

The Daily Astorian.

ASTORIA, OREGON: WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 7, 1883. ELECTORAL MESSENGERS.

The law requires that two certified copies of the electoral vote of each state shall be forwarded to the president of the senate, one by mail and the other by a messenger...

A GENERAL advance is reported in the price of wheat, both in this country and Europe. The Liverpool market shows an advance of 3s a quarter.

THE salary of Prince Bismarck is 54,000 marks—about $13,000—per annum, besides residence and all expenses.

YESTERDAY'S New York Commercial Bulletin estimates that the loss from fires in the United States and Canada for December at $11,000,000, and for the year at $112,000,000.

BRECKENRIDGE has introduced a bill in the senate to provide for the creation of a river and harbor department, which shall be under charge of the commissioner of river and harbors.

GEN. FREMONT, in his old age is about to become a path-finder again. This time the scene of his exploits will be Mexico.

CONTRAST the cabling of the Spanish treaty by the costly enterprise of the New York Times with the fact that about seventy years ago, when this country was at war with England...

SINCE 1879 the amount of money of all kinds in the country has increased 486 1/2 millions, made up of 307 millions in gold, 169 millions in silver and something less than ten millions in national bank notes.

No president in more than fifty years has ever been able to carry out his original intention in making up a cabinet. Even General Jackson, with all his force of character and his resisting power, had to give up his own choice of persons when he came to confront the party leaders with opposing views.

A MARKET woman of Peoria, Ill., avoids paying an election bet because she had read of the Shylock performances. She was to wheel a man around the public square, but declares there was nothing in the bond about wheeling his clothes, and declares that he will have to go without them or not at all.

If you want to strengthen an opinion, tie it down. Like the green bough bent with the finger, it will retain its altered position only while the hand of authority is applied to it, and will spring back again with a vigor increased by restraint when that hand is withdrawn.
