SUCCEEDED TOO WELL.

"Now, Henry," said the bride, "I want you to understand distinctly that I do not wish to be taken for a bride."

"I don't believe I can pass for an old married man. I am so fond of you that I am bound to show it."

"No, you mustn't. It's easy enough. And I insist that you behave just like all old married men do. Do you hear?"

"Well, darling, I'll try, but I know I shall not succeed."

The first evening of their arrival the bride retired to her chamber and the groom fell in with a poker party.

with whom he sat playing cards until four o'clock in the morning. His wife spent the weary hours waiting.

At last he turned up and met the grief-stricken wife with the hilarious question: "Well, ain't I doing the old married man like a daisy?"

She never referred to the subject again, and everybody knew after that that they had just been married.—San Francisco Chronicle.

A mathematical question. A gentleman while crossing the Brooklyn bridge met a beggar to whom he gave fifteen cents. He soon met another to whom he gave ten cents.

What time of day was it? Answer—A quarter to two.

The islands of Madeira are without any wheeled vehicles.

In the case of her mother, a great sufferer from pain, writes Mrs. Clara E. Park, Chesterville, Franklin Co., Maine, the effects of St. Jacobs Oil have been truly wonderful.

Experiments prove that about 30 per cent. of mankind can be subjected to mesmeric influences.

"I Don't Feel Like Work." It makes no difference what business you are engaged in: whether you are a preacher, a merchant, a mechanic, a lawyer or a common laborer, you can't do your work well while you are half sick.

Thousands try to, but all in vain. How much better to keep your organs in good order by taking Parker's Tonic when you feel "a little out of sorts." It would be money in your pocket.

One hour of good, rejoicing health is worth a dozen hours full of languor and pain.

The cost of each saloon in the city of Indianapolis last year was $153, and the license only $52.

Syrup of Figs. Nature's own true Laxative. Pleasant to the palate, acceptable to the stomach, harmless in its nature, painless in its action.

A Work of Art. One of the neatest and most elaborately finished Writing Desks ever seen on this coast can be seen on exhibition in the window of the cigar store, n. to Foster's Exchange, on Water street in this city.

The desk was made by Mr. C. Constantine of this city and carries a great credit—as the skill, taste and workmanship of the manufacturer.

The desk is about fifty-two inches high by thirty inches wide and made out of various woods such as oak, ash, butternut, walnut and white holly; they were carefully sanded in pieces and set in beautiful designs to resemble fine bracket work.

The top cover of the desk is inlaid with cardinal and blue velvet. At the back on either side are two drawers, one of which is surmounted with beautiful bracket work, and on the top of each side is a white door, handsomely carved; underneath is a semi-circle, also carved, in design, inlaid with gilt work.

The sides are inlaid with crimson velvet, the bracket work being laid over it in different kinds of woods, the whole being surmounted with gold mouldings. A brief description of this wonderful invention conveys no idea of its elegance and finish, one must see it to appreciate it.

The desk will be raffled off and persons desirous of procuring a handsome and useful ornament for the home, office or shop, will lose the opportunity to take a chance. Mr. Constantine can be found at the store any time, or those desirous of seeing the desk, the raffle will take place at 5 o'clock April 5th.
