ASTORIA, OREGON:
SUNDAY, JUNE 14, 1885
WEALTH.

The accumulation of vast riches in the hands of a few persons is a distinctive feature of the present age.

When he died he passed on something less than one hundred thousand dollars; and, on reflection, we have no reason to fear that his future state does not compare unfavorably with that of the pious deacon from whom we stole apples and melons in the days of our youth.

The likenesses of many that are prominent in the history or politics of our country have appeared in our columns; we now show the features of one of the most enterprising of our citizens nearer home. The above cut represents R. L. Jeffery, more familiarly known as "JEFF" of the Chop House, also proprietor of the Telephone Saloon, a new enterprise and one of the neatest and most complete saloons in the state, conducted in the San Francisco style. A fine lunch is set and all that goes to make a saloon attractive is there, including a fine Billiard Table, Piano, latest papers, etc. The popular and well known Justus Edwards is manager of this famous resort. Jeff's Chop House on Concomly street is so well known that nothing need be said further than you will there always get the cheapest meal and the best dinner in town from 4 to 8—open day and night. Fresh oysters, clams, pigs' feet, etc., a specialty.
