

The Daily Astorian.

ASTORIA, OREGON:

TUESDAY, JANUARY 13, 1885

UNCLE SAM MUST LOOK OUT.

The resolutions recently offered in the house by Messrs. Herbert of Alabama and Belmont of New York, calling on the president to define the position of the government with relation to the Congo conference...

The lord high chancellor of Great Britain is ex-officio the speaker of the house of lords. He is also a member of the cabinet, and usually a peer...

SPRINGFIELD of Illinois thus expresses his views touching the election of a senator in the state to succeed Logan: "There does not appear to be the least prospect that the legislature will be able to elect a senator."

The Troy, N. Y., Press has the civil service reform business down pretty fine. It says: "If the office is one of responsibility it should be given to a Democrat, so that the party in power may fairly be held to account for any misdeeds of the official; and if it is an office of small duties, such as footing up columns of figures or the like, then surely a Democrat can be found to do it as well as any other."

The governor of Iowa is said to be afraid to call a session of the legislature to fix up some railroad matters lest it take it into its head to repeal the prohibition law.

VANDERHILT has returned all of Gen. Grant's property to him and insists that he shall accept the gift.
