BROWN'S IRON BITTERS
 THE BEST TONIC.
 It is an unrivaled remedy for Diseases of the Kidneys and Liver.
 It is invaluable for Diseases peculiar to Women, and all who lead sedentary lives. It does not injure the teeth, cause headache, or produce constipation—other Iron medicines do. It enriches and purifies the blood, stimulates the appetite, aids the assimilation of food, relieves Heartburn and Belching, and strengthens the muscles and nerves.
 For Intermittent Fevers, Lassitude, Lack of Energy, &c., it has no equal.
 The genuine has above trade mark and crossed red lines on wrapper. Take no other name by BROWN'S CHEMICAL CO., BALTIMORE, MD. EDKINGTON, WOODARD & CO., Portland, Or. WHOLESALE AGENTS.

TUTT'S PILLS
 TORPID BOWELS, DISORDERED LIVER, and MALARIA.
 From these sources arise three-fourths of the diseases of the human race. These symptoms indicate their existence: Loss of Appetite, Bowels costive, Sick Headache, fullness after eating, aversion to exertion of body or mind, Erection of food, Irritability of Temper, Low spirits, A feeling of having neglected some duty, Dizziness, Fluttering at the Heart, Dots before the eyes, highly colored Urine, CONSTIPATION, and demand the use of a remedy that acts directly on the Liver. As a Liver medicine, TUTT'S PILLS have no equal. Their action on the Kidneys and Skin is also prompt; removing all impurities through these three "scavengers of the system," producing appetite, sound digestion, regular stools, a clear skin and a vigorous body. TUTT'S PILLS cause no nausea or griping nor interfere with daily work and are a perfect ANTIDOTE TO MALARIA.
 Sold every where. Office 44 Murray St., N. Y.
TUTT'S HAIR DYE.
 GRAY HAIR OR WHISKERS changed instantly to a Glossy Black by a single application of this DYE. Sold by Druggists, or sent by express on receipt of 10 Cents. 44 Murray Street, New York.

SPRUCE LIMES.
 He who fears a second failure is a weak man.
 Look to your vices and your virtues will shine of themselves.
 Human nature never evades anything it can excel or even equal.
 As scarce as virtue is, I yet believe that the supply exceeds the demand.
 It is bad enough to be a fool, but it is worse to be a fool and not realize it.
 I believe that if flattery really contained no self-praise it would cease to exist.
 Licentiousness never seems to realize what a mean infringement it is upon decency.
 Truth flourishes only with proper care, but villainy will survive under all circumstances.
 No matter how gray and venerable vice may get, it will always be pretty active for its age.
 Knowing when and how to take advantage of rare occasions is really the brains of business.
 All that can be defined in this world is commonplace; all that is great is a profound mystery.
 It is so easy and natural to do wrong that I often wonder there are any who take the trouble to do right.
 Many people suffer more in the contemplation of others' happiness than in the thoughts of their own misery.
 I was never yet treated so well by the world in general but I could find words to express my obligations.
 Economy is wealth. Stick to it, old man, and when you die you will have stamps for your heirs to fight about.
 Learn how to grab and let your grip shift for itself. If your grabbing propensity is active your grip will be loyal.
 To many, every pound of kindness weighs but sixteen ounces, while every ounce of meanness weighs sixteen pounds.
 A dog's bark is no guarantee of his value. What a man says is no proof of his worth or worthlessness, but his actions are.
 Life is full of chances. That is what gives it a strawberry flavor. All like to chance it because every one thinks he will win.
 I believe that every act of kindness performed by you in this life is but another step in the stairway that leads up to happiness.
 The value to be derived by returning good for evil has been preached more and practiced less than any other of the great virtues.
 No difference has yet been discovered by me between the person who willfully does a wrong act and one who does not condemn it.
 Money is the motive power of the world, but it takes square dealing to corner patronage. Faste that where the rain can't get at it, young man.
 There are plenty of people who willingly point out the proper course in life for others to pursue that cannot keep in the same rat themselves.
 The height of some men's ambition is to have their old age crowned with honor; the hobby of others is a boiled shirt and a gold-headed cane.
 If people would honestly follow the route that conscience indicates, there would be no occasion for our churches to furnish annual "guide books."
 The ignorant are too often content with what little they do know, but no really learned person is more than half satisfied with the knowledge that he possesses.
 Often are good results the apparent outcome of accident. Possibly they are, but I favor the idea of their being brought about by much thought and more effort.
 I have never met a young man that was any the worse for believing in religion and its benefits, but I have seen plenty of them that would appear more sensible by respecting it.
 Sin is hard to rub out. Persons who indulge in it find it difficult to wipe out with the sponge of simple repentance, and they generally go up on the market as "damaged goods."
 Bad, but not hopeless.
 When you have pain in your head, lameness in your side, distress in your back, shortness of breath, and frequent spells of coughing, it seems pretty bad, does it not? Many physicians would give up such a case as beyond restoration. But Mrs. Nettie Hastings of Cambridge, Mass., who was thus afflicted, took Brown's Iron Bitters and gratefully writes that the Prince of Tonics completely restored her to health. It will restore you, too.

SOCIETY FALSEHOODS.
 Person Bangle became disgusted with the untruthfulness of mankind, and preached a vigorous sermon in denunciation of society falsehood. He declared that lies told out of politeness were just as wicked as those told with the deliberate intention of deceiving. In fact, these society lies get folks in the habit of lying, and they readily pick up the other kind. The sermon made a great impression. Many of the congregation resolved to reform. Coming out of the church, Deacon Jones said to Judge Badger, who sits in front of him:
 "Judge, I hope you didn't mind my putting my feet under your pew?"
 The judge was about to reply, "Oh, certainly not," but he thought of the sermon, and answered:
 "I did, though; your old hoofs took up all the room, and were a fearful nuisance."
 "Well," said the deacon, "the hair oil you use smells so, it nearly forced us to leave the pew."
 They glared at each other, and just then Mrs. Badger and Miss Jenkins came along. Miss Jenkins had asked, "How do you like my new bonnet?"
 "Oh, I thought it just love," replied Mrs. B., and then she thought of the sermon and continued, "No, I didn't like it. It is a horrid thing, I wouldn't be seen with it." And Miss Jenkins got mad and replied, "Well, if I were you, I'd not wear dirty stockings to church; and if I did, I'd keep them out of sight." While these honest conversations were going on, Mrs. Smith had said to the next door neighbor, Mr. Murray, "I hope the crying of our baby last night didn't disturb you?" And Murray replied, "No, that is—yes, I wanted to brain the brat." And then Mrs. Smith called him a wretch, and wept.
 Then the clergyman came out and asked young Symonds how he liked the sermon. Symonds said, "It was a grand set—no, no, no, it was blamed nonsense."
 "Sir," said the parson, and he drew himself up indignantly. Just then Smith and Murray, after telling each other some truth, clinched, and Deacon Jones was trying to hold Miss Jenkins from scratching Mrs. Badger. It took tremendous efforts to stop the rows and prevent a scandal, and as it was, everybody went away mad with everybody else. The parson went home and meditated in a gloomy state of mind for three hours, and finally concluded that society lying was wicked; but he wouldn't preach against it again. It's altogether too handy a sin to be given up.

THE CALIFORNIA AND OREGON.
 The San Francisco Post says: The question of the prompt completion of the California and Oregon line, from Delta to the Oregon state line, depends materially upon the rapidity with which the new issue of bonds by the Central Pacific railroad is taken up. At present there is a depression in railroad securities, and the general public are somewhat inclined to abstain from investing in them. The probable result, so far as present indications go, will be that little railroad building will be done this year. The road from Delta to the line is through a very difficult and mountainous country, and will require a large force of men, and a question arises whether the men qualified for the work can be obtained in sufficient force this season. When once commenced, the road could be probably carried through in two seasons, if favorable ones. It may be commenced this year. What action may be taken is not yet known.

How He Got a Position.
 "I applied for a position in a banking house in Wall street six months ago, and although I proved my competency, they would not take me. I had been down on my luck and looked old and shabby. An idea struck me I got up a new growth of hair with Parker's Hair Balsam, raised a decent suit of clothes, applied again, and they took me in a minute." So writes a clerk with $2,000 salary. The moral is plain. Parker's Hair Balsam gives a person a new face.
