A BUREAU OF IMMIGRATION.

The Portland Board of Trade has appropriated $175 a month "for the successful operation of a society to encourage immigration."

The Portland organization seems disposed to go to work the right way. There is to be an immigration bureau, which will furnish immigrants a list of farms for sale, and send him direct to the settler, the main object being to receive and find homes for those who come to the state.

This last is a little liable to overdoing. It is so easy to sit down and write a glowing account of what some one unusually favored individual has done and send that broadcast as an example of "what any one can do if he will only come to Oregon."

Every man who comes here "on business" and with an intent to build a home is welcome; he adds to the wealth of the state in a marked degree, no matter whether he bring much or little. Here in our own county of Clatsop is fine soil, good advantages for transportation and market and a future of great promise.

OUR NATIONAL DEBT.

"A NATIONAL debt is a national blessing," says England, and acting on this premise she pays her debt slowly. America has a different policy, and has always been noted for the prompt payment of its national obligations.

After the Revolutionary war closed Alexander Hamilton estimated its cost at $140,000,000. The Continental congress recognized a total debt of $70,000,000. The policy was then promulgated and practiced of promptly paying the public debt. By 1807 the United States was out of debt. In 1812 our country went to war again.

In 1861 the national credit was below par and high interest was asked and received for a small loan.

With intestine strife came a new spirit. In direct defiance of the constitution, but with an intent that was justified by the circumstances that occasioned it, the north borrowed nearly $2,500,000,000. In addition to this nearly $500,000,000 more was obtained by the issue of a fractional currency that was not redeemable.

In 1865 the civil war closed and left the United States with the heaviest annual debt charge of any country in the world. The exact figures of the highest point touched by our national debt are $2,794,161,728. The interest on this was over $4 a year for every man, woman and child in the country.

In 1867 began a system of national finance unequalled in the world's history. Never before had such a debt been so rapidly piled up. Never before was such a debt so rapidly diminished. At the close of the fiscal year of 1880 we had paid off nearly $700,000,000; since then we have paid nearly $300,000,000 more. The debt of this country is to-day less than $1,500,000,000. Not the least among the items worthy of admiration in this grand financial showing is the immense amount saved in interest by such speedy payment.

There is a part of the debt that bears no interest. It is payable on demand; there is sufficient money in the treasury to pay every dollar of this debt. This money is in the treasury for that purpose. The fact of its being there worries a good many statesmen who think it is too bad to have so much national wealth "locked up."

LOS ANGELES county, Cal., increased its population 31,619 in the last four years. No other county in the state advertised itself half so well. The result is increased population and wealth, lighter taxes, more comforts, better roads, more schools, etc. Our commonwealth has many varied attractions. Let them be known.

The eastern states are full of people who are just eking out a bare existence. With proper assistance they could do well in this section. Honest effort and good intent can always succeed in Oregon. Clatsop county presents inducements unsurpassed by any other county in the state.
