BROWN'S IRON BITTERS
—THE BEST TONIC.
This medicine, combining Iron with pure vegetable tonics, quickly and completely cures Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Weakness, Insane Head, Malaria, Chills and Fevers, and Neuritis.
It is an invaluable remedy for Diseases of the Kidneys and Liver.
It is invaluable for Diseases peculiar to Women, and all who lead sedentary lives. It does not injure the teeth, cause headache or produce constipation—other Iron medicines do. It enriches and purifies the blood, stimulates the appetite, aids the assimilation of food, relieves Heartburn and Belching, and strengthens the muscles and nerves.
For Intermittent Fevers, Lassitude, Lack of Energy, &c., it has no equal.
The genuine has above trade mark and colored red lines on wrapper. Take no other.

A RUSH ON THE RESERVATION.
Lively Times on the Opening of the Winnebago and Sioux Lands.

THE NARROW GAUGE LEASE.
Judgment Rendered against the O. R. & N. Co. for $68,131.

Des Moines, Iowa, March 19. Deputy United States Marshal Hopkins and his assistant have returned to this city from the Winnebago and Sioux reservation, whither they went to look up claims and hunt criminals. They relate a remarkable experience with the rush of people, who went there by the hundreds to claim these lands as soon as the president attached his signature to the document which opened these lands for settlement. The reservation, he says, comprises the best land in Dakota, having been selected by the Indian agents years ago. They are on the east side of the Missouri river, and those portions opened for settlement are bounded on the north by Pierre, and on the south by Chamberlain. The area of the district opened for settlement includes twenty-six townships, with thirty-six miles to each township, and 640 acres in a mile. According to the homestead law, every head of a family, whether an able-bodied man or a servant girl, and every male over 21 years of age, has a right to pre-empt 160 acres of land. Five minutes after the time, on Friday afternoon, when president Arthur signed the executive order opening the lands to settlement, the fact was known in Chamberlain, and as soon as one man crossed the reservation line with a load of lumber thousands of others in waiting followed him. All the hired girls in the hotels were in the front ranks. Not a barber-shop was open. Nearly all the business men, except the hotel and saloon keepers, were in the anxious and excited crowd. Teams and wagons were employed to haul settlers at $25 per day in advance. Those who preferred lower lots employed a lawyer, who laid out a town site opposite Chamberlain. During Friday night the erection of 100 houses was commenced, and the town is being rapidly built. Many of the houses are already occupied by families. The prospect is that much litigation and bloodshed will be the result of the excitement. The agent of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul railroad filed warrants in the name of his company to a large portion of the land contained in the reservations and now settled upon. The Indians are encouraged by the Indian agents, who in many instances drive settlers away. Until a registration office is open on the reservation the settlers will not leave their claims, fearing that they would be jumped if they did so. The Indian agents refuse to register until they receive formal notice from the government that the land has been thrown open to settlement. In many cases the settlers were unable to find the corners of the sections, and when surveys were made it was found, in many cases, that cabins some distance apart were really on the same section. Then the question arose who settled here first, and the man who displayed the most formidable Winchester rifle or navy revolver generally induced the other fellow to believe that he did. The work of erecting shanties on the claims progresses night and day. Several law suits have been entered where more than one have taken possession. People from abroad did not seem to anticipate the rush, for those who arrived at Chamberlain Wednesday found that every inch of the land had been pre-empted. The trains going to Chamberlain consisted of several sleepers and passenger coaches, jammed full of poor fellows who labored under the delusion that they had only to visit the reservation and stay on it over night to acquire possession of 160 acres. Agent Gassman received orders from the interior department not to allow the Indians to interfere with the settlers, but there is bad blood existing and trouble is feared at any time.

The O. R. & N.

New York, March 18.—The desirability of giving up the present management is again being actively discussed by Oregon Railway and Navigation stockholders in Boston. Two suggestions find supporters. One is that the road be leased to the Northern Pacific alone; the other that it be leased to the Northern Pacific and the Union Pacific jointly. Those actively favoring the dual lease by the Northern and Union Pacific include many of the O. R. & N. directors; also Wm. Endicott, holder of 25,000 shares of Oregon Railway and Navigation. President Adams is reported favorable to the arrangement. Smaller Boston holders of Oregon Railway and Navigation argue that the Union Pacific should be included in the arrangement, because one Boston property should help another wherever possible, in order to further the general interests of the city.

"Was ever woman in this humor wood? Was ever woman in this humor wood?"

Of course not. Don't try to make love to a woman who is in all out of sorts with dyspepsia or nervous prostration. First make her a present of a bottle of Brown's Iron Bitters. Then when her digestive apparatus is in order, and her nerves tuned up, go and see her. Mrs. Seal, of Clinton, La., says, "My health has been greatly improved by using Brown's Iron Bitters." It cures dyspepsia, indigestion, etc.

A fireman, Mr. Samuel W. Dixon, writes from Baraboo Station, C. & N. W. Railway, Wisconsin: "I was thrown to the ground, hurting my back badly. By the use of St. Jacobs Oil I was cured and was able to go to work. I have been hurt a great deal, but this remedy takes the lead of all I have ever used. I will always be an advocate of it."

It cost $43,000 to repair the damage by the dynamite explosion in the parliament buildings at London, and $190,000 was expended during the year upon extra police for that city.
