

The Daily Astorian.

ASTORIA, OREGON: THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 6, 1894. TELEGRAMS AS RECEIVED.

Nov. 5.—Two hundred voting places in Indiana show a net Republican gain of 1,551. This ratio if kept up gives the state to Blaine.

Two hundred and five towns and wards in Iowa give Blaine 32,902, fusion 25,553.

Nebraska gives Blaine 7,285, Cleveland 3,549, Butler 26, St. John 231 in 54 precincts. The state probably gives Blaine 20,000 plurality.

Two hundred and twenty voting places in Indiana show a net Republican gain of 1,843. This is 12 1/2 per cent of the vote, and if kept up indicates a majority for Blaine of 4,000.

New York, Nov. 5.—Twelve hundred and sixty-nine districts heard from outside New York City and Brooklyn. Of the 727 districts not heard from if they vote as they did in 1890, Blaine's plurality is set down at 6,000.

Noon.—123 cities and towns in Kansas give Blaine 8,228 majority; only smaller towns are to be heard from. The vote of Kansas City, Mo., is not yet counted. The indications are that the whole Republican ticket is elected in the county, and a Republican congressman in the Fifth district.

ELMIRA, N. Y., Nov. 5.—Complete returns from Chemung county give Blaine 5,196, Cleveland 4,721; Butler 538, St. John 271. Arnot for congress, being on both tickets is elected.

WATERTOWN, N. Y., Nov. 5.—Parker, Republican, for congress has 9,000 majority.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 5.—Later returns received from the state show that the Republicans have probably elected 12 senators and 45 assemblymen. This would make the senate 18 Republican, 22 Democratic. The assembly 47 Republican, 33 Democratic, giving the Republicans a majority of ten on joint ballot.

If in the mountains of Central Africa prolific gold mines should be found, it would again unsettle the ratio of value between the precious metals. Gold must exist at the sources of the African rivers, from the sands of which gold dust has been sifted for centuries. Every other part of the world has been prospected by eager gold-hunters. If new auriferous discoveries are to be made, they must be made in Africa.

The good ship Tallapoosa has been raised and the country is once more out of danger. So long as our navy was at the bottom of the sea foreign powers could say what they pleased to us. Now they cannot. Tears rolled down the cheeks of veteran admirals when they saw the dear old navy once more afloat. After she has been swathed in flannel for some time and dosed periodically with hot rum she will be ready to go down again.

The most singular, and it may be said unsatisfactory, election bet is reported from Vallejo, California. Two citizens of opposite politics have laid a wager which compels the loser to stand upon a conspicuous street corner, and black the boots of passers by from seven in the morning to six in the evening. The winner will drum up customers for him.

We only hear of Blaine and Cleveland, but there were thousands of candidates all over the Union yesterday who felt elated or depressed as the returns came rolling in.

TRACK on the Cascade division of the Northern Pacific railroad is laid within thirty-two miles of Yakima. The force is now putting down one and a fourth miles per day.

ARMSTRONG is elected by a reduced majority in Washington territory. Over 34,000 votes were cast, 8,000 of which fell from the hands of the fair sex.

CONNECTION between the Oregon Short Line and Oregon Railway and Navigation will be made on the 14th.

PERHAPS Mr. Fisher will now accede to Mr. Blaine's request and will burn the "Mulligan letters."

AND now will come the reasons in column after column why this is thus.
