

The Daily Astorian. ASTORIA, OREGON.

SUNDAY JULY 28, 1885. THE best time yet made between New York and Liverpool is six days, nine hours and fifty minutes.

THE German authorities, with a view to discourage emigration, have forbidden the railways to carry emigrants at reduced rates.

A DISPATCH from London says: M. Lesser states openly that the possession of Herat has become necessary for Russia and ought not to cause war.

PRINCE FREDERICK CHARLES, the Red Prince, left a fortune of upward of $10,000,000. The bulk of his estate goes to his son, Prince Frederick Leopold.

THE London Life reckons the value of the Times' advertisements on a recent Saturday to be about £2,180. This is at the rate of £13,000 a week and £2,000 a month.

HALF-PENNY dinners can be obtained in London, consisting of a rich stew made of the best quality of potatoes, carrots, onions, oatmeal and meat, and a second course of bread and jam.

THE clerks of the first assistant postmaster-general, at Washington, who have been denied the usual month's vacation, will apply, so says a Washington dispatch, for an extra month's pay.

THE Oregonian thinks that the state exhibit at the New Orleans exposition did no material good and that it would be a foolish waste of time and money to repeat the experiment next fall.

THE trip from New York to Boston via Hartford, distance 229 miles, was made by a train a few days ago in five hours, deducting about seven minutes lost in stops. This is considered a great feat in railroad traveling.

A SENTIMENT in favor of tariff protection is making considerable headway in Great Britain, and has developed itself in the suggestion that a royal commission be appointed to inquire into the prevalent depression of trade.

PRESIDENT CLEVELAND and the members of his cabinet have lately received a good many telegraphic messages obviously written by insane persons. There is only one sane feature to these telegrams. They are marked "Collect."

A GERMAN newspaper contains an obituary in which occurs the following: "Our dear son Gustave lost his life by falling from the spire of a Lutheran church. Only those who know the height of the steeple can measure the depth of our grief."

LEWIS PURDY of Shrub Oak, Westchester county, Virginia, probably the oldest postmaster in continuous service in the United States, celebrated his forty-fourth year last week. He was appointed by President Harrison in 1841, and has never missed a day in the performance of his duties.

DURING the last hundred years the English race has multiplied fivefold, the Russian fourfold, the German two-and-a-half fold, and the other European races in a smaller proportion, Italy having nearly doubled, and France and Spain having added only about 50 per cent. to their population.

MEN should always yield when their wives wish a new dress or any other article of wearing apparel. A negro in Virginia refused his wife a new pair of shoes, and she went before the magistrates and informed of his committing a murder some twenty years ago; and now the husband is behind the bars awaiting trial. A warning to married men.

SIR RICHARD CARTWRIGHT places Canadian finances in rather an unfavorable light. He declares that there has been an increase of $100,000,000 in the debt, for which there is nothing to show but two railways, one of which has been given away, while nobody cares for the other. Since 1857 the population has increased but 30 per cent, while the debt has advanced 200 per cent, expenditures 150 per cent and taxation 150 per cent.

ON the day of the failure of Grant & Ward, May 6th, 1884, Jesse R. Grant had on deposit with the firm $113,415, which he had deposited with it at various times as his bankers. A demand was made for the payment of the amount, but, as it was not paid, suit was brought in the supreme court for its recovery. The defendants put in no answer or demurrer to the complaint, and on the 11th judgment was rendered in favor of Jesse R. Grant for $121,472, being the amount claimed together with interest and costs.

IN 1801 the population of the United Kingdom, exclusive of the Channel islands, and the army, navy and merchant service abroad, was 15,902,000. In 1881 it was 34,951,000. This growth has been pretty evenly distributed through the decades. It has been greatest in England and Wales, the population of which has grown from 9,061,000 in 1801 to 27,499,000 in 1885, or more than threefold. In Scotland the increase has been from 1,525,000 to 3,908,000.

THE N. Y. Herald's Alexandria, Egypt, correspondent has had an interview with Hussein Pasha Khalif, the former governor of Berber, who was present near Khartoum at the time Gordon was killed. Hussein is the special commissioner from the Mahdi to the Khedive, this being the only way in which he could return to Egypt. He says there is no truth in the report of the Mahdi's death. The idea of Gordon having escaped from Khartoum is preposterous.

IT would appear to be settled that Gen. Grant's remains are to be buried in Central Park, New York. It is a mistake to bury him there, and savors too much of the show business. The place for the hero's sepulture is at Arlington cemetery near Washington, where lie the bones of tens of thousands of Union soldiers. There he should be buried and there should stand a handsome memorial monument. A statue of Grant would be appropriate in Central Park, but the natural feelings of all will protest against his burial there.

THE Oregonian thinks that the state exhibit at the New Orleans exposition did no material good and that it would be a foolish waste of time and money to repeat the experiment next fall.
