A minister at a recent wedding, came very near being broke up right in the midst of the ceremony, and all by the bride, a pretty, fragile, young little thing, and one of his favorite parisioners. She had insisted on the most rigid of the Episcopal church forms, and her Unitarian minister had humored her. Imagine, then, his surprise as he dictated the lines: "Promising to love, honor and obey," to have her distinctly alter her oaath to: "Promising to love, honor and be gay," looking him directly in the face the while. He had some difficulty to control his inclination to laugh, and not being prepared for the contingency, let it slip.

Something for the Baby.

What a terrible affliction about the house is a cross baby! A young man on the very edge of matrimony might easily be frightened from his purpose by having too much of that sort of music at the homes of his married friends. Yet babies cry commonly only when they are sick. One tea-spoonful of Parker's Tonic, given the little one, will bring rest and sleep to the baby and all in the house. Only 50 cents, at druggists.
