portraits, affidavits and confessions. have passed from the custody of the bers, but these are the Right Hon. and Most Rev. Edward White Benson, D. D., archbishsp of Canterbury and primate of all England; Right Rev. Frederick Temple, D. D., bishop of London; His Eminence Henry Ed ward Cardinal Manning, archbishop of Westminster, and Samuel Morley, member of parliament for Bristol, the most earnest and active laymer outside of the established church in the kingdom. The members range in age from 56 to 76 years, and represent the four great classes of religion in England—the High church and Low church Episcopalians, the Roman Catholics and non-Conformists. Politically the commission is equally well assorted. The two Anglican bishops were appointed to their pres-ent sees by Gladstone, and are mildly liberal. Cardinal Manning is conrvative, and Morley is a radical of

The commission began its labors to day. The acceptance of this task by such men convince the most skeptical that the Gazette revelations are not mere assertions of sensational journalism, but they expose a frightful imminent danger, which the guardians of the church, state and society must seize without gloves and throttle without mercy before it overwhelms their orders. Sir Richard Ashton Cross, home secretary, announced in the house of commons yesterday that the government had concluded that it was not advisable to prosecute the Pall Mall Gazette for its recent publications. In aristocratic circles there is much indignation expressed over the refusa of the government to prosecute, and over the alleged lowering of their dig-nity by eminent churchmen in consenting to have anything to do with the subject. There is good reason to believe, however, that most of this indignation is simulated. It was not until the government had distinctly refused to prosecute that the aristo crats became clamorous for prosecu-tion, and the reason is obvious. The Pall Mall Gazette, if driven to the defensive, certainly would have car-ried out its threats of revealing the names of the lecherous aristo cents, d "confronting princes of the blood with brothel-keepers and of subpensing half the legislature to prove its charges." The fear of ly all information placed before it, but most happy and valuable discovery. will make a general report as to the truth of the Gazette's revelations. Lovers of scandal for scandal's sake are therefore likely to be disappointed, but the recommendation of the new commission in the way of more stringent laws will be so potently backed that legislators, guilty and innocent alike, will hasten to consent to their

Washington, July 15.—A sensa-tion has been created here by the an-nouncement by "Brick" Pomeroy that he will receive subscriptions for the erection of a monument to Mrs. Surratt, who was executed as a conspirator in the assassination of Lincoln. Pomeroy claims that Mrs. Surrat was worse than murdered; that she was an innocent woman, without murder in her heart. He points to the fact that all the members of the military commission that condemned Mrs. Surratt to death are dead, except Four Rooms, Centrally Located Judge Holt; that he is residing in a a small village in Maryland, near here, have subscribed $1000, which they believe will guarantee the success of the project to mark the rest-ing place of the deceased conspira-

London, July 15.—The crusade against vice in London, begun by the Pall Mall Gazette, has entered upon a new stage. The revelations in the case, which are an array of papers, which are an array of papers, that Russians have advanced in force to Scalifark and that they are treat that Russians have advanced in force to Sculifark, and that they are treating Persian territory as though it newspapers into the hands of a commission, which is, for its size, the most eminent for piety, learning and social and official standing which ever assembled for any purpose in England. It consists of only four memory and the Bright Hon. resolutely resist any attempt to seize their territory. They are puzzled at these war-like preparations of the Russians under cover of Pacific assurances. It is believed that General Alikbanoff, commander of the Russian advance is determined to force on war, and there he is deceiving the ezar in regard to his real intentions. Consols 99% for both money and accounts. The market at the stock exchange at the close was panicky. Russian securities were 2@3 per cent. lower than closing prices last evening.

The downward tendency in the stock market to-day was assisted by rumors that the government had re-ceived information confirming ru-mors received by the Times of a Rus-sian advance on Zulfidar pass. The news of this hostile demonstration on the part of Russia, together with Churchitl's assertion in the commons ast evening that England would as sist the ameer if he asked for assistance, has created much excitement.

In the commons this evening Lord Randolph Churchill, secretary of state for India, replying to a question in regard to the reported Russian advance in Afghanistan, stated that the government had heard of no movement. Speaking of the retirement of members of the British Afghan frontier commission in the direction of Herat, Churchill said that the Heratiese, hearing that the Russians had continued their descent on Herat, had invited Commissioners Yates and Pease to enter their city, and the re-quest had been complied with.

Panama, July 15 .- News is received of a combat between the forces of the revolutionists and those of Quintero Calderon. It took place in Tamalameque, and over 300 rebels were killed, wounded or taken prisoner. Among the killed is General Fortunato Obernal. The steamer Medallin belonging to the rebels, was burned. In the explosion which followed ex-Generals Pedro Sarmiento and Daniel Hernandez, and ex-Colonel C-pitalino Obando perished.

A Tonic la the True Sense of the Word. Not all medicinal preparations called to: ics are such. A mere stimulant of appetite, which gives a simple "fillip to Nature"which removes no obstacle to her processes in the human system, is in no true sense a tonic. Heasetter's Stomach Bitters not only far trans ends in parity the ordinary named-leated stimulants of commerce, the cheap local bitters, and eye openers vended as tonics, but where they are powerless to do more than impart a tempary stimulus to appetite, the Bitters restores digestion, remedies biliousness and insures regularity in the habit of body. It is, therefore, a tonic in the true sense of the word, for does it not renew harmony of tone in the most important functions of the body, where all before was discordant, feeble and inharmonions? Besides this, its invigorating and regulating effects constitute it the best possible safeguard against malarial discasese. It conquers rheumatism, kidney complaints and nervousness.
