Inquiry at the Northern Pacific ing that company's indemnity lands, ton territory. resulted in the following statement of incts:

that the government has utterly failed to survey millions of acres within the granted limits to the Northern Pacific as required by the sixth section of the granting act. Until those surveys are made it is impossible for that the failed state of the section of the granting act. The board will pay special attention the coming fall to exhibits of "home productions," and such contributions as you may send will be given liberal ways and attention two years ago allowed the company to make indemnity selections without requiring the losses to be shown. He did this with a view of releasing the handing this circular to such person indemnity lands and placing the same or persons as will, we remain, very produce constitutions—are the second and the Milliam-kre. Their action on the Kidneys and skin is also prompt; removing all imparities through these three "scavengers of the system," per, 18H, granting pre-emption rights, and the acts amendatory hereof, and of the net catitled "An set to secure homesteads to actual settlers on the public domain," apby granted to said company. And the reserved alternate sections shall not be sold by the government at a price less than $2.50 for sere when offered for sale.

> A Washington special says: Treas-ary officials are still trying to find the address of Governor Kinhead of Alaska, to notify him that he has been succeeded by Swineford of Michigan. Kinkead has been dodg-ing about between Alaska, San Fransisco and Nevada, avoiding telegram The last heard of him he had sailed for northern Alaska. It is probable that he will not be informed of his recall until the new governor finds him and relieves him officially. The treasury department is also trying to relieve one of the Seal island supposed to be at Alaska. It turns out that he has not been there for year or more, but awaits his removal n San Francisco. He thinks he will be allowed to draw pay until he receives an order of removal, but it has been decided otherwise, by placing the name of his successor on the pay roll, to date from June 15.

The Vienna Politische Correspon ciens publishes a sami-official dis-patch from St. Petersburg on the Purely Vegetable Compound, that acts directly upon the Liver; curing the many diseases incident to that important organ, and preventing the numerous ailments that arise from its deranged or corpio action, such as Dyspepsis distribution, such as Dyspepsis distribution, such as Rhemantium etc. It is therefore a ruismethal "To have Good Health the Liver must be kept in order."
