Pending the arrival of Sir Peter Lumsden in England peace will probably prevail. The Russians, holding Pul-i-Khatum on one road and Penideh on the other, can take Herat when they please, but common prudence will dictate their forbearance at the present delicate crisis. They have indeed no object to gain by further aggressions at present, un-less they are prepared and deem the time judicious to cut their way to the

It is just possible that they are not aiming at the subversion of British power in India so much as objective points nearer home. Purely Vegetable Compound, that Russian of modern times—a man who, if he had lived, would have proved himself not only a first-class general, but a worthy successor of Pozzo di Borgo and Nesselrode—we mean General Skobeless—pointed out years ago that a Russian advance upon India was imperative, not that the Muscovites proposed to wrest Hindostan from the English, but that they needed to get a whip to crack over England's head when the next occasion occurred to seize Constantinople. With the key of India is their possession they could say to DR. SANFORD'S LIVER INVIGORATOR.

The threat would not be idle; and rather than risk an Indian uprising, backed by the power of Russia, the chances are that England would let Constantinople fall into Russian hands and abandon "the unspeakable Turk" to his fate.

STAR MARKET.

Originally an inland power with no maritime outlet, Russia under Peter the Great sought to supply the defect of the empire by creating St. Petersburg. But even before his death it became apparent that a seaport which was half the year closed by ice would not answer the purpose. Then the Russian mind turned to Constantinople, and never for one single instant since has it flinched in its purpose to acquire it. Thrice in this century it has nearly succeeded in securing the prize, and twice of the thrice its aim prize, and twice of the thrice its aim has been defeated by Great Britain. What more natural then that it should have sought out the weak spot in the joints of the armor of this implacable foe and prepared itself when the next chance occurs to place it under the bonds to keep peace?

There is a sort of pallid, chalky complexion which the novelists call a "washed-out complexion." It is ghastly enough, and no mistake. # ECZEMA

And Every Species of Itch Ing and Burning Diseases Positively Cured.

ECZEMA, or Sait kileum, with its agonizing litching and burning, instantly relieved by a warm bath with CUTICURA SOAP, and a single application of CUTICURA, the great skin Cure. This repeated Gaily, with two or three doses of CUTICURA KESOLVENT, the New Blood Purifier, to keep the blood cool, the perspiration pure and and unirritating, the bowels open, the liver and kidneys active, will speedily cure Eczema, Tetter, Ringworm, Psoriasis, Lichen Pruritus, Seal Head. Dandruff, and every species of Itching, Sealy, and Fimply Humors of the Sealp and Skin, when the best physicians and all known remedies fail.

Will McDonald, 2542 Dearborn St.,

Will McDonald, 2542 Dearborn St., Chicago, gratefully acknowledges a cure of Eczema or Sait Rheum on head, neck, face, arms, and legs for seventeen years; not able to walk except on his hands and knees for one year; not able to help himself for eight years; tried hundreds of remedies; doctors pronounced his case hopeless: permanently cured by CCTICURA RESOLVENT (blood purifier) internally, and CUTICURA and CUTICURA SOAP (the great skin cures) externally.

Chas. Houghton, Esq., lawyer, 25 State St., Boston, reports a case of Eczema under his observation for ten years, which covered the patient's body and limbs, and to which all known methods of treatment had been applied without benefit, which was completely cured solely by the CUTICURA REMEDIES, leaving a clean and healthy skin.

F. H. Drake, Esq., Detroit, Mich., suffered untold tortures from Eczema, which appeared on his hands, head and face, and nearly destroyed his eyes. After the most careful doctoring and a consultation of physicians failed to relieve him, he used the CUTICHA REMEDIES, and was cured, and has remained so to date.

Mr. John Thiel, Wilkesbarre, Pa., writes: "I have suffered from Salt Rheum for over-eight years, at times so bad that I could not attend to my business for weeks at a time. Three boxes of Curroura and four bottles Resolvers have entirely cured me of this dreadful disease."
