TORPID BOWELS, DISORDERED LIVER, and MALARIA.
From these sources arise three-fourths of the diseases of the human race. These symptoms indicate their existence: Loss of Appetite, Bowels constive, Sick Headache, fullness after eating, aversion to exertion of body or mind, Eructation of food, Irritability of temper, Nervousness, A feeling of having neglected some duty, Dizziness, Fluttering at the Heart, Dots before the eyes, highly colored urine, CONSTIPATION, and demand the use of a remedy that acts directly on the Liver. As a Liver medicine TUTT'S PILLS have no equal. Their action on the Kidneys and Skin is also prompt; removing all impurities through these three "scavengers of the system," producing appetite, sound digestion, regular stools, a clear skin and a vigorous body. TUTT'S PILLS cause no nausea or griping nor interfere with daily work and are a perfect

WATKINSON IN ARMS.

LOUISVILLE, March 17.—Of the defeat of Phil Thompson and the appointment of Miller for commissioner of internal revenue, Mr. Watkinson says in this morning's Courier-Journal:

We are not prepared to accept the defeat of Phil Thompson as a declaration of war by the president upon his friends of revenue reform, nor the appointment of Miller of West Virginia, as evidence that it is the purpose of the administration to set itself against internal revenue taxes which pay more than one-half of the expenses of the government, and without which there could be no adequate reduction of custom house duties. Personally and locally, we very much regret the decision, but we trust that the apprehension of those who have a right to a fair interpretation and execution of the internal revenue laws and have regarded West Virginia as hostile to them and their interests, will be disappointed. The question is an economic one, and we shall be slow to believe that it will be treated by the president and his advisors in a narrow spirit. It will be given out, of course, that this is a triumph of Mr. Randall over Mr. Carlisle. That, however, will depend altogether upon future developments. If the president allies himself to Mr. Randall he will do it openly and not clandestinely. If he does, it will involve a hopeless split of the party and a new array of political forces. We want no such conflict, and shall do all in our power to avoid it. But if, against the protest of an overwhelming majority of the Democrats, it should come to pass, the advocates of a sound and honest revenue system will not be found unequal to it. In affairs of this sort it is best to have no concealments. Dangers are oftentimes avoided by going out to meet them. The president might have evaded the appointment of a third party, neutral or he may consider, and he may be right in considering that there is no issue at all. We are inclined to think there is; and that it is not encouraging to the friends of the real revenue reform, but we shall wait with equanimity the course of events.

EXCITEMENT OVER A RUMOR.

NEW YORK, March 17.—4 A. M.—The newspaper world is in commotion this morning over a report of the death of General Grant. Reporters are flying in all directions, rushing to the residence of General Grant and his several physicians, while the telegraph is busy bearing messages to the same place and people. General Grant's home is fully half an hour's quick drive from the nearest newspaper office, and verification is necessarily slow.

Dr. Fordyce Barker telegraphs as follows:
MARCH 17, 4 A. M.—To William Henry Smith, manager of the Associated Press: I have not heard anything of the kind. (The rumor of the death of General Grant.) I saw the general at 2 yesterday.

FORDYCE BARKER.
All the New York papers are ready to issue extra editions, should the report prove true.

NEW YORK, March 16.—General Grant passed a bad night, slept none and is not quite so well to-day.

After visiting General Grant Dr. Douglas returned to his office at midnight, an hour later than usual. He stated that he had remained at the general's house until the patient had gone to sleep. The doctor said: "General Grant did not sleep at all Sunday night. He slept this afternoon. Tonight he was bright and chatted with friends. His pulse is good; his temperature is 99.2."

A Joke on Ex-Senator Gwin.

NEW YORK, March 17.—The Tribune says: Ex-Senator Gwin arrived at the hotel recently from Washington. A reporter heard him say, as the clerk offered him a pen with which to register: "No, I won't register. If I do, I'll have a dozen newspaper fellows running after me in the morning." The reporter sent the ex-senator's name where it would be announced among the hotel arrivals next morning in all the papers, and then took pains to keep all the newspaper men from going to see the Californian. If Gwin sees this he will know for the first time why he was not considered of enough importance to have a dozen newspaper fellows running after him.

"It Was Very Disagreeable."
This is what the hunter said on returning from a night spent in storm and darkness amid the growls of bears, the howls of wolves and the expected approach of serpents, the combination of horrors known as dyspepsia is even more disagreeable than all this. Get rid of it by taking Brown's Iron Bitters, as Mr. J. E. Gilky, of Hamilton, Texas, did. He says, "I used Brown's Iron Bitters for dyspepsia, and am greatly benefited."

With the sunflower stalks produced on one acre of land, a Minnesota farmer reports he can "keep one store going" for six months. The seed produced is fed to fowls, which pays for all the work of cultivation.

That Hacking Cough can be so quickly cured by Shiloh's Cure. We guarantee it. Sold by W. E. Dement.

SECRETARY WHITNEY INTERVIEWED.

NEW YORK, March 16.—The Herald says: A reporter asked Secretary Whitney if the Central American troubles had caused the order just issued for re-enforcement of our squadron in these waters. The secretary replied:

"We wish to be prepared for any difficulty that may arise; that is to say, to take care of the interests of citizens of the United States. The Shenandoah and Wachusett were ordered from New Orleans for this purpose. Three other vessels belonging to the north Atlantic squadron, the Sinaloa, the Galea and the Porcharian, are already in South American waters."

"Do you contemplate sending any vessels to the Pacific side?"
"Nothing has been said about it."

THREE BAD MEN KILLED.

SPRINGFIELD, N. M., March 16.—A desperate encounter between officers and outlaws occurred here to-day. Last Sunday a noted desperado named Bill Todd was arrested here and lodged in jail. He immediately telegraphed the fact of his arrest to Dick Rogers, leader of one of the most desperate gangs of outlaws in the whole southwest. This morning Rogers appeared with a number of followers, and went to the county jail where Todd was confined and attempted his rescue.

Officers opened fire from within, to which the outlaws replied, and a desperate battle ensued. The attacking party finally withdrew, leaving three of their party, Dick Rogers, Ed King and "Red River Tom," dead in the street. The remnant of the party hastily left town to summon reinforcements. They are hourly expected to reappear. The greatest excitement prevails. Citizens of Springfield have appealed for protection to the district commander, who promptly ordered troops stationed at Fort Union to move quickly to the scene of action.

SANTA FE, March 16.—The latest from Springfield is to the effect that fifty men are surrounding the jail, determined to mob the officers who have taken refuge inside. Soldiers from Fort Union are momentarily expected and may prevent further trouble. Company H, second regiment of territorial militia, at Santa Fe, is in readiness to move on a moment's notice.

12.45 A. M. (17th).—Regulars from Fort Union arrived at midnight. Cowboys are flocking into town, but the presence of the troops has produced a wholesome effect on the lawless element, and no further trouble is anticipated.

PARIS, March 16.—Telegrams from Saigon report that the revolt in Cochinchina is spreading. A plot has been discovered to set fire to Saigon, in order to give an opportunity for the irruption of 3000 Annamites. The Annamites captured Ocmou, seven miles from Saigon, and massacred European residents, burning alive a native prefect and wife. The northern provinces are held by insurgents, who massacre native adherents of the French. The crews of men-of-war at Saigon landed to defend the town, and foreign residents are under arms.

Lieut. Schwatka thinks that the day is not far distant when a man may take a ride from Minneapolis to the mouth of the Yukon river in a Pullman sleeper. If it should be in the winter season he may pass over Behring's straits on the ice in the same sleeper and thence extend his excursion to St. Petersburg. The track across the straits will connect with a line of railroad now in process of construction by the Russians to the mouth of the Amoor river, whence it might easily be extended to the straits to connect with the American system at that point. In the classic language of the street, this will be a "big thing on ice."

Mr. George W. Harris, Hagerstown, Maryland, had suffered for some time with toothache and facial neuralgia and tried St. Jacobs Oil. "It gave me instantaneous relief," he says, "and I consider it a wonderful remedy."

A jury at Seattle the other day was, contrary to all precedent composed of thirteen persons, the extra one being a babe in its mother's arms.

Scott's Emulsion of Pure Cod Liver Oil with Hypophosphites.
