BRITISH EMIGRATION

In seventy years, from 1815 to 1884. the total number of persons who have left this country for the purpose of settling abroad, is 10,748,893. Of this number 7,063,730 found a home in the United States, 1,862,629 in British North America, 1,483,187 in Australasia, and the destination of the rest is not stated. The large number mentioned includes persons of all na-tionalities. Since 1853 the national-ity has in almost all the cases been registered. In thirty-two years the number of emigrants of British and Irish origin is given as 5,648,096, of whom about two-thirds 3,730,454 have gone to the United States, 751, ing white hair, walked into the barbershop at Willard's to-day, and pocosely asked: "Do you shave Mugwumps here?" How He Got a Position.

"I applied for a position in a banking house in Wall street six months ago, and although I proved my competency, they would not take me. I had been down on my luck and looked old and shabby. An idea struck me I got my a new growth of hair with Parker's Hair Balsam, raised a decent suit of clothes, applied again, and they took me in a minute." So writes a clerk with $2.000 salary. The moral is plain. Parker's Hair Balsam gives a person a new face

A Work of Art. A Work of Art.

One of the neafest and most elaborately, finished Writing Desks ever seen on this coast can be seen on exhibition in the window of the cigar store, next to Foster's Exchange, on Water street in this city. The desk was made by Mr. C. Constantine of this city and certainly reflects great credit on the skill, taste and workmanship of the manufacturer. The desk is about fifty-two inches high by two feet in width and is made out of various woods such as oak, ash, butternut, walnut and white holly; they were first sawed out in pleces and so cut in beautiful designs as to resemble line bracket work. ternut, wainut and white holly; they were first sawed out in pieces and so cut in beautiful designs as to resemble fine bracket work. The top or cover of the cesk is inlaid with cardinal and blue velvet. At the back on either side of a square recess are two landsomely carved apartments with folding doors. In the desk part are a number of pigeon indestor papers, envelopes, etc., this is surmounted with beautiful bracket work, and on the top of each side is a white door, handsomely carved; underneath is a semi-circle, also carved in rich designs, inlaid with gilt work. The sides are inlaid with gilt work. The sides are inlaid with crimson velvet, the bracket work being faid over it in different kinds of rich woods, the whole being surmounted with gold, mouldings. A brief description of this wonderful invention conveys no idea of its elegance and finish, one must see it to appreciate it. The desk will be raffled off and persons destrous of procuring a handsome and useful ornancent for the home office should not lose the opportunity to take a chance. Mr. Constantine can be found at the store any time to show those destrous of seeing the desk. The raffle will take place at 3 o clock April 14th.
