FEAR THAT RUSSIA WILL CUT THE CABLES.

open cable communication in the event of war is the absorbing subject of discussion in telegraphic circles just now. It is bored that the property of the communication of the communication of the property of the communication of the commu of discussion in telegraphic circles just now. It is hoped that Russia will abstain from cable cutting, as owing to the free trade system that prevails in international telegraphy Russia has an equal right with England to the use of all the cables. There is, moreover, no danger of Russia's dispatches being intelligible to her enemies, as the key of the Russian cipher, which is a mysterious combination of letters and figures in groups of fives has never been discovered. England would, of course, be ered. England would, of course, be as eager as the companies themselves to keep the cables inviolate, for any obstruction of her lines of communication with her eastern colonies would seriously cripple her move-ments. It is believed in all events that Russia will respect the Western Union and Bennett-Mackay line of cables, on account of their purely American ownership. It is now learned that Russian cruisers have been stationed for some time past at convenient points in the Pacific ocean in readiness, in case of war, to cut the ocean cables connecting England with China, India and Australia. John Pender, M. P., chairman of the Eastern and Eastern Extension telegraph companies, has implored the government to protect the cables of those companies, which have the mo-nopoly of the cable business with the Orient, and to repair them in case of damage caused by acts of war. The government has replied that it will do its best to protect the property of the companies, as of all English-

Will McDonald, 2542 Dearborn St.

Will McDonald, 2542 Dearborn, St., Chicago, gratefully acknowledges a cure of Ecrema or Salt Rheum on head, neck, fare, arms, and legs for seventeen years; not able to walk except on his hands and knees for one year; not able to help himself for eight years; tited hundreds of remedies; doctors pronounced his case hoteless; permanently cured by Curicura Resouvent (blood partier) internally, and Curicura and Curicura Soap (the great skin cures) externally.

Chas. Houghton. Fsq. lawyer, 28 State St., Boston, reports a case of Eczema under his observation for ten years, which covered the patient's body and limbs, and to which all known methods of treatment had been amplied without benefit, which was completely cared solely by the CUTICURA BEMEDIES, beaving a crean and healthy skin.

F. H. Drake, Esq., Detroit, Mich., suffered untold tortures from Eczema, which appeared on his hands, head and face, and nearly destroyed his eyes. After the most careful dectoring and a consultation of physicians failed to relieve him, he used the CUTICELA REMEDISS, and was cured, and has remained so to date.

Mr. John Thiel, Wilkesbarre, Pa, writes: 'I have suffered from salt lineam for over eight years, at times so bad that I could not attend to my business for weeks at a time. Three boxes of CUTTCURA and four bottles RESOLVENT have entirely cured me of this dreadful disease."
