My friend, A. C. Beeson, of Winchester, Ind., was a few years ago, director of the state prison at Michigan City, Ind. To him, among others, came a convict not once, but often, complaining that he was an innocent man most unjustly held in confinement. To all these complain-ROYAL POWER ings Beeson had one unvarying con-solation. "Oh, yes," he would say, in his good-natured way, I know you are 3000 all right; you are an honest man; you should not be in here. But then just think of all the fellows outside who ought to be in here and ain't." And you know this used to comfort the poor innocent convict, and he'd go back to his cell contented as a martyr, and think over it all night and wonder in the morning why it didn't seem so satisfactory to him as it did the night before.—Bob Burdette.

Washed-Out Hair.

There is a sort of pallid, chalky complexion which the novelists cail a "washed-out complexion." It is ghastly enough, and no mistake. Washed-out, faded, discolored or particolored hair is almost as repulsive and melancholy. Parker's Hair Balsam will restore your hair to its original color, whatever it was; brown, auburn or black. Why wear moss on your head, when you may easily have lively, shinning hair.

Is It Not True?

There can be no argument as to the qualities essential to a perfect remedy for the ills arising from a disordered or inactive condition of the Liver, Stomach and Bowels. Everyone will admit that it should be perfectly safe for old and young of both sexes, at any and all times; that it should be acceptable both to the taste and the stomach; that it should never fail to act promptly and the stomach; and the stomach; thoroughly, yet painlessly, and it should give strength to those organs.
