that there are as many applicants for the smaller consulships and little commercial agencies as for some of the more important diplomatic posi-tions. There have been instances where native merchants of some such country as Eg; pt would bid against ea h other for subordinate commerc al agencies under the United States at the disposal of the consul general unto as nich as $10,000 has been given for a little place with scarcely any salary at al, simply because the position was an advantageous one in point of exemption from troublesome 1s just what its name implies; a laws, taxation, etc. One consul in Purely Vegetable Compound, that Asia is known to have made a great deal of money in renting out American flags to local trading vessels that were willing to pay $200 apiece for portant organ, and preventing the nutricular portant organ. were willing to pay $200 apiece for the sake of sailing under the United States colors. Another consul sugthe sake of sating under the United States colors. Another consul suggested that the inspection of immigrants was very necessary to the good health of America, and he was given permission to charge an inspection fee. He fixed the fee at 25 cents per head, and had made about $20,000 out of it before it was discovered that he paid a native 10 cents per head, while he pecketed the other 15 cents for overseeing the job. In Chilington and preventing the natural permission to the special deranged or torpic action, such as Dyspepsial develope, Elliousness, Costweness Mediaria, Sick-headache, Rheumatiam etc. It is therefore a ruismathat "To have Good Health the paid a native 10 cents per head, while he pecketed the other 15 cents for overseeing the job.
