AFGHAN BOUNDARY SETTLEMENT.

New York, June 1.—A special from London says: "The official declaration here of Russia's agreement to be satisfied, for the time being, with that she has seized caused little excitement. Nobody was surprised or more than passively interested by the statement, the essentials of which have been discussed for a fortnight past, that the fight was off. Russia has practically got all she wants, and is bound by no pledges for the future. General Komaroff has been exalted and honored beyond any Russian general of his generation, while Sir Peter Lumsden's call has been secured under conditions which, to the Asiatic mind at least, imply disgrace. The Afghans, Persians and perhaps in a degree the Indians too have been given a strikingly vivid object-lesson on the subject of England's timidity under pressure. If the czar is dissatisfied with the net result he must be difficult indeed to please. John Bull certainly is not pleased, but then he only half realizes it, and is entirely in the fog as to what to do about it. In playing a meretricious throat game in European politics a despotism has this immense advantage over a government by a parliament. The autocrat knows clearly what he wants, while the premier, who is chiefly anxious about the elections, does not. From the Russian side the game has been played for all it is worth, by a single resolute gamester who had nobody to please but himself. The English side was played solely with reference to presumed prejudices, ignorance or interests of 300 or 400 constituencies, most of which will be dominated in the next election by new and unlettered electors. Penjdeh is the price paid for the experiment, by a free and constitutional government to a conscienceless despotism.

THE NORTHWEST REBELLION.

WINNIPEG, June 1.—The steamer Northwest, en route to Pitt, came across James Grant and Charles Rossiter, in a canoe, sixty miles up the river. They left Pitt Thursday night with dispatches for Middleton, a fight between Strang's force and Big Bear's band having taken place that day. Rossiter informed your correspondent that Big Bear's location was discovered on Wednesday, and an advance was made the following morning. As the whole of Strang's troops had not yet arrived at Pitt he could only muster about 300 men, his force consisting of two companies of the Winnipeg light infantry, two companies of the Sixty-fifth battalion, Alberta mounted infantry, and Captain Steele's police scouts.

A march of ten miles down the river and three miles inland brought the troops to the Indian camp. The Redskins were entrenched just over the brow of a hill, and in order to reach them Strang was obliged to cross a marshy valley. While advancing the Indians commenced firing, and the troops were extended in skirmishing order. For three hours and a half a steady fire was kept up from both sides. The grenadiers did good service in driving the Indians from their quarters, but the number killed could not be ascertained.

Strang's loss was very small, only three men of the Sixty-fifth being wounded, Marquette, of No. 3 company fatally wounded, and two in No. 5 company.

The troops retired in good order to Pitt. The Sixty-fifth company came down the river in a scow, and went inland to the scene of the battle. Thirteen men were left behind to guard the provisions on board. After the fight the scow could not be found, and neither the men nor the scow have turned up since.

"Oh! Cast that Shadow from thy Brow." You can't do it if you have liver complaint or dyspepsia. The darkened countenance tells the story of inward commotion and woe. Clear your stomach, strengthen your digestion, regulate your liver, tone your nerves, and then away goes the shadow from your brow, and you are happy because you are well. Mrs. M. J. Alston, of Littleton, N. C., says, "I recommend Brown's Iron Bitters to the nervous and debilitated. It greatly benefited me."

While two boys were riding on horseback near Cottonwood, Idaho, last Thursday, lightning struck them, killing both horses, but doing slight injury to the boys.

D. RAFAEL ZALDIVAR.

President D. Rafael Zaldivar of San Salvador has been compelled to flee the country. It will be remembered that when General Barrios of Guatemala attempted to establish a dictatorship over the Central American republics the project was at first sanctioned by Zaldivar and Barrios accordingly made all preparations to force the other states to submit. At the last moment, however, Zaldivar withdrew his support and raised an army to oppose Barrios with the result of the total defeat of the Guatemalan forces and the death of Barrios upon the battlefield of Chalchuapala. No sooner, however, was Barrios out of the way than Zaldivar proposed a project similar to that of the dead dictator. To further this end he on April 21st, addressed the government of Guatemala, asking that five commissioners be appointed to meet at Santa Tecla on May 15th, 1885, to proclaim a union of the Central American republics. To this Guatemala would not accede, and the result of the scheme was that Zaldivar was compelled to flee. Don Rafael Zaldivar Lazo was born in 1834, and was by profession a physician. In 1860, however, he turned his attention to politics and was elected to the house of representatives and afterwards to the San Salvadorian Senate. In 1876 he was made president and was re-elected in 1880 and again in 1884. He is said to have been assisted greatly by the late General Barrios in his political advances. Like the dead dictator, Zaldivar said to be very wealthy, but with commendable foresight invested his money in foreign securities. Thus his property remains unaffected by his political reverses. Barrios had his wealth similarly invested and upon his death his widow was left with the neat sum of from seven to ten millions of dollars.

Praising a New Discovery.

The Mayor of Baltimore and every other leading municipal official have, in conjunction with the Governor of Maryland and other heads of the State Government, publicly endorsed by their Autograph signatures the certificate of the Health Commissioner of Baltimore, setting forth the facts that the harmful and frequently fatal results attending the use of cough mixtures containing opiates, narcotics or poisons are entirely overcome in the Red Star Cough Cure. They state that it happily supplants the objectionable and dangerous features of preparations heretofore relied upon, and which have often caused the death of children.

It is said on good authority that 500 laborers employed on the Southern Pacific railroad near Caliente, Kern county, will shortly be transferred to Delta, the present terminus of the California and Oregon, for the extension of that line.

Are You Tired of Being Sick?

We want to say a word to the men, women and girls who work in stores, offices and factories. There are hundreds of thousands of you in the country. Very few of you are well. You are shut up too much and exercise too little. In this way you get sick. Your blood is bad, your digestion poor, your head often aches, you don't feel like work. Your liver, stomach and kidneys are out of order. Parker's Tonic has cured hundreds of such cases. It is pure, sure and pleasant.

Fish are dying in large numbers in Sutterville lake, near Sacramento, and their death is attributed to an over-supply of food furnished in the shape of grasshoppers.

—Are you made miserable by Indigestion, Constipation, Dizziness, Loss of appetite, Yellow Skin? Shiloh's Vitalizer is a positive cure. For sale by W. E. Dement.

—For lame Back, Side or Chest, use Shiloh's Porous Plaster. Price 25 cents. For sale by W. E. Dement.
