Its ingredients are safe, and its credentials, which consist in the hearty endorsement of persons of every class of society, are most convincing.

INDUSTRIAL AND BUSINESS.
 Germans make the most delicate watch wheels of paper pulp.
 The estimated loss for 1884 from hog cholera in Nebraska is $2,000,000.
 Lynn, Mass., shipped 296,933, and Haverhill 194,761 cases of shoes during the year just closed.
 Tower clocks, costing from $500 to $5,000, are sent from this country pretty much all over the world.
 A fair quality of artificial stone is made of equal parts of lime and sand. It costs about the same as brick.
 Iron and steel statistics show that while the sales of 1884 were as large as in 1883, the profits were smaller.
 The production of pig iron last year was in excess of what it was in 1880, which was the year of the great boom.
 The value of merchandise exported during the month of November was $75,776,995, and that of imports $45,183,792.
 Tobacco is the best crop in North Carolina. There are numerous instances of it yielding $500 or $600 an acre.
 The United States is the third silk manufacturing country in the world. Its annual production is worth $35,000,000.
 The latest thing in milling products is compressed bran, by which 200 pounds can be reduced to a very small bulk.
 During 1884, $22,000,000 was built into Chicago structures and $45,000,000 invested in real property lying within the city limits.
 Symptoms of revival in the iron trade are reported from Pittsburg. Several mills which recently suspended work are starting up again.
 Prof. Alexander Graham Bell, of telephone celebrity, says the service will never be satisfactory until the wires are laid underground.
 It is understood that the profits of the New York Herald for 1884 were $350,000. For the same twelve months the profits of the Times were $150,000.
 According to the Philadelphia Record for the first time in the history of the trade, the prices of anthracite and bituminous coal in New York harbor are practically the same.
 Chinamen are beginning to monopolize a large share of the business of furnishing wood for the Central Pacific railroad, which has constituted an important industry of the Truckee basin.
 A land and cattle company, with $1,000,000 capital has been organized in New York, and proposes to purchase 1,000,000 acres of land in Central Arizona, and stock it with 25,000 head of cattle.
 Till within the last few years nearly all the cotton seed produced in the south was wasted. At present only about 10 per cent. of it is used for making oil, but about $10,000,000 per year is realized from it.
 The erection of cotton mills at the south has not been stopped by the general depression. The year will show a considerable increase in both spindles and looms, according to the United States Economist.
 Rev. Selah Merrill, our consul at Jerusalem, thinks that American window-sashes and doors ought to find a good market in Palestine, as those used there are all hand-made from intractable and knotty lumber.
 Some one writes from Florida to the Gardener Monthly that "orange culture is one of the most profitable ventures any one coming to this state can engage in, especially if one can manage to sell out his orchard."
 Twenty years ago copper was worth fifty cents a pound in New York city. From that time it has receded to fifteen and one-half cents a pound subsequent to the panic of 1873. It is now worth eleven cents a pound.
 The building of the Georgia state capitol, at Atlanta, develops the fact that granite can be quarried in Maine, brought to Savannah, and thence by rail to Atlanta at a less cost than it can be had at a quarry only sixteen miles away.
 The ship-building industry in Maine is reported to be remarkably depressed. The coming year, says a prominent shipbuilder at Bath, promises to be one of the hardest known to men of that business in this state for half a century.
 The eastern iron folk call the southern pig iron "very poor stuff," indeed, "nearly worthless," and yet they make a cut of $2 a ton to head it off as a competitor. It seems to be worth $2 a ton anyway.—Nashville, Tenn., American.
 The annual review of trade in Chicago shows an aggregate of $933,000,000 for 1884, against $1,033,000,000 for 1883, a decline of 11 per cent. But this is not much more, if any, than the decline in the value of the products chiefly dealt in at Chicago.
 Three years ago, Martinsville, Va., had barely 300 inhabitants. Now the population is 2,500, and there are ten tobacco factories, a foundry, seven machine and wagon shops, a newspaper, four or five churches, and other adjuncts of a flourishing town.
 There is an incubating establishment at Albany, N. Y., which has turned out 4,000 chickens since October, when it began running. About one hundred and twenty-five dozen eggs are used weekly. When the chickens arrive at a weight of one and a half pounds they are sent to market.

 The president of the Thomas Iron company, Gen. Samuel Thomas, is said by the Baltimore Manufacturers Record, to have decided to put $1,000,000 into blast furnaces in Alabama. Gen. Thomas has for some time been the owner of 20,000 acres of coal and iron lands in that state and will now build a furnace there.
 The Nashua Telegraph says that within two years the shoe industry has taken a rapid and remarkable development in New Hampshire. Ten factories have been established and over $1,000,000 invested. Several of these firms have migrated from Lynn, Mass., in order to get away from the trades union complications.
 The productive capacity of the steel-rail mills of the United States is about 1,800,000 tons per annum. About 600,000 tons went into new lines last year, and the amount used on renewals, new second track and sidings is estimated as 650,000 tons, or 5.42 per cent of the total amount of rails in track. At the end of 1883 a little more than half the track of the United States was iron.
 A Maine journal is waging a war against bad grammar in newspapers. This is an excellent move. An ungrammatically man, what thinks he can set in an editorial chair and learn his readers something which they don't know, ought to go to some other business. Let's have good grammar in the newspapers.
 Sergeant Mason, who attempted to kill Guitauet by firing into his cell, and, in fact, narrowly missed the assassin, is living in peace and retirement on his farm in Virginia, purchased with the $7,000 contribution which was raised by voluntary subscription during his confinement in the Albany penitentiary.
 John Swinton, professional Communist, has served notice on his readers that at his losses in keeping up John Swinton's paper are heavier than he can bear, and that "if the friends of the paper do not at once largely extend his subscription list it will be impossible to go on with its weekly publication."
 Cannon Point, Ga., ignorant of California resources, claims the honor of having the only olive grove in the United States whose fruit is used for the manufacture of oil. It contains 160 bearing trees, which were planted over 100 years ago. The grove yielded 200 gallons of oil this year.
 In Savannah the Western Union Telegraph Company employs negroes instead of white boys for delivering messages. The change was made recently, white boys having become unsteady and totally unreliable, causing great complaint of the service among business men.
 "The Heart Bowed Down by Weight of Woe." That is to say, the mournful heart of the suffering woman who is burdened with dyspepsia and agonizes with torment during weary nights of sleeplessness. Such a woman needs kind friends, hearty sympathy and Brown's Iron Bitters. Mr. A. A. Mantus, Marshall, Texas, writes, "My wife has been entirely cured of dyspepsia and general debility by using Brown's Iron Bitters." Good news for the weary heart.
 Thirty-five years ago the city of Minneapolis was not; to-day it has a population of 125,000 souls. Forty years ago its site could have been bought for $50; now land is worth in certain streets $1,500 a front foot.
 You Can Have It.
 "My dear, what would I give to have your hair?" is often said by middle-aged ladies to young ones. Madam, you may have just such hair. Parker's Hair Balsam will give it to you. It will stop your hair from falling off, restore the original color and make it long, thick, soft and glossy. You need not stand helplessly envying the girls. The Balsam is not oily, not a dye, but it is an elegant dressing, and is especially recommended for its cleanliness and purity.
 The New York newspapers are still burdened with articles on the subject of shutting up the saloons of that city on Sunday, as required by law. The police say that the saloons are closed, and the newspapers say that they are not.
 Scott's Emulsion of Pure Cod Liver Oil, with Hypophosphites.
 Is Especially Useful for Children's Diseases—As it acts both as food and medicine. It not only gives flesh and strength by virtue of its own nutritive properties, but creates an appetite for food that builds up the wasted body.
 Some of the New York newspapers are very much opposed to the proposed appropriation for the manufacture of heavy guns. All right. St. Louis isn't afraid of bombardment if New York isn't.—St. Louis Republic.
