NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 29.—The neces ary funds to relieve the exposition from its serious and pressing finan-cial embarrassments do not appear to be forthcoming. It is not likely from all appearances that the people of this city will supply the deficient $250,000 required to pay up indebtedness already incurred. There is an evident want of confidence in the present directors of the institution that militates against the hope of supplies from that quarter, even if the money ways at head. There is a directors of the confidence in the money ways at head. were at hand. There is a desire on the part of many of the friends of the exposition, and particularly the
