SAVED

BY THE CASH SYSTEM.

J. H. ROBBINS & SON

Have determined to abolish the

OLD CREDIT SYSTEM

And have made

SWEEPING REDUCTIONS!

In Musical Instruments, Sheet Music, Music Books, Strings, and everything pertaining to the music trade. We have called in all our traveling men, discontinued our sub agencies, stopped selling to the trade, and now offer to sell direct to the consumer at a less price than we have been selling to the trade. We propose to sell for cash with order, thereby avoiding bad debts.

Every Piano and Organ sold by us is fully warranted for five years, and will be kept in repair free of charge.

Any Piano or Organ ordered of us, after three days' trial, can be returned at our expense, if not as recommended and satisfactory, and money refunded. You can buy a Piano or Organ of us on the installment plan at the same price as the cash purchaser. By paying us any amount at any time, we place the same to your credit and send you a certificate of deposit. When you have deposited the full cash price of the Instrument you wish, it will be subject to your order.

Should sickness or other misfortune overtake you before the amount of the Instrument is deposited, and should you so desire, your money will be refunded in full. We buy Pianos and Organs at the factory for cash and ship in carloads. Other Musical Goods we buy in Europe, and get them as low as the lowest.

Now, as we offer to sell direct to the consumer, you will get your goods at a heavy reduction by ordering from us.

The cry of Shoddy will be set up by interested parties, but it will not go, for these are the same Pianos and Organs we have been selling for the past ten years; and it is a well known fact that there are no better instruments made in the world.

We append our Price List, in which are shown our old credit prices and our present tremendous reductions. We give prices of leading styles only, but the same reductions run through all styles.

A THOUSAND MEN SLAIN.

WASHINGTON, July 25,—Under date of Savanilla, United States of Colombia, July 1st, Admiral Jonett reports that a battle occurred between the government forces and revolutionists, in which 1,000 men were killed. The admiral says: "The revolutionary forces number only 25,000 men, but they hold a number of large river steamers and are able to move freely on the Magdalena river, while the government forces, having but two small steamers, are obliged to move by land. On June 10th, General Camargo, a very prominent Colombian politician and leader, arrived at this port on an English steamer and immediately assumed command of the revolutionary army. The arrival of Camargo, who is a violent liberal, effectually defeated all efforts to secure peace by treaty, which would undoubtedly have been successful had he remained away a while longer. Camargo quickly attacked a government force of 1,500 with his whole army. Although Camargo claims to have won the battle, he admits suffering severe loss, including seven of his best generals. It is reported that each side lost about 500 men."

The revolutionists clearly intend to confine their operations to the Magdalena river and the interior. This, together with the fact that the government has no steam vessels on the coast, insures the isthmus and vessels on the high seas against any chance of disturbance by the revolutionists. All reports from the isthmus indicate that political matters there remain settled, and that peace and good order prevail. There is, however, an alarming epidemic of yellow fever at Aspinwall and all over the isthmus.

Something for the Baby.

What a terrible affliction about the house is a cross baby! A young man on the very edge of matrimony might easily be frightened from his purpose by having too much of that sort of music at the homes of his married friends. Yet babies cry commonly only when they are sick. One teaspoonful of Parker's Tonic, given the little one, will bring rest and sleep to the baby and all in the house. Only 50 cents, at druggists.

The tenpenny nail falleth in the highway and maketh a loud noise, and is known among men; but the carpet-tack standeth upon his head in the silent spaces of the night, and getteth in his fine work upon the soles of the just and the unjust.
