

The Daily Astorian.

ASTORIA, OREGON:

TUESDAY, AUGUST 4, 1885

SOME MORE CALCULATION.

YESTERDAY'S Oregonian has an article supplementary to the one which appeared last Saturday in which the matter of cost of wheat shipments is discussed in a different tone.

It correctly says, "the simple inquiry is, in which way can wheat be shipped out of the Columbia river at least cost?"

According to the Oregonian to load a vessel with, say 1,800 tons of wheat, the vessel loading entirely at Astoria, would cost for lighterage alone $2,250.

On May 25th, 1882, the Astoria Transportation company on the strength of Portland promises, which like pie crust were only made to be broken, loaded 845 tons of wheat at Portland for transportation to a vessel waiting for cargo at Astoria.

As of old, missionaries and rum continue to form the cargoes of the same ships sailing for Africa. It is alleged that 60 per cent in value of all the articles shipped to the newly opened Congo country consists of liquors of the lowest grades as to quality, but of high intoxicating power.

GLADSTONE, in his seventy-sixth year, preparing to lead his party in what will be the most important political campaign England has ever seen, is a lesson to those numerous Americans who contrive to make themselves old men before they are sixty.

NEVADA is happy. John Mackay has shied his hat into the ring and says he wants the United States senatorship. Jas. Fair says he wants to keep it. Both are worth $25,000,000 and mean business.

THE BOSTON Transcript says the lease of the O. R. & N. Co., wrung out of the necessities of the Oregon and Transcontinental company, will prove the kedge anchor to the latter, for it will give Oregon and Transcontinental assets a definite value.

It is reported that an enumeration of the inhabitants of Dakota, now nearly completed, will show a population in that section of the nation of about 400,000, or, divided sectionally, 150,000 in the northern and 250,000 in the southern half.

THE CANADIAN insurgent, Riel, was tried at Regina last week; the jury found him guilty and he was sentenced to be hanged September 18th.

MEMORIAL services in honor of Gen. Grant will be held in Westminster Abbey to-day. This is the first time that services of the kind have been held in that ancient temple for any one who was not English born.

DISCUSSION still goes on about the probable or possible holding of an extra session of the legislature this fall. Gov. Moody will make a mistake if he calls an extra session.

die through Portland in transit and be loaded where nature designated—at Astoria, in deep-sea-going vessels. Of course it wouldn't do for THE ASTORIAN to even suggest such a thing, and it doesn't; it suggests that its bigger and abler suggester, THE ASTORIAN, is but as the voice of one crying in the wilderness, "make straight the way of the Lord."

THE NEW YORK Commercial Advertiser publishes some comparative statistics regarding losses by fire in the United States which are very suggestive. The annual destruction of property averages about $100,000,000 in value. This is equal to one-sixth of the profits of all the industries of the country.

THE BRITISH shipbuilding trade shows the universal state of depression in business perhaps as well as any one industry can, as shipping depends upon the interchange of products for existence and the English now control the shipping trade of the world.

WITHOUT the agency of steam an English statistician declares the London of to-day would be an impossibility, and it, owing to sudden invasion or to any unforeseen calamity, the facilities now afforded by steam power for supplying the daily wants of over 4,000,000 inhabitants were destroyed, London could be reduced to the verge of starvation in a single week.

HOW easily we could settle the Chinese question if our government was like that of Germany. Thirty thousand Russian Poles have been ordered to leave eastern Prussia, but the majority of them have kindly been allowed a short time to sell their property and business and to settle up their affairs before leaving.

As of old, missionaries and rum continue to form the cargoes of the same ships sailing for Africa. It is alleged that 60 per cent in value of all the articles shipped to the newly opened Congo country consists of liquors of the lowest grades as to quality, but of high intoxicating power.

BARTHOLDI'S BIG GIRL.

The Prejudice Met by a Canvaser For the Pedestal Fund.

The Bartholdi Pedestal Fund is nearly complete. The statue has arrived, and soon New York Harbor will be graced by the most magnificent colossal statue the world has ever seen.

"Liberty Enlightening the World!" What a priceless blessing personal liberty is! It is the shrine at which people, ground under the heel of tyranny in the older worlds, worship with a fervency that Americans can scarcely realize; it is a principle for which Nihilists willingly die the death of dogs; and fit and proper it is that at the very entrance of the Bay of New York this emblematic statue should flash a welcome to the world.

The press is entitled to the credit of this achievement. Mr. Philip Beers, who has been making a circuit of the country on behalf of the Pedestal Fund, says that the fund will certainly be raised, as the World does not know the world foil.

Mr. Beers says that he has found the most pronounced generosity among those of foreign birth. They seem more appreciative of liberty than do our native born. Moreover, among some a strange prejudice seems to exist.

"Prejudice? In what particular?" "I have ever found that however meritorious a thing may be, thousands of people will inevitably be prejudiced against it. I have spent most of my life on the road and I know the American people 'like a book.' In 1879 a personal misfortune illustrated this prevailing prejudice. I was very ill, had suffered for several years with headache, fickle appetite, dreadful backache, cramps, hot head, cold hands and feet, and a general break down of the system. I dragged myself back to New York, seeking the best professional treatment. It so happened that among my relatives is a distinguished physician who upbraided me roundly for preaching so much about my own case. Finally, with some spirit, I remarked to him:—

"Sir, you know that much of your professional wisdom is pretense. You are controlled by prejudice. You cannot reach a case like mine, and you know it, can you?" "I had him; and he finally conceded the point, for it was Bright's Disease of the kidneys which had prostrated me, and the school-men admit they cannot cure it. Having cured myself, however, in 1879, and not having seen a sick day since, my relative finally admitted that Warner's Safe Cure, which accomplished this result, was really a wonderful preparation. Had President Rutter, of the Central-Hudson, used it, I am certain he would be alive to-day, for he could not have been in a worse condition than I was."

"I have found similar prejudices among a class concerning even so laudable a scheme as this Pedestal Fund."

Mr. Beers' experience and the recent death of President Rutter, of the Central-Hudson Railroad, of an extreme kidney disorder, proves that the physicians have no real power over such diseases, and indicates the only course one should pursue if, as the late Dr. Willard Parker says, headache, sickness of the stomach, dropsical swellings, backache, dark and offensive fluids, prematurely impaired eyesight, loss of strength and energy occur, for they unmistakably indicate a fatal result, if not promptly arrested.

Yes, sir, every cent needed for the pedestal will be raised. Of course it will be a great triumph for the World, but would it not have been an eternal disgrace had our people failed to provide for this pedestal?"
