ASTORIA ENGINE COMPANY NO. ONE.

At a meeting of Astoria Engine Company No. 1, last evening, it was Resolved, That the company do its part in receiving and entertaining the visiting firemen at the coming tournament, but will not compete in any of the races with Secretary. RESCUE ENGINE CO. NO. 2.

L. E. SELIO,

The following was handed in by W. E. Warren, secretary of No. 2, last evening for publication:

At a special meeting of Rescue Engine Co. No. 2, the following resolution was passed: Wheneas, It has been publicly stated that Engine Co. No. 1 of this city pro-poses to withdraw from the contests in the coming Firemen's Tournament, alleging as its excuse for so doing, that it will not be permitted to use No. 2's engine in the contests, and Whithers, said charge is untrue and only employed to furnish an excuse for not engaging in contests which it cannot enter with any hopes of success, therefore, be it Resolved, That for the purpose of con-vincing the public of the untruthfulness of the charges, and the real motive which prompts said company in withdrawing from said contests. We do hereby tender said company the use of our engine in all engine contests of the tournament, and we hereby invite said company to use said engine and compete for the prizes.
