ORGANIZED cynicism has reached the point of a society founded for the express purpose of discountenancing the celebration of Christmas, New Years and other anniversaries in England.

RECENTLY a bet was made and won that the president of Harvard college could not name four vice-presidents of the United States inside of three minutes, It took him seven to name Wheeler and Colfax.

NEW YORK city is said to contain 5,000 disciples of the hot water cure, who drink water almost boiling hot every morning before breakfast. They denounce the drinking of cold water at any time of day.

DURING the year 1884, 83,051 persons died in London, or 223 a day. This gloomy record is made darker by a statement that during the same year in London the sun shone brightly on only about sixty-five days.

San Francisco has trouble about a proposed new charter. The papers say the new city hall cannot be fir ished until there is a new charter. There seems to be a sporadic element in this matter of charter discussion.

THE cost of carrying a bushel of corn from Chicago to New York by lake and canal was, in 1868, twentyfive cents, and by all rail forty-two cents. In 1882 these figures were reduced to eight and fourteen cents respectively.

HARD times in New York state have affected the churches and the economy of reducing or doing away with church choirs has been necessitated. A favorite plan is the forming of young people's choruses to lead the congregations in the hymns.

A SENTIMENT is growing in Iowa that unless the prohibitory law can be enforced it had better be repealed. Even the Des Moines Register, which earnestly advocated the adoption of the present law, does not favor keeping it on the statute books if it proves a failure.

COMMENTING on the refusal of the senate to ratify the Nicaraguan treaty the Oregonian tersely sums up the situation in the assertion that 'it is not by any means the first alliance between the southern confederacy and England, against the interests of the United States."

EARLY marriages are popular at Tennant's Harbor, Me. A girl of 13 was married there December 6th. Most of the girls are married between 12 and 15 years of age, and it is said to be nothing uncommon to find in the same family parents and from one to four children drawing school money.
