VISITORS TO PORTLAND

Should not forget to call at Towne's San Francisco Gallery, where may be seen photographs of all the leading men and women of Oregon and Washington Territory. Skillful operators always in attendance, and the most minute attention paid to pictures of children. Don't forget the location, S. W. corner First and Morrison streets, up stairs. No trouble to show specimens to visitors. Street railroads pass the door every ten minutes, and this is the nearest gallery to the five principal hotels.

OUR NORTHWESTERN FRONTIER.

Alaska has not been a very profitable purchase, but it has given the authorities at Washington an opportunity to show their goodwill by helping the British Columbians to keep order among the coast Indians on their northern boundary. The territories of the two countries are so dovetailed that rectification of the line is needful, because prisoners to justice are obliged to be taken across places where escape would mean freedom under international laws. American capital is largely invested in the British coal mines of Vancouver Island, and the American market at San Francisco is supplied with coal at the same rates as those paid by our own navy vessels and railway lines. Cross over the forest-filled valleys of the Cascade range, the cattle pastures near the OKanagan and the Columbia as it roars through the gorges of the Rocky mountains, and we come to the province of Alberta, rich in coal and ranches. Here the old Indian depredator has almost disappeared, but there remain the white ruffian, whisky smuggler and horse stealer, representing the criminal classes, and these gentlemen ply their vocation along the whole prairie frontier until we arrive at Manitoba. An agreement between our governments is needed to make these disturbers of the public peace amenable to law and extraditable. The frontier once crossed gives them protection for their persons. But in the absence of needed laws see how the amity of its representatives provides a remedy. Although it may not be possible to give a man over to justice unless the offense be murder, property stolen is almost invariably recovered. The Canadian mounted police find that their true comrades and friends are the United States provost marshals and the United States army officers in the forts along the line. Co-operation, where it can be given in detecting crime and punishing criminals, is given, and I am sure that the American authorities would be the first to bear witness to the skill, and zeal displayed by the mounted police, who, in the rivalry of restoring property, may be allowed the head score in the number of cases where complaints have been met by successful tracking and restitution of stolen cattle or horses.

DYNAMITE AT THE EAST.

What with Justus Schwab at New York, Herr Most at Baltimore, a dynamite congress in session at Pittsburg and three Irish dynamite clubs at Chicago, our friends in the east seem likely to have plenty of excitement. Schwab is a fellow who is always ready for a brush with the police, and his head and their clubs are old acquaintances. He runs a lager beer saloon and after every fight the hall rings with "Zwei lager." Most is a crank of the French revolutionary type, who goes about advising everybody to kill somebody. He doesn't propose to take a hand in the game himself. He is a little like the editor of the Little Pedlington Gazette, who "told the czar of Russia and told him for the last time." The Irish dynamiters of Chicago are the only chaps who seem to have an immediate objective point. They propose to move on Canada and blow up some Canadian vessels. How the blowing up of Canadian vessels on the lakes or the destruction of Canadian canals is going to help the cause of Ireland, is not distinctly apparent, but we suppose the dynamiters understand what they are about.

The chances are that the reports of dynamite and socialist movements which we are so constantly receiving from the east are exaggerated. We shall not believe, without very clear evidence, that any substantial number of American workmen have undertaken to violate their own laws. It must be remembered that one man can make a great deal of noise, and be listened to patiently without being in any degree a representative of the community in which he lives, or having any following worth counting. To read the dispatches from New York it would seem that Schwab is the leader of an army, whereas the police of one precinct could probably take care of him and all his henchmen without trouble. So at Chicago. Let the lively chaps who talk of blowing up Canadian vessels interfere with Chicago's trade and it will take all the militia of Cook county to protect them from being run into the lake. There is an old adage which these would-be red revolutionists had best remember: Wake not the sleeping lion!—S. F. Chronicle.

THE SOUDAN.

London, March 2—Dispatches from Assab Bey, received this afternoon, states that the garrison of Kassala, who have been defending the place for a year, recently made a sortie but were repulsed by the rebels with a loss of twenty-eight officers and 632 privates.

Marquis Hartington has announced that the government has received official advices confirming the report that another sortie against El Mahdi had been made by the garrison of Kassala, resulting in the defeat of the garrison and the loss of twenty-eight officers and 632 men.

Official advices state that the sortie by the garrison at Kassala occurred the 2d of February.

According to advices from Masowah the garrison at Kassala is reduced to an effective force of 600 men. The town is closely besieged and the garrison is short of ammunition. The Egyptian troops are discontented. The government at Cairo has abandoned all hope of relieving the town.

A dispatch has been received by the government from Wolseley, asking extension past the cataracts of the Nile railway.

Korti, March 2—General Wolseley has ordered General Brackenbury to return to Korti forthwith, and not proceed on his march to Abu Hamed.

The mudir of Dongola suspects the vakeel of Dagivet of neglecting to pursue and attack the rebels.

Zorab Bey is organizing a native force for the purpose of dispersing the maranders between Howevatt and Gakdul.

Health, Wealth and Happiness

Are more intimately connected with a sound stomach and good condition of the blood than most people suppose. Thin blood means weakness, languor and misery. A dyspeptic stomach means all the horrors you can think of. Brown's Iron Bitters means enriched blood, good digestion, healthy appetite, sweet sleep and vigorous strength. Mr. Henry Hallam, South 17th street, St. Louis, says, "Brown's Iron Bitters relieved me of dyspepsia, purified my blood, and gave me an appetite." Thousands of others testify in the same way.

The Chinese government intends making the expulsion of Chinese from Eureka, Cal., an international matter, and will claim indemnity from the United States. The same threat was made in October, 1871, when eighteen Chinamen were hanged by a mob in Los Angeles for rioting and killing a special constable, but the threat was never carried into execution.

Scott's Emulsion of Pure Cod Liver Oil, with Hypophosphites.

Its Use in Lung Troubles.—Dr. HIRAM CADORETTO, of Jacksonville, Fla., says: "I have for the last ten months prescribed your Emulsion, to patients suffering from lung troubles, and they seem to be greatly benefited by its use."

Texas is paying $90,000 a year in pensions to 600 survivors of Sam Houston's command in the war of 1835-7. New applications are coming in all the time. Fourteen were received in one day recently, and the legislature is trying to repeal the law on the ground that one-half or two-thirds of the claims now being paid are fraudulent.

Aches and pains are all cured readily by the outward application of St. Jacobs Oil.

All in the Line of Nature.

There is nothing in the line of magic or mystery about that wonderful and popular medicine, Parker's Tonic. It is simply the best and most scientific combination possible of the essential principles of those vegetable curatives which act powerfully and directly on the stomach, liver, kidneys and blood. But there neither is, nor will be, any successful imitation of it. It is all the time curing those who had despaired of ever getting well. For yourself, your wife and children.
