News comes from Rankin's camp on the Oregon Pacific railroad that a bridge carpenter known as John Mc-Innes, which name was thought to be an assumed one, was drowned a few days ago in Mary's river. He was under a bridge with two men named Baird and Nelson cutting him and Baird and Nelson cutting driftwood. McInnes and Baird were standing on the drift in the middle of the river when some-thing gave way. McInnes turned and jumped into the stream and H. C. F. KOCH & SON. Baird started for the shore. McIn nes went under and only came to the surface once about a hundred feet below the bridge. He made no effort to swim, and it was impossible for any of the men to aid him, as he re-

Beautifully illustrated with lithographic Fashion Plates and about 2,000 wood engrav-ings; a complete guide for all Ladles', Gents', Children's and Infants' wear, Housekeeping Goods : Millhery, etc. This firm does the largest and most satis-factory catologue trade in this country. They list all goods at their New York store prices which are acknowledged lower than these of any other bouse in the United States. They receive back and refund the monsy for all goods not desired, excepting those made to order and so classed in their book. They guarantee all sticles exactly as represented, and have earned for themselves an unequalled reputation for fair and honest dealing. "My dear, what would I give to have your hair?" is often said by middle-aged ladies to young ones. Madam, you may have just such hair. Parker's Hair Balsam will give it to you. It will stop your hair from fall-ing off, restore the original color and make it long, thick, soft and glossy. You need not stand helplessly envying the girls. The Balsm is not oily, not a dye, but it an elegant dressing, and is especially recommended for its clean MUSLIN, CAMBRIC AND FINE UNDERWEAR A SPECIALTY.

DEALERS should send for their Special Discount List to the Trade, especially recommended for its clean-liness and purity.
