a ballet or a prayer meeting were in progress on the stage.—Boston Herald.

PILES! PILES! PILES! A SURE CURE FOUND AT LAST! NO ONE NEED SUFFER.

Having Admitted the Strength of the Evidence a Prominent Physician takes Logical Action.

The following letter tells its own story. The signature will be recognized as that of the Physician-in-Chief of the De Quincy Home, and author of "Drugs That Enslave," "The Hypodermic Injection of Morphine," A Manual of Nursing," and many other popular and valuable special medical works:

MESSIS. SEABURY & JOHNSON, Gentlemen: -Like most of my profession, I am cautious about pinning my faith to any new medicine or curative agent. But your BENSON'S CAPCINE POROUS PLASTER has broken through the barriers and won its way to my good opinion. My attention was first called to it some eight months ago by a patient of mine Although I was well acquainted with the superior excellence of your other plaster and antisoptic dressing, made especially for the profession, the Benson's was comparatively new to me. I had heard, however, of its merits as a remedy, in cases of Lame Back, Local Rheumatism, Neuralgia. Congestion of the Bronchial Tubes and Lungs, Dyspepsia, Torpid Liver and the like affections, and have since begun to experiment with it personally. I find BENSON'S CAPCINE PLASTER an exceptionally cleanly plaster to use, and rapid in its action. Many tests of its qualities, made in my own family and among my patients have convinced me that there is no single article so valuable for popular use, nor so helpful in the diseases I have named. Should you desire to do so, you may use my name to that effect. Very truly yours,

H. H. KANE, A. M., M. D. The genuine have the word CAPCINE cut in the center. Price 25 cents. Seabury & Johnson, Chemists, New York.
