of the principal industries on the New Jersey coast. The experiment made last fall at Cape May proved so successful that the facilities were greatly increased and other porpoise fisheries will be established in both Cape May and Atlantic counties. At first porpoises were caught for the skin and blubber alone, the carcasses being thrown away or in a few instances used as fertilizers. From the blubber is extracted a very fine oil, while the skin makes a superior quality of leather. Some time last fall it was dicovered that porpoise flesh was savory to the taste, and it acon became popular as an article of flood and was in great demand. The juicy red meat, which is taken from beneath a layer of fat next to the skin, is pronounced by epicares to be more palatable than any porter house steak ever cooked. In appearance it resembles beef, but is more solid and flner grain and is very tender. Some persons say that it tastes like venison, and that there is nothing of the fishy taste about it. Last fall New York fish dealers offered two cents per pound for the carcasses, but they will command a much higher figure next summer.

Mrs. Caliste Ann Phelps, of Oxford, Blood, Assists Digestion, Prevents Fevers. Mrs. Caliste Ann Phelps, of Oxford, N. H., who has been drawing a pension as the widow of Geo. W. Phelps, a soldier of the rebellion, is under arrest for fraud. In January, 1867, she married George Phelps, the father of her first husband, and has lived with him ever since, continuing to draw her pension. Her defense is that she heard under the New Hampthan and the surround of the New Hampthan and the surround of the New Hampthan and the New Hampt shire law her marriage with her first husband's father was invalid.

Two Dangerous Seasons.

Spring and fall are times when so many people get sick. The changes in the weather are severe on feeble persons, and even those naturally strong are apt, as they say, "to be feeling miserable," Then they are just in condition to be struck down with some kind of fever. A bottle or two of Parker's Tonic will invigorate the digestion, pat the liver, kidneys and blood in perfect order, and prevent more serious attacks. Why suffer, and perhaps die, when so simple a medicine will save you. Good for both sexes and all ages.

The roads between Salt Lake City and Snake river are represented as being lined with emigrant wagons. Some are going to settle in Idaho, others in Montana and in Washington territory and Oregon.
