Notice to Advertisers. THE ASTORIAN guarantees to its advertisers the largest circulation of any newspaper published on the Columbia river.

To-night. Wait till the clouds roll by. Yell—O is the prevailing tint. Kate Castleton at Occidental hall.

The Columbia arrived in yesterday. The steamer Gold Dust is to be sold in Portland on the 23rd inst.

Mr. Cleveland's majority in New York state last Tuesday was somewhat less than that of two years ago when he carried the state by 192,000.

Hospital Steward W. H. H. King is transferred from Fort Canby to Fort Stevens, and Hospital Steward J. C. Blake from Fort Stevens to Fort Canby.

Let us have a fair count in New York; and whoever is declared to have a plurality of the vote of the Empire State, let him be inaugurated.

U. B. Scott's new steambath, the Telephone, was launched last Thursday. She will be ready to go on the route between Portland and this city about December 1st.

Travelers tell us that in no place on the coast outside of San Francisco have they seen as much interest manifested in the presidential election as in this city.

Senator Dolph, says the Oregonian, proposes to ask the grand jury at Astoria to find indictments for murder against the hanzers who caused the death of Cadet Strang by rolling him down hill in a barrel.

Concerning the collision between the Steamship Wellington and the Queen of the Pacific, off the coast of Astoria, on the 6th of October, the nautical men to whom the case was referred have decided that the Wellington was to blame for backing when she should have gone ahead.

The Oregonian has precisely the same experience with its editorial staff. The Oregonian had three different editorials written in this office on Thursday, but neither of them seemed to be exactly suited to the case.

Some of the finest and plumpest blackberries that have been seen in this season were yesterday picked by J. F. Nowlen on his bushes. From eight bushes he has this year sold $40 worth of berries and made $50 worth of wine.

The latest novelty in business is termed "The Lost Key Bureau." Tags are sold at twenty-five cents each for attachment to a ring of pocket keys.

Accurate Reporting. A reporter was sent to interview a certain statesman on a political question. The result was a coherent and reasonable quarter of a column.

Removal. Mrs. A. B. Jewett has removed to rooms 3 and 4, Odd Fellows Building. Dresses cut, made and fitted in the most fashionable style.

STILL IN DOUBT.

When the "Good night" was sent over the wires yesterday morning, the situation, so far as New York was concerned, was so badly mixed up that no one could tell anyone else the way to start at arriving at any conclusion.

Following is the vote of the county at last Tuesday's election. Cleveland, Blaine, Ind.

Table with 3 columns: County Name, Cleveland, Blaine, Ind. Lists counties like Astoria, Upper Astoria, Klumpke, Clifton, Skippanon, Klaskanine, John Days, Lewis & Clark, Westport, Sesside, Fishhawk, Mishawaka, Vesper.

Why is it, said a famous English clergyman to the great actor Garrick, "that your theater is always full, while my church is always empty?"

The theater is always attractive for a variety of reasons that need not here be discussed. Like any other profession the attractiveness of the stage depends greatly on the men and women who appear there.

Things in New York. New York, Nov. 6.—The Times, while charging the Western Union with fabricating monstrous untruths yesterday, says: "There is no danger of the vote of New York not being counted as it has been cast."

How They Walk. Sufferers who have laid bed-ridden from five to ten years; cripples who used crutches for a long time, testify to being cured by St. Jacobs Oil, the magical pain-healer.

Home for Children. Mrs. Wagner, whose residence is next to C. W. Fulton's, is now prepared to take entire charge of a limited number of children.

Another installment of Ball's colic spring, elastic section corsets just arrived at the Empire Store.

READING THE ELECTION RETURNS.

Did you ever notice men reading election returns, especially when it is about 2 A. M., and they've been up last night and the night before and hadn't got to bed very early the night before that?

When the Portland papers arrived there was nothing to read. The news had already, and nothing was left to do but play marbles until the returns were telegraphed later on.
