The Pope has appointed Archbishop Wm. H. Gross of Georgia, to be archbishop of Oregon.

The name of the Emma Hear has been changed to the Alliance. She comes down the river on Sunday.

The Oregonian and News say that Lee's normal school bill was lost; the Standard says it passed. Which is right?

A. E. Woodruff, of Ft. Canby, and Mrs. Mary Achey were married in this city yesterday and departed for their new home.

At nine this morning begins the ne-quest sale of J. Pilger. Ladies' dresses, etc., are advertised at reduced prices.

Have you your ticket for the masquerade at the skating rink to-morrow evening? You can get one at Clinton's cigar store or at the New York Novelty Store where the prizes to be given are on exhibition.

The Decatur, Marlboro and Wm. D. Seed cleared yesterday. The Yarra Yarra, Redfish and Yosemite went to sea. The British bark British Home-ward is bound for Victoria tomorrow.

Tickets for the Congregational church choir concert next Tuesday may be had at Griffin & Reed's. They cost but fifty cents each, the entertainment is worth twice the money and the proceeds will be for the benefit of the church.

There is a fine chair of unique workmanship on exhibition at Gustav Hansen's jewelry store. The back and sides are constructed of horns finely polished and mounted. The horse is a one-hundred chance at one dollar a chance. It would be a fine chair for some of our Democratic friends to buy and send to President-elect Cleveland to sit in.

The Congregational church choir will give another of their popular vocal and instrumental musicals next Tuesday evening, the 17th inst., at the Congregational church, on which occasion some fine music will be presented, including some of the numbers rendered at the last concert given by this organization. Some of the best musical talent of the city will aid in making the occasion worthy of remembrance.

As the time is here for smelt to run, it may be of interest to know how to keep them. "If you can, take your barrel and salt down immediately and cover the fish with salt. If you can't take them things with you, as soon as you return rinse the fish in fresh water, to remove the sand and dirt, and salt heavily. Let remain in the brine, which need not be changed. Do not keep the fish too long before salting."

A Chinaman and a fifteen year old boy had a lively set-to in front of the Occident yesterday afternoon. The Chinaman showed more fight than his countrymen usually do and after pulling off three or four jackets he went after his man or boy in a Sullivan. He shortly retreated with a very bloody face, but bearing a trophy in the shape of the boy's necktie, which he ground savagely in the mud with his heel, accompanied with some cursory remarks.

The maps of withdrawal lands in Oregon and Washington territory by the Northern Pacific by construction of the Cascade route, have been filed at the United States land office at Walla Walla, W. T., and La Grande, Oregon. The lands in Oregon earned by the construction of this line, will be placed on the market early in the spring. There are a large number of settlers in the area withdrawn, the majority of whom having settled prior to June, 1882, will have the preference right to purchase from the Northern Pacific the land settled upon at $2.00 per acre.

There will be a social dance this evening in the beautiful parlors of the Pythian castle. The entertainment is given under the auspices of the Astoria Social club. The floor committee is composed of J. N. Griffin, W. E. Warren, R. F. Frazer, J. N. Brown; the reception committee consists of Geo. W. Searborn, W. L. Garretson, Geo. H. George and A. S. Reed. Fine music will be in attendance. The entire promenade will begin at nine o'clock. Supper will be served here at the Ladies Coffee club. The old and young, the grave and gay will merrily dance the hours away, and every one will have a good time.

A joint memorial instructing the senators and representatives in congress to oppose any and all attempts to renew the privileges now enjoyed by the Alaska seal company ought to pass an Oregon legislature promptly. The privileges have some time yet to run, but the passage of such a memorial as "an expression," will be worth a good deal. After instructing the senators and representatives on this point, it will be a good thing also for the legislature to advise them to vote in favor of Sumner's postal telegraph bill. This will be legislating for the "transmission of intelligence" among the people at reasonable rates, and will be a blow at the most powerful monopoly in the country.—News.

Five Dollars Reward For the return of three keys on a ring, lost on Squemoqua street last Wednesday night. Leave at this office.

THE SENATORIAL SITUATION.

SALEM, Feb. 12.—The fifteenth ballot for United States senator gave Hoult 33 Democratic votes; Hirsch got 28 Republican votes, failing 5; Williams, 4, the rest "scattering." No one here can tell any more about the outcome now than they could two weeks ago. Hirsch sticks at 28, and the "dark horse" has not yet appeared. Speculation is useless. Every one expects something to happen "to-morrow," and has been so expecting for the last week. The legislature only has another week but seems in no hurry to choose.

The candidates are not discussed much; the chief interest seems to be in whom the Democrats will vote for from day to day. They have complimented nearly every prominent Democrat in the state with a vote and have only a few more ballots in which to remember their friends. It is conceded that in ability and experience Williams leads. The ideas in reference to his election if put into expression would be somewhat this way: "Williams is undoubtedly a man that would ably represent Oregon in a general way. If a subject of international importance came up for discussion 'the senator from Oregon' could and doubtless would deliver a fine speech on the floor of the senate. But he would hardly trouble himself with little petty state and local matters such as procuring appropriations, laboring with committees, etc. These things would be opposed to his dignity and he could not be bothered with these little matters. Now, if we had a dozen congressmen like some states Williams would be a splendid man to represent us, but we are scant of forces. We only have three in congress, counting both senators, and they must all be workers. This is a young state, needy and important, and a man who is not too much taken up with a sense of his own importance will be necessary." Hence though Williams is an able man he has not succeeded in convincing the present senatorial leaders that he would be the best.

Hirsch is making a determined fight. A good many think that he will win. He is confident himself regarding the outcome. Hare and Hill, from whom so much was expected, are not talked of much now. Hill's ability is conceded, but a good many have not entire confidence in his political record. The "anti-monopoly" element represented by Boise seem to have been taken up with the idea they are taking breath. There are whisperers in some quarters regarding the probability of Henry Fairing carrying off the prize. Knowing ones claim to see in him the coming candidate. Nor is there lack of talk regarding John H. Mitchell. One thing is almost certain: That if Mitchell's name were the rallying point of twenty Republican votes there are Democratic votes enough in the house to elect him.

THE NEW ORLEANS EXPOSITION.

Mr. J. C. Trullinger, who recently got back from the New Orleans exposition, is of the opinion that if it did nothing else than to induce a good feeling in place of sectional hate that the exposition would be a success. As he says: "Not politicians but business men meet there from all parts of the nation; they interchange opinions; they see that interest demands a mutual concession; they realize that the true business policy, as a matter of business, requires the laying aside of any other idea than that we are all citizens in common of one great country."

Talking of the exposition buildings, etc., Mr. Trullinger says that he spent twenty-one days in seeing what was to be seen and is satisfied that he saw it all. He systematically went through aisle after aisle and building after building, and when he had seen enough for one day let the rest wait till he got around to it. He considers it an entire success in every way except financially. Talking to Mr. A. L. Richardson, the wealthiest man in Louisiana and one of the largest contributors to the original exposition fund, he said to Mr. Trullinger: "We expect to lose from $700,000 to $800,000; of this I myself will lose $70,000. But we expect to get an appropriation from the general government that will partly make up the deficit."

Mr. T. has several interesting souvenirs of his trip—among others a large silk handkerchief made of silk woven and manufactured from the raw cocoon in his presence, and with a representation in colors of the exposition building woven in the fabric of the material.

Such a trip as his gives one a stock of ideas upon which they can draw at pleasure for the remainder of life.

THE STATE LEGISLATURE.

SENATE. SALEM, Feb. 11.—Prayer by Rev. M. L. Ragg of Salem.

Senate bill No. 111, by Reed, to provide for pilotage on the Columbia and Willamette rivers, was taken up under special order for the morning hour; an amendment had been adopted by the senate, providing that the pilotage shall be at the back of, or under control of the state, made with the intent to prevent pilots from Washington territory having the monopoly of pilotage. The rates of pilotage in Washington territory are $8 and $10, and $6 and $8 in Oregon. The bill provides for the building of a pilot schooner of not less than fifty tons burden and at a cost not to exceed $10,000; shall be built at the expense of the state, to be under control of the board of pilot commissioners, to at all times cruise outside the bar, unless prevented by weather. It further provides that the $10,000 shall be repaid from the earnings of the boat.

Hare spoke in favor of the bill, and referred to the difference between pilotage and towage and to the reasonable rates charged by Capt. Flavel for towage, which, he said were unsatisfactory to those who thought too much money was being made from it and wanted a change. The speaker said we want pilotage that will bring in vessels impartially, to provide a boat to cruise about outside the bar on the lookout for vessels. Hare further said that he was in favor of wiping out the board of pilot commissioners, and to make pilots independent in their profession.

He asserted that under the present law the pilots only kept a lookout from the cape, the tugs lying in the bay, and that the weather often prevented an extended view of incoming vessels, and that now pilots, who are professional seamen, are under control of a board who are inexperienced in the business.

The bill then passed. The senate took up the following house bills for consideration: H. B. No. 215, by Chandler, to amend Baker City charter; read first time.

On motion of Haines read a second time under a suspension of rules. Haines moved that the rules be further suspended, the bill read a third time and placed on its final passage, which motion prevailed.

H. B. No. 186, by Smith, to amend the charter of Forest Grove. On motion of Hare the bill was read first and second times by title under suspension of rules and made a special order for Friday at four o'clock.

H. B. No. 43, by Leinenweber, to provide for the appointment of a board of immigration commissioners, and the appropriation of money for immigration purposes. On motion of Myers, the bill was read a third time, now under suspension of rules; placed on its final passage.

The bill provides that the government shall appoint a board of immigration commissioners, and for the appropriation of $5,000 for 1885, and $5,000 for 1886, of the general fund for disseminating accurate and trustworthy information regarding the resources of the state.

Dorris objected to the bill, as he understood the matter was in the interests of the board of trade of Portland, and the bill does not tell just how the money is to be spent.

Shupe inquired how it could be under the board of trade, while the bill states that it is to be under control of a board of immigration.

Myers spoke ably in favor of the bill. Miller also favored the bill, and hoped southern Oregon would be represented in the board.

Coleman was in favor of the board being located in Portland; passed—10 to 12; absent—2.

H. B. No. 156, by Leinenweber, to provide a boatman for the board of health at Astoria.

On motion of Reed, read a second time by title and referred to the committee on commerce.

H. B. No. 14, by Riddle, to provide for a bounty on wild animals, was reported by the committee on counties with amendments, which were adopted.

Signin offered an amendment providing for the destruction of black-tailed rabbits, an animal destructive to gardens and grain fields.

HOUSE. Pursuant to adjournment, the speaker called the house to order. Roll call. Prayer by Rev. J. W. Sariggs.

The judiciary committee favorably reported Lewis' bill to amend the code; Gilbert's, exempting firemen from certain duties and taxes; Cameron's, for the relief of J. W. Fremont—concerning the property of deceased persons; and Lewis', to fix the salary of county judges and treasurers.

Simon's senate bill for an additional circuit judge at Portland; passed.

Weatherford's bill, providing for a fish-ward at Willamette falls, was set for a third reading to-morrow.

Senate bill, creating Gilliam county; referred to the delegation of Wasco, Crook and Umatilla counties.

Leinenweber's bill for public boatman at Astoria; passed.

Watt's bill, relating to the service of summons; lost.

Senate bill (Reed), to provide for pilots on the Columbia and Willamette rivers; read first and second time; ordered to third reading to-morrow.

Story's bill relating to private corporations. Read second time by title; referred to judiciary.

House and senate then proceeded to ballot again for United States senator, the result being as follows.

Signin—21. Hirsch—Cameron, Carson, Cole, Casick, Daventport (of Multnomah), Emmitt, Flinn, Gilbert, Hall, Jolly, Kenworthy, Manning, Mayo, McKeloy, Miller (of Josephine), Reed, Roberts, Rogers, Shupe, Simon, Story, Statton, Thompson, Wait, Williams, Will, Wilcox, Waldo—28.

George—Allen, Barnes, Connor, Henkle, Smith—5. Failing—Bourne, Cartwright, Lee, Lyle, Therkelson—5. Hare—Burch, Shaw—Craven.

Williams—Denport (of Marion), Geary, Sanders, Woodward—4. Ready—Downing, Boise—Hare, Prosser—2. Carson—Hirsch, Keady—2. E. B. Watson—Blaney.

A. S. Dunway—Chandler. Hayes—Signin. Moore—Voorhees. Absent—Burton, Riddle, Veatch, Warren—4.

In the afternoon session Leinenweber's bill to declare forfeited the sale of certain swamp lands was referred to the whole house.

Senate bill (Lee) locating a state normal school was read third time and lost. Cartwright's bill to change the name of Whitman county to Gilliam, with amendment, was adopted.

Lee's senate bill to provide pilot commissioners for the Willamette and Columbia rivers passed.

Will's bill to prevent the pollution of water used for domestic purposes passed. Daventport's bill to prevent the unlawful cutting of trees and removing stone and mineral passed.

Jolly's bill to protect game passed.

SHARPS AND FLATS. PARIS, Feb. 11.—Eigara says that El Mahdi's minister of war is M. Miret. He was formerly a captain in the French army, joined El Mahdi in 1882, and taught Arabs the way to break squares when formed by troops in battle.

LONDON, Feb. 11.—Two evening papers bitterly attack Gladstone for roaring with laughter at the play of "The Candidate," at the Criterion last night, while telegrams were pouring in announcing Gordon's murder, and the slaughter of babes in Khartoum.

New Glasgow, N. S., Feb. 11.—Last night's explosion occurred at the foot of the slope, 2,900 feet from the surface, in Vaie's quarry, from here, Twenty men were at work and thirteen were killed outright, and six badly injured. Most of the men were married with large families.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Feb. 11.—None of the snow-bound arrivals arrived to-day, and there was not a quorum to vote for United States senator. The Democrats insisted on a ballot, however, and the Republicans left their seats. The ballot gave Morrison 75 votes, 28 less than a majority.

DUBLIN, Feb. 11.—The attempt to shoot O'Donovan Rossa has already ceased to be talked about here. People in Ireland have been used to such strong doses of sensation that they pay little attention to the flesh wound of a man who was looked upon as a fraud, and who is thoroughly discredited and disesteemed.

LONDON, Feb. 11.—Advices from Madrid indicate that the Spanish government is nervous over the chances of the rejection of the Spanish-American treaty. It is stated that in order to conciliate the Democrats and the incoming administration in the United States the Spanish cabinet is prepared to extend the provisions of the commercial treaty to the Philippine islands, in addition to Cuba and Porto Rico.

New York, Feb. 11.—You may state that the next cabinet will be chosen from the following ten gentlemen: "said a senator who is very close to Mr. Cleveland, and who has recently seen him: Messrs. Bayard, Garland, Whitney, Vilas, Jones of New Hampshire, McDonald, Lawton of Georgia, Jones, McClellan and Waldhall of Mississippi. I cannot state how they will be placed, but you can rest assured that these are the only names under consideration by the president-elect, and anything else is mere guesswork."

LOUISVILLE, Feb. 11.—A band of Ku-Klux in Grayson county have been going the rounds at night, whipping and otherwise outraging persons who fell under their displeasure. About seventy of them surrounded the house of a family named Forbes, but the Forbes brothers fired upon them and succeeded in scaring them away, killing James Sally, one of the Ku-Klux. It is said that they have whipped helpless women, and have by threats driven people out of the county. Not long since they whipped an old man named Tom Green nearly to death because he did not move away with his family. Bud Graham was also whipped so severely that it is thought he will not recover.

OTTAWA, Feb. 11.—According to a report laid by the minister of militia before parliament, the total strength of Canada's militia force is 37,000 men, 30,000 being infantry and rifles. Of these only 17,200 were drilled during 1884. The expenditures on account of militia last year were $8,000,000. General Middleton, commanding the Dominion forces, in his report to the government strongly urges the strengthening of Victoria, British Columbia, in view of the possibility of England being drawn into hostilities with other nations. The subject of an extradition treaty between Canada and the United States will engage the attention of the present session.

CHICAGO, Feb. 11.—The mercury here registered eighteen degrees below zero at 8 o'clock this morning, but reports from points throughout the northwest indicate that the weather is moderating rapidly. St. Paul is reported eight below and Winnipeg nineteen below. Des Moines reports from points lower than the trains, both passenger and freight, are beginning to move again this morning. In Illinois, however, the blockade still continues. Two trains only left for the east this morning. Roads to the southeast are still blocked and a large number of passenger and freight trains are snow-bound. The statement is made that thousands of cattle and hogs are frozen to death in abandoned freight cars.

The New Witness Fee Bill. The bill lately passed by the legislature abolishing witness fees in criminal cases tried in justices' courts is causing considerable comment. Many consider it unconstitutional, and others think it not the right means to reach the end desired. Article 18 of the constitution of Oregon reads as follows: "Private property shall not be taken for public use, nor the particular services of any man be demanded without just compensation; nor except in case of the state, without such compensation as a jury shall assess and order." It is more than likely that people will refuse to leave their business to attend criminal trials without compensation. They will then be ranked before a court for contempt or some such thing, and then they will bring a suit to recover compensation.—Oregonian.

Throw Your Dinner Away. Perhaps such advice may seem like a suggestion of poor economy. But if your digestive apparatus is out of order you might as well throw your dinner in the street as to eat it; for it will do you no good.
