ambling places in San Francisco, gambling places in San Francisco, January in an interview said: "One night I met some parties at the Baldwin saloon. I was drinking cocktails right along, and apparently a new made acquaintance was doing the same. He seemed to be a greenhorn; at least I took him for one. He showed me a handful of greenbacks and asked me to play with him. We went into a private room at the hotel and commenced playing. The proprietor drove us out, and as I went through the door he gave me a know. through the door he gave me a know history of slavery on the Pacific ing look and beckoned me to come back. January said that on October 22nd he went to San Francisco with $14-000 in his pocket intending to escape to Australia, but his courage failed him. Only last Saturday he again decided to fly, but again weakened. He made the extraordinary statement that he could have takened and the same takened. that he could have taken any amount of the state funds if he had cared to, as he had full access to the safe in which were lying packages containing $100,000.

The Walla Walla Disabled.

SEATTLE, Nov. 15.—The collier Walla Walla sailed from here last Thursday, the 13th, with a cargo of coal. While passing down the Sound she run under slow bell, on account of the dense fog. To the right of Port Gamble she run on the mud, and in backing off put out at full speed, only to strike a reef of rocks. She sprang a leak, but backed off the reef, and continued on her journey until Captain De Wolf was compelled to return to this port, where she arrived this afternoon.

Unhappy is the victim of indigestion who cannot comfortably dispose of his food. Aches, pains, grief and mental suffering are his portion. The cure for all this is Brown's Iron Bitters the greatest iron medicine in the world. Mrs. Teidman, of St. Louis, says: "I used Brown's Iron Bitters for weak stomach, and general debility, and am cured."

JACKSON, Miss., Nov. 15.—An old negro named Johnson, living near Clinton, cut his throat last night because of the election of Cleveland and Hendricks. He will probably die.

Excited Thousands

Were there ever any slaves bought and sold in Orgon, you ask? I know of but one case of this sort and the Sacramento, November 14.—The purchaser is a very well known charmoney stolen from the various counacter on the Portland streets. In ty treasurers by A. D. January, deputy state treasurer, amounting to vigorous young merchant doing bussystate treasurer, amounting to systate treasurer, amounting to systate treasurer, amounting to systate treasurer systate county, $1,825.50; H. This amount, less $14.210.50, represents the stealings. It is generally conceded that the bondsmen of the state treasurer are not liable for the state money, as it want into the sale of a slave that ever took s stolen money, as it went into the sale of a slave that ever took place on the Pacific shores of the United

It dawned on me then that I had been imposed upon by a short-card sharp; but what could I do but grin and bear it? The night after our last spring races here I lost $1800 at Isadore Cohen's. A well-known sport of this town won it (his name is Charlie, but don't mention it). The next day he won $500 more from me at the same studhorse game. I only played at five places in this city, but at them have lost this amount of money—Isadore Cohen's, Ed. Bush's, Zeke Walters' and the two Second street faro banks that I have already mentioned. Studhorse poker came in for its share and in one evening I lost $4500, and a well-known business man who sat next to me lost $1500. Since January last I have always, nntil within the last few days, had from $10,000 to $15,000 on my person. Whenever I got a chance I hit the sack."
